Brevities.

—Master Frank Bellamy is home on a short visit.

—We have to thank Mr. Cornfield for copies of some American papers.

—Somebody broke a pane of glass in the front window of Gordon's harness shop on Good Friday.

—"W. B." made an exhibition of himself on the hotel square, Flesherton, on Good Friday. Whiskey, of course.

—Mr. R. Cook, agent for the celebrated Maunders' Ontario Iron Harrow, has already manufactured and sold 25 sets of these splendid harrows this season.

—A little excitement was caused by one of the chimneys in Mr. R. J. Sproule's residence Flesherton, catching fire on Good Friday.

The plumber is at work in M. Richardson's new block fitting in the gas pipes. He will probably finish his work this week.

—Mr. J. G. Keefer formerly of THE ADVANCE and late foreman in the news department of the St. Thomas Daily Times, is now on the Forest Free Press staff.

—The youth who "acted drunk," and made use of vulgar language in the post-office on Good Friday afternoon, had no idea what a fool and laughing stock he made of himself.

—We direct attention to Russell, the noted Flesherton Jewelry man's large advertisement in another column. He intends, we believe, to keep a large stock of first-class pipes for sale shortly.

—Mr. Thos. Duncan, our respected tailor, fell from the top of the stairs, leading to his apartments in Richardson's block, to the bottom, on Good Friday. He had a very narrow escape from being killed.

—Miss G. A. N. Page has just returned from Owen Sound with all the latest shapes in Hats, and is prepared to make up and do over Straw, Felt, and Leghorn Hats in all the latest styles, at Bulmer's Photograph Gallery, Flesherton.

—If you want first-class photographs go to Jas. Bulmer, Flesherton. If you want photographs copied or enlarged in first-class style, go to the same place. If you want frames and frame fixings, go to the same place. Everything at reasonable prices.

—The Dundalk Herald is so angry with us, that he failed to notice our visit to his sanctum in the last issue of his delectable sheet. Who but an ignoramus would be so wanting in common courtesy, let alone the ordinary usages of journalism?

—The man who accused Mr. R. McGill, Flesherton Station agent, of putting the wrong date on a return ticket he purchased from that gentleman, made a big mistake when he treacherously assaulted him. Mr. McGill should see that the fellow is jugged.

Perfect soundness of body and mind is possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities of all civilized countries order Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood-purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hand brain.

Not a dollar's worth of shoddy or trashy auction goods are allowed on the shelves of W. J. McFarland's store. He imports direct from the British and Canadian manufacturies, and pays cash for every dollars worth of goods he handles: hence his immense business and success as a merchant.

New Firm.

Messrs. Milburn & Gadd have entered into partnership in the carriage-making and blacksmithing business, as announced in our advertising columns today, in the stands formerly occupied by Mr. T. W. Wilson in the same business in Flesherton. Mr. Milburn, senior member of the new firm, is a first-class carriage maker in every respect as his work shows; and Mr. Gadd takes no second place in the blacksmithing. The firm employ good hands, and use only the best material in the construction of the various kinds of vehicles manufactured by them. They are both young men of good business habits, industrious and energetic, and we are very much mistaken if they do not succeed in working up an extensive patronage. Repairing in both lines of business promptly and cheaply attended to; and horse-shoeing, as usual, second to none.

One Day Late.

We are one day late issuing THE ADVANCE this week. We held back in order to give our readers a full report of the Cook Teets case. This case, however, has been postponed until next assizes.

Wedding Bells.

Our Worthy Township Clerk no Longer a Bachelor.

One of the most interesting events which has taken place in this section of Grey for some time, was the marriage of the worthy Township Clerk of Artemesia, Mr. W. J. Bellamy, to Miss Mary E. Osborne, daughter of James Osborne, Esq., Osprey, on the 9th inst. The matrimonial knot was skillfully tied by the Rev. C. Shaw, of Maxwell C. M. Church, at the residence of the bride's father, after which the newly married couple, accompanied by a number of friends and relatives, drove to Flesherton, where they sat down to a splendid supper at the residence of bridegroom's parents. After doing ample justice to the bountiful repast, the young married pair drove to Flesherton Station, where they took train for Toronto. They have the best wishes of all for their future happiness and prosperity.

American Newspapers in 1884.

From the edition of Messrs. Geo. P Rowell & Co's AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY, now in press, it appears that the newspapers and periodicals of all kinds at present issued in the United States and Canada reach a grand total of 13,402. This is a net gain of precisely 1,600 during the last twelve months, and exhibits an increase of 5.618 over the total number published just ten years since. The increase in 1874 over the total for 1873 was 493. During the past year the dailies have increased from 1,138 to 1,254; the weeklies from 9,062 to 10,028: and the monthlies from 1, 091 to 1,499. The greatest increase is in the Western States. Illinois, for instance, now shows 1,009 papers in place of last year's total of 904, while Missouri issues 604 instead of the 523 reported in 1883. Other leading Western States also exhibit a great percentage of increase. The total number of papers in New York State is 1,523, against 1,499 in 1883. Canada has shared in the general increase.

