An immense stock of Spring Prints at Richardson's; lovely patterns; see them.

DEATH.—Dr. James, Tilsonburg, brother of Mr. C. C. James, Priceville, died last week.

Sugar making season is here. Query—Does it pay to make Maple Sugar when you can buy 15 pounds refined sugar for One Dollar cash at M. Richardson's.

Drs. Christoe & Carter, both graduates of Victoria University, have entered into partnership for the practice of medicine in Flesherton, and will be prepared to attend to all calls and consultations night or day.

TENDERS.—Tenders have been advertised for the construction of the stone and brick work of Dr. Christoe's new building, to be erected on the corner of Collingwood and Beechel streets. The work is to be pushed as rapidly forward is possible.

POULTRY.—Improve your poultry by purchasing eggs from W. H. Campaigne. Imported birds introduced every year to keep up stock. White and Brown Leghorns $2 per setting; Plymouth Rocks $2. Eggs warranted fertile. Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

M. Richardson is now receiving the largest importation of tea ever brought into Flesherton; his famous 30 cent tea is acknowledged on all hands the best value in the country.

"BLACK PRINCE."—Mr. W. W. Trimble, of this village, has purchased from Mr. J. R. Trimble, Markdale, the celebrated general purpose stallion, "Black Prince," rising 4 years old. This stallion has only been exhibited three times, taking first at Rocklyn, in spring of 1883; 1st at Flesherton, fall of 1883; and 1st at Markdle fall of same year.

"PICTURESQUE CANADA."—Parts 27 and 28 of this excellent work have just been delivered to Flesherton subscribers. The numbers before us are superior, from every point of view, to any yet issued by the enterprising publishers. We have had occasion in the past to criticise rather severely several numbers relating to scenes in our immediate neighborhood; but taken on the whole, it is the best work of art that has ever been issued in this country. Sold by subscription only; Art Pub. Co., Toronto, publishers.

Richardson's Spring Importations are now arriving; the puzzle with him is where to put them, his old premises being far too small to accommodate his large stock and new premises not finished yet.

A $20 Bible Prize.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for April, among which is the following:—

We will give $20.00 to the person telling us how many words there are in the Epistle of Jude, as recorded in the New Testament Scriptures (not the NEW REVISION,) by April 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner April 15th, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the May Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

"How are we ever going to get thro' our spring and summer's work? We are all run down, tired out before it begins." So say many a farmer's family. We answer, go to your druggist and pay five dollars for six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is just the medicine you need, and will pay compound interest on the investment.

East Grey Spring Show.

The East Riding of Grey Agricultural Society will hold a Spring Show in the village of Flesherton, on Tuesday, April 22nd, inst. Prizes will be awarded for best Heavy Draught, Roadster, General Purpose, Blood, and Percheron Stallions; also for best Durham, Ayrshire, Devon, Hereford, and Polled Angus Bulls two years and over and 1 year and under 2 years old. The general rules governing fall exhibitions will also govern this. See posters for full particulars.

Correction.

In our report of Dundalk Brass Band's concert in the Town Hall, Flesherton, last week, we critizised the gentleman, who accompanied Mr. McEachern on the organ, rather severely. The gentleman's name is Mr. W. P. Rundle, and he takes objection—and very properly, too, it must be admitted, when the circumstances are fully known—to our censuring him for discords produced by the singer himself. The discord in "Larboard Watch, Ahoy," was, says Mr. Rundle, "due solely to the soloists inability to retain the "pitch" of the piece being rendered." Of course, under these circumstances, it will be seen at once that we—quite unintentionally, however—did Mr. Rundle an injustice in reporting him in the way we did; and we thank that gentleman for so promptly calling our attention to the matter.

Our Table.

