Owen Sound Alderman 'Slaps' South Grey

Reporting a meeting of the Owen Sound City Council held on Friday evening the Sun-Times of Saturday gives the following interesting information.

"A deputation from the City Council will go to Toronto to protest to the Department of Highways that Owen Sound men are not being given employment on the highway construction work at Berkeley, the City Fathers decided Friday evening.

"Ald. Jas. Rutherford, chairman of the Relief Committee, stated that, out of 70 men employed on this job, there were only four Owen Sounders, only two of whom had been taken from the relief list of this city. The work was being given to farmer's sons, who never were on relief, he claimed.

" 'We should get at least 50 per cent of the labor,' Ald. Rutherford declared. 'This work is being undertaken by the Government to aid the relief situation, but we are getting no help from it. I think some stop should be put to the patronage plan of giving out the work. I would suggest that we go to Toronto and present our case.'

"Admitting that the work was in the South Grey riding, Ald. Rutherford declared 'Most of our big families on relief have been from South Grey. If the South Grey municipalities would care to take them back, then we would not kick so much.'

"Ald. H. Mason, chairman last year, stated that a similar situation had arisen when he was chairman, but had been quickly overcome when he went to Toronto about it."

We were not aware that the work was being undertaken by the Government to aid the relief situation, until the announcement was made by the Owen Sound Alderman. We understood the pavement was being constructed in order to make improved roads for the motorists. Then it is also news to find that "most of our big families on relief have come from South Grey." That, coming from a man who is supposed to be big enough and broad enough to be a city alderman makes South Grey residents wonder whether Owen Sound is the whole works or just an isolated municipality adjoining the County of Grey. It is not surprising the feeling is growing among the County Councillors that the County's headquarters should be moved to some centre within the county.—Markdale Standard.

A teacher's job nowadays is often complicated by the fact that he must make the children unlearn a lot of things he picks up on the street and at home.

Live Stock Report

In spite of the heavy supplies of cattle which arrive for Monday's market, the trade was active and steady. Export buyers for shipments to both the United Kingdom and the United States were again prominent operators, which was of much assistance to the market as a whole.

Choice heavy steers were in good demand at from $8.25 to $8.75; fair to good from $7.75 to $8.25; medium from $7.00 to $7.50. In the butcher section, choice handy weight steers and heifers sold readily at from $7.75 to $8.00; fair to good from $7.00 to $7.65; common to medium from $6.00 to $7.00. Choice baby beeves brought from $8.50 to $9.00; medium to good from $7.00 to $8.25. Stockers and feeders were in good demand, selected light cattle selling from $5.00 to $5.50 and feeders from $6.00 to $6.50. The cow trade held steady, choice fat cows from $5.50 to $5.75 and choice heifery cows from $6.00 to $6.25; fair to good butcher cows from $4.25 to $5.25; common to medium $3.25 to $4.00; canners and cutters $2.50 to $3.00. Milch cows and springers were slow of sale. Choice heavy bulls sold at from $4.50 to $5.00 and bolognas from 64.00 to $4.25.

In the small meats, choice spring lambs sold at from $12.75 to $13.00 on Monday. The indications are that prices will work lower as the supplies increase. The sheep trade was slow. The calf market held steady with the close of the week previous, which was lower, choice calves selling at $7.50, with an occasional calf of fancy quality at $8.00; fair to good calves from $6.00 to $7.00; common to medium $5.-00 to $6.00.

The hog market was at a standstill on account of lower bids from the buyers. No price settlement was made on Monday, but it was felt sales would be completed at $8.75 and better.
