Heard's Improv'd HARROWS.

Artemesia, June 16th, 1883.

MR. JOHN H. HEARD.

Dear Sir,—I take pleasure in testifying that the set of ten-bulled Harrows I purchased from you last April has given me entire satisfaction. It being given to me on trial, I closely watched its operations when at work to find a fault with it, but I failed to see any. It is no heavier on my team than my six-bull wooden harrow. I am yours truly, JOHN WHITBY.

The Salvation Army.

From the Hamilton Spectator.

To the Editor: The progress in England and elsewhere of the army has been something phenomenal. The total number of stations in England and Ireland in the year 1880 was 172; in 1883 they were 528, with 428 little soldiers or children's corps and out posts: number of officers in 1880, 363; services held per week, 1,340; while in 1883 the number of officers was 3,370, services held per week, 11,500; in 1880 they had outside of England only two stations in America; they have now corps in France, Sweden, Switzerland, United States, Canada, Australia, South America and India, about 150 corps and 300 officers. In 1880 the amount subscribed by the public for spiritual extension work was $25,000; in 1883, $50,000. In 1880 the one official paper, the War Cry, had a circulation of 110,000. They have now several official War Crys, with a weekly circulation of 510,000 copies. The headquarters of the army is in London, Eng., where they have an immense establishment, printing offices, banking establishment, solicitors, offices, with a large number of hands in the various departments. They hold some large and valuable properties, used as barracks, in London and the provinces, and also central stations in various parts of England, presided over by staff officers. The administrative ability shown in the management of the army is of the very highest order, as is proved by their rapid development. All this would not, however, be of the slightest avail in its development, was it not for the good they are doing, without which they could not stand as high in the estimation of the masses. It has been said by a minister or ministers in sermons at London, that this work is the product of the evil one. This opinion, as given by these gentlemen, was published in a large number of Canadian newspapers, the Spectator among the number. It seems strange that gentlemen holding the position that these do should make such an assertion. I cannot conceive of what the kingdom of the evil one is to gain by the work of the army, as their universal testimony is is that they have been rescued from drink, immorality and sin, in large numbers; and they become good fathers, mothers, husbands, wives, sons and daughters. Where cursing, sin ribaldry reigned supreme, now there is singing, prayer and praise, and this in thousands of families. Where the evil one comes in here I am unable to fathom. Surely, this is the work the ministers complaining are endeavoring to do. How different are the views on any one subject, theological or otherwise, of different minds. The Toronto Christian Guardian, the organ of the Canadian Wesleyan Methodists, writes in a very different light in its issue of last week. I copy the following extracts from it on army work in Canada: Happy Tom, of the salvation army, was at the prayer melting. He was remarkable for the simplicity of his faith and power in prayer. Again Happy Tom, of the Salvtion army, with us again. Only six months ago he was a mere wreck of humanity in the city of Toronto; to-day clothed and in his right mind, sitting at the feet of Jesus. We listened to the well-chosen words from his lips with thankfulness and joy. What wonders grace can do. God bless him. Again, speaking of the village of Aurora, Ont., it says: I cannot see why some people leave our service to attend the army services. That the army is a great power for good none can deny. Through its instrumentality sinners of the the worst possible type are being brought to the feet of Jesus. The doctrines taught by the Salvation army are the doctrines of Methodism, and their meetings are nothing less than huge protracted meetings or revival services without any ending, for when they capture a place they hold it for Christ. This and much more is said favorable to the army. The following is a specimen: While the churches are a great help to the army, the army is a great help to the churches; and in some places blessed revivals in the churches have arisen from the work of the army. Surley the reverend Drs. must have been misinformed or laboring under an hallucination or error when they characterize the work I have sketched out as being the work of his Satanic majesty. At any rate the reverend gentleman writing in the Christian Guardian is not of their opinion, and that for very good reasons. I will, Mr. Editor, by your consent, in a future number, give you some facts from my own knowledge of the army's work in Hamilton.

OBSERVER.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers.

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro."
Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable.

J. T. HAYES."
Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
