ROWDYISM IN CHURCH.

Our brief editorial remarks anent rowdyism in the Methodist Church, Flesherton, has subjected us to some rather uncomplimentary allusions. In fact we have been threatened—with what, we have not yet been told—because we dared refer to the matter the way in which we did. One young man said the public regarded it as a direct allusion to himself, because, as he said, he was wrongfully accused of being one of the rowdies referred to.

Now, we did not refer to any one particularly, because we did not know who the rowdy or rowdies were. We only knew that somebody acted as nobody but a rowdy would act in God's house, and felt justified in condemning such rowdyism in strong terms. We did so, and it is not our intention to take back a single expression made use of in the objectionable (?) editorial referred to, all manner of threats to the contrary notwithstanding. We should be sorry to accuse any young man wrongfully of rowdyism, for no one envies the character of a rowdy. It would be villainous to accuse a man of that of which he is not guilty; we made no personal allusions therefore; we stated facts; and whoever the cap fits can put it on.

THE SCOTT ACT.

The Scott Act will shortly be submitted in the County of Simcoe. The Temperance people are enthusiastic in the matter, and are determined to carry the Act by all fair and honorable means. Anti-temperance men are just as determined to defeat it. But, as intimated in a previous issue of THE ADVANCE, Temperance principles are growing very rapidly in this country, and if the temperance people only manifest ordinary prudence, the day of total prohibition even may not be very far distant. Ten years ago the more thoughtful of temperance people almost, if not altogether, considered total prohibition a moral impossibility, public opinion seemed to be so thoroughly prejudiced against such an act. To-day hundreds and thousands of intelligent, earnest teetotallers entertain, and with good reason, the most sanguine opinions concerning the matter. Public opinion has changed wonderfully regarding the liquor traffic in ten years. What changes may not the whirligig of time bring with it in the next decade?

It is the intention, we believe, to submit the Scot Act in every County in Ontario in due process of time. It has already been carried in several counties, and is reported as working well and giving good satisfaction generally. It is a good idea to submit the Scot Act in this way, as it will pave the way for a national prohibitory liquor law in the near future. So mote it be.

ROWDYISM IN THORNBURY.

There is a certain amount of the rowdy element in all our towns and villages, which, if law and order is to be maintained, must be stamped out at once and forever, or the results will be disastrous. Like malignant and contagious diseases, this rowdyistic element has a tendency to spread and corrupt the morals of the rising generation. The disgraceful vandalism of Owen Sound roughs at Salvation Army meetings, is only equalled by that of birds of the same feather in the village of Thornbury. In reference to the rowdyism manifested in the latter place at Salvation Army meetings, the Thornbury Standard of last week says:—

> "Wherever God erects a house of prayer,
> The Devil always builds a chapel there;
> And 'twill be found upon examination,
> The latter has the largest congregation."

These lines from Daniel Defoe cause us to think of the barbaric Vandalism perpetrated nightly by the youth of our villages returning from the meetings of the Salvation Army in the hall. All along the line are marks of senseless and vexatious destruction. Windows broken at Brewster's and Croziers, fresh painting besmeared, the Clarksburg bridge railing broken down, fence pickets torn off here and there, fences built across the road at the Catholic church, etc, all of which shows a senseless devil-inspired maliciousness. We are glad to know that our Reeve has taken steps to prevent a recurrence of such Vandalism, and we sincerely hope he will be successful in bringing the guilty ones to justice."

THE END OF THE "WORLD."

The Toronto World is no more. The last number was issued on Saturday, the 12th inst. It occupied a foremost rank among the independent papers of this country; it was a patriotic paper; it was a progressive paper; and it was ever bold and fearless in the expression of its honest convictions. Hence every advanced thinker, and every unprejudiced individual will sincerely regret its untimely demise. The Detroit Free Press says:—

"The Toronto World has succumbed to outrageous fortune. It was the pluckiest attempt to make a truly independent newspaper that Canadian journalism has witnessed, but the Canadian mind is too narrow or the rewards of party service too tempting to make pronounced independence a success over there. Brains and enterprise were unequally matched against the party organs, and in the long run the former got left. But it was a creditable race for the World."

[Since the above was in type, we learn with much pleasure, that the World will be issued again as usual in a few days.—ED.]

DUTIES OF A COUNTRY EDITOR.

The lot of the country editor does not always fall in pleasant places, as may be inferred from his duties as enumerated in the McGregor Plaindealer:—

"Being proprietor, editor-in-chief, local editor, city editor, agricultural editor, personal editor, political editor, puzzle editor, fighting editor, paragrapher, proof-reader, foreman, compositor, job printer, bookkeeper, collector, circulator, solicitor, manager, pressman, to make bills, make orders, pay printers, pay taxes, pay house and office rent, pay insurance premiums, buy clothes, food, and shoes for himself, wife and baby, be bruiser-general, roustabout, devil, and do chores."

DR. LOW'S WORM SYRUP will remove all kinds of Worms from children or adults.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

—"Truth" has another interesting letter in this issue of THE ADVANCE anent "Infidelity."

—The latest despatches from Australia report that a sculling match with Trickett and Beach against Hanlan for £1,000 has been arranged.

—The libel and slander suit brought against the Meaford Mirror by Mr. Candler at the Owen Sound assizes last week, resulted in a verdict for plaintiff of $50 and costs, instead of the $5000 damages originally claimed.

—The following gentlemen comprised the jury at the Spring Assizes held at Owen Sound last week:—John Cameron, Foreman; Hugh Reid, R. Shunn, Henry Adams, Peter Fuller, M. D. Deavitt, John Allen, James Geddes, sen., Ernest Monck, Wesley Long, Jno. Sparrow, W. J. Wolfe, Richard Fisher, Robert Brown, John Booth, R. B. Miller, Thos. Gilray, Robt. Robertson, Wm. Milne, Wm. Smith.

—The pool of stagnant water on the roadside, in the swamp between this village and Flesherton Station, could easily be drained off. We take this opportunity of directing the attention of our Township Fathers to the matter, in the hope that they will govern themselves accordingly. We believe less than forty dollars would be necessary to make a good job of it.