GRIP.—Last week's issue of this great cartoon paper, contained some cleverly executed cartoons. The most interesting cartoon in the batch, however, is the main one. This is a large double-page cartoon supposed to represent the present situation of the famous "conspiracy" case. The law (a woman) is represented with a black-snake whip in one hand and a rat-trap containing Messrs. Meek, Bunting, and Wilkinson in the other. Near by is a tub filled with water, labelled, "Political Oblivion." The question is asked—"Will She Drown Them?" Near by Messrs. Meredith and Morris are standing, and one of them is saying, "If the worst comes, I hope none of 'em will squeal." Mr. Griffin, editor-in-chief of the Mail has one of the "rats" by the tail (Bunting) and implores the law to "drown the others if you like, but save, oh, save this innocent one!" Mr. Mowat who has his nose near a hole in the ground, exclaims to Frazer, who stands by—"I smell John A. in this!" Hardy and Pardee are after Hon. Mr. McPherson with sticks, while Mr. Cameron of the Globe, mounted on a barrel, exultingly cries, "Here's Shields!" Mr. Goldwin Smith also figures prominently in the cartoon. Mr. Bengough must have been in one of his happiest moods when he conceived this admirably executed sketch.

Pedigree of "Young Lebon."

Sire Lebon; imported dam, Sir Wm. Wallace; grand dam, Robin Hood Lebon is a dark bay, rising three years old, with black leg, mane, and tail; stands 16½ hands high, with great flat bone, and superior action. He was a great prize-taker in England. Lebon's sire—"Old Lebon"—won the $100 prize in 1878, at Boston, England. He was bred by Thos. Fullard, Esq., Thorney, in 1868; got by "Wonder." Dam by Hemmet's "Trumper;" g. dam by Steward's "Mager," of "Chatteris," a noted horse sired by Mr. Purant's "Honest Tom;" grand-sire, Mr. Goodwin's "Honest Tom;" great grand-sire Mr. Bimgham's "England's Glory," which took prizes three years at Lincoln and Mr. B. refused 400 guineas for him. Wonder by Matchless; Matchless by Young Active; dam by Young Stafford. J. W. Hodgson, proprietor "Young Lebon."

That slight cold you think so little of may prove the forerunner of a complaint that may be fatal. Avoid this result by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the best of known remedies for colds, coughs, catarrha, bronchitis, incipient consumption, and all other throat and lung diseases.

Brevities.

—Cattle Fair day in Flesherton, on Monday next, April 7th.

—J. W. Hodgson advertises a stray Steer in this issue of THE ADVANCE.

—Mr. W. H. Campaigne advertises a boar for sale in another column.

—"Notes on Ingersoll" for sale at this office.

A lot of New Trunks for sale cheap at WM. CLAYTON'S.

—Mr. Geo. Wilson has started butchering in Flesherton. See Adv.

—Filthy sheds and pig pens on the front streets should be discountenanced.

—See advertisement for tenders for erection of a Methodist Church in Kimberley, in another column.

—Parties wanting first-class Leghorn or Houdan Eggs should apply to W. Barnhouse, Flesherton.

—Messrs. Campaigne & Gadd have dissolved partnership in the blacksmith business. The business will be continued by Mr. Gadd.

—Mr. R. Cook at Flesherton Station, has purchased a Jackass, and the folks in this village are now daily on the look-out for a shower of flesh from that direction!

—One of our village firms got its business cards printed in a neighboring village recently; and now some of our citizens are wondering where the printer got the Chinese hieroglyphics to print them with.

—People keeping cows in the village, should have some way of preventing them becoming public nuisances. Between pigs, and hens, this village will soon become a veritable paradise—for filth and all uncleanness.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Robt. Hannah, who has been twenty-one months connected with the popular Flesherton hotel, vacated his situation last Monday. Mr. Hannah is a young man of sterling worth, and had become very popular, during his stay here, among all classes of the travelling public and the villagers generally. The very fact that he could have retained his position had he desired—so well-liked was he by his employer—speaks volumes in his favor, for mine host Munshaw, is very particular as to the kind of men he keeps in his employ. Mr. Hannah will assist his father, Mr. Alex. Hannah, in the management of Flesherton Station Hotel in future. This latter hotel is to be greatly improved by Mr. Hannah, who takes possession next Monday.