GREY SPRING ASSIZES.

Seduction Case.—Hanover "Post" Libel Suit.—Cook Teet.—&c.

The County of Grey Spring Assizes were opened in the Court House, Owen Sound, on Tuesday last at one o'clock p. m., his lordship, Judge Wilson, presiding.

Of the civil cases tried, the most important one was an

ACTION FOR SEDUCTION,

under promise of marriage, brought by Eleanor Guy, of the Township of St. Vincent, against James Bell of the same Township. When placed in the witness box, the plaintiff showed how keenly she felt her trying position; but although at times she faltered while undergoing the severe cross-examination, her evidence was clear and convincing; in fact the evidence for the prosecution throughout was clear and straightforward, and created a favorable impression on judge and jury. The defendant, Bell, contradicted himself once or twice in reference to a certain date which was an important "link" in the case. He DENIED FLATLY the more important statements of the plaintiff and her brothers. The evidence of defendants own sisters, however, completely destroyed his "line of defence outside of his own contradiction. The cross-examination by plaintiffs solicitor was masterly. The judge charged strongly in favor of plaintiff. The jury retired, and brought in a verdict for plaintiff for $500 damages, defendant also to pay costs. It was generally conceded, that the jury made a

VERY SMALL AWARD

to the young lady whose reputation is now blasted for life by the libertine Bell. As soon as the jury brought in their verdict, Bell was arrested on a new charge which had been developed in the course of the seduction case. He evidently did not anticipate this

LITTLE "SURPRISE PARTY."

Another important case on the civil list, was that of a certain Meaford medicine company versus Ketchum of the Hanover Post. The circumstances of the case, briefly, are about as follows: The medicine company made an advertising contract with the Post man for a stated period, the company to pay quarterly. At the end of the first three months of the contract, Ketchum sent in his account, and failing to elicit a reply, wrote again. The medicine company not being paid their "little" bill at the time agreed upon, nor yet for some time afterwards, Ketchum denounced them through the Post as frauds; hence suit for libel was brought against him, the damages being placed at $5,000. Mr. Jay, secretary of the medicine company, being placed in the box, could not say whether the company had sustained any damages or not by the publication of the item referred to. The case was settled; Ketchum to pay costs.

COOK TEET'S CASE.

The trial of Cook Teet, charged with poisoning his wife, was postponed until the next assizes. The particulars in connection with the tragic death of Rosannah Leppard are well known to our readers.

A Fenian Raid.

Predicted by Mr. J. Sterling of Maxwell.

It is not generally known that the quiet little village of Maxwell, in the Township of Osprey, is the happy possessor of a genuine "foreteller of events." But such really appears to be the case. The gentleman who occupies this distinguished position in the village referred to, is no less a person than Mr. J. Sterling, who is well known to the people of Flesherton and locality. Mr. Sterling predicts that this Province will be over-run by Fenians during the first week in June next. He advises villagers and townspeople to seek seclusion in the forests and rocky fastnesses of the rural districts. He founds his predictions on something said concerning "Armageddon" in the book of Joel.

We have not had an opportunity to interview Mr. Sterling personally on the subject, but are informed that he is thoroughly in earnest in the expression of his views. We have read the book of Joel carefully from beginning to end, but failed to see anything about a Fenian invasion in Ontario in June of the year A. D. 1884 in its sacred pages. We would respectfully suggest that Mr. Sterling give his reasons for making such a remarkable as well as such a startling "prediction?"

TYPES.

FROM THE INLAND PRINTER.

Unlike the Hydra, that myth so dreaded,
We're many-bodied without a head;
Of paradox just here are traces,
Though headless, we have many faces.

We speak all languages alike,
Cry down the wrong, uphold the right;
United we're a mighty power,
But sep'rate, weak as frailest flower.

The "devil" himself's compelled to fly
From the compo's wrath, if he makes a "pi"
Of any matter that's not yet dead,
Which is being made up for the bed.

Just hearken to our sprightly click,
As we're hustl'd together into the stick,
Soon to be locked up in the chase;
Who'd think our master were so base?

Oh! had we tongues, we'd cry with pain,
For now we're pounded with mallet and plane,
And very soon to press we'll go,
Be it Campbell, or Potter, Babcock, or Hoe,

A million eyes will soon puruse
Our faces, in the form of news,
As every man our might can feel,
So to our craft we're true as steel.
