Brevities.

—First of May.

—Mr. Swallow, the Durham barber, gave us a friendly call on Tuesday.

—Flesherton Monthly Cattle Fair will be held on Monday next, 5th. May.

—Get your Watch or Clock repaired at Trimble's Jewelry Store, Flesherton.

—Next Sabbath the Quarterly meeting will be held in the Methodist Church, Flesherton.

—Mr. J. Townsend, of the Greg Review, gave us a pleasant call on Tuesday evening last.

—Honor Roll Public School No. 3, Artemesia, received too late for this issue; will appear in our next.

—A first-class new Singer Sewing Machine for sale cheap. Apply at THE ADVANCE Office, Flesherton.

—Mr. Thos. Gamey, Reeve of Osprey Township, gave us a pleasant call last Friday.

—Rev. Mr. McGregor, Baptist minister, will preach on the "Doctrine of Election," in the Town Hall, Flesherton, on Sabbath next, May 4th.

—One of our village youths asked us one day last week who lived in the little building on the lot opposite the Town Hall! The little building referred to is Dr. Christoe's drying kiln!

—Archy Melloy had three of the fingers of one ef his hands badly cut while edging shingles at Damude & Wilkerson's factory, Flesherton, on Wednesday morning.

—Remember Mr. Thos. Duncan's auction sale of Household Furniture on Monday next, 5th May, Cattle Fair Day, in Flesherton. Good chance for those desiring bargains in Furniture.

—Mr. Sunter, proprietor of the Meaford Monitor, proposes to establish an employment bureau in connection with his present business, applicants being charged a fee of 25 cents for registration and advertising. It is a good idea.

—Miss G. A. N. Page has just returned from Owen Sound with all the latest shapes in Hats, and is prepared to make up and do over Straw, Felt, and Leghorn Hats in all the latest styles, at Bulmer's Photograph Gallery, Flesherton.

—"Fawcett sticks his nose in everything," said one of the youths of this village after reading our editorial anent "Rowdyism in Church," last week. The cap must have been a pretty good fit, sonny, or you wouldn't have got it on so easily!

—Mr. M. Richardson's spring circulars have just been issued from this office. The public will always find that Mr. M. Richardson does nothing by halves. His stock of Spring Goods is simply magnificent; and his prices for everything in his busines, are remarkably low.

—The revival meetings in the Methodist Church here, which had been regularly held every night, Saturday excepted, for over two months previously—were brought to a close last Thursday evening. There were quite a large number of conversions.

—HERE is a fair sample of a small boy's diary, as given by an exchanged: "Got up and washed me—had breakfast—slid down hill—had a fight with Willie Smith—we won't speak any more—wore a hole in the toe of my new boot steering my sled—eat supper—pa spanked me about the boot—went to bed—bully good day."

—That splendid roadster stallion. "Young St. James," will make the season of 1884 in the neighborhood of Flesherton. He was sired by the famous Clear Grit, jr., stallion, the winner of the Silver Medal at the Toronto Exhibition of 1883. See route in our next issue; and for full particulars as to pedigree, &c., see posters and cards. W. H. Johnston, proprietor.

A BAD CASE OF STARVATION.—To starve the lungs by a lack of vital food contained in pure air. If the lungs are obstructed by colds, remove the accumulated phlegm with with that safe and pleasant throat and lung remedy, Hagyards Pectoral Balsam.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best medicine that can be employed to correct irregularities of the stomach and bowels. Gentle, yet thorough, in their action, they cure constipation, stimulate the digestive organs and the appetite, and cleanse, build up, and strengthen the system.

Flesherton Station Hotel.

The proprietors of the above Hotel, Messrs. Alex. Hannah & Son, have thoroughly refitted it from top to bottom, so that it now affords the most ample accommodation to the travelling public. Good stabling. Everything, in fact, usually found in connection with a first-class country hotel, will be found in Flesherton Station hotel. See card advt.

The "constantly tired-out" feeling so often experienced is the result of impoverished blood, and consequent enfeebled vitality. Ayer's Sarsaparilla feeds and enriches the blood, increases the appetite, and promotes digestion of the food, and the assimilation of its strengthening qualities. The system being thus invigorated, the feeling rapidly changes to a grateful sense of strength and energy.

Orange Judd,

Editor of the American Agriculturist for some thirty years, but unconnected with its business management for a year or two past, has lately retired from its editorial department and located in the West. He desires to gather a complete "Postal-Card Album" of his old Readers and Friends, and requests them all to send him now a Postal giving their present location and address, naming also, when convenient, the years in which they were his subscribers. Mr. Judd's address is Chicago, Illinois.

A Lawyer's Opinion of Interest to all.

J. A. Tawney, Esq, a leading attorney o Winona, Minn., writes: After using it for more than three years, I take great pleasure in stating that I regard Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, as the best remedy in the world for Coughs and Colds. It has never failed to cure the most severe cold I have had, invariably relieves the pain in the chest."

Trial Bottles of this sure cure for all Throat and Lung Diseases may be had free at W. Richardson's Drug Store. Large size, $1.00.

A HANDY SURGEON.—As a dressing for al manner of flesh wounds there is nothing better than Hagyard's Yellow Oil. It cleanses, allays pain, subdues inflammation and heals without a scar or stiffness of the parts injured. It is equally valuable as a pain remedy for internal use.

The following is from J. W. Ptolemy, of Winnipeg, formerly grain buyer for Wm Gillesby, of Hamilton and Grimsby: "I was for many years much afflicted with Costiveness, Biliousness, and ultimately Dyspepsia. I suffered very much and tried many different medicines, which gave me only temporary relief and then I was as bad as ever again. I was recommended by a friend, who had been restored to health by it, to try McGregor's Speedy Cure. I did so, and it was not long before I felt like a new man, and I have enjoyed excellent health ever since. I first commenced taking it February 7th, 1879. Sold by Richardson's.

Daring Burglary in Markdale

McFarland's Store Entered by Thieves on Sunday Night.

Some time on Sunday night last the store of Mr. W. J. McFarland was entered by burglars, his office vault door burst open, and cash to the amount of some $250.00 stolen.

Mr. McFarland was in the office on Sunday night between the hours eight and nine o'clock, and it is supposed that one or more of the thieves had been secreted near to the back entrance and had quietly slipped in while Mr. McFarland was in the office and secreted themselves till after he left. When the book-keeper, Mr. Biggar, entered the office on Monday morning, he found the vault door open and the cash drawers on the floor. Beside these were found a blacksmiths hammer, a brace and bit, a screw-driver, and file. The door of the vault had a hole bored through it just above the key-hole, about three-quarters of an inch in diameter; and from this the lock had been destroyed by a hammer and punch, and the door thus opened.

The tools had been obtained in a blacksmith shop in the village, but no further clue has yet been obtained to the perpetrators of the bold theft.

Some of the citizens contend that this is another evidence of their advanced civilization, and that now, besides all the other advantages of Markdale, they can boast of having had one of the most clever scientific burglaries ever performed in the County of Grey. But we understand Mr. W. J. McF. does not share in this feeling as yet.

Vandalism in Flesherton.

One night last week the top piece of the handsome Munshaw monument in Flesherton cemetery, was lifted out of its place and thrown on the ground with such evident violence as to damage it considerably. That the wind did not blow it over is certain, from the fact that the part of the stone in question was securely fitted into the base of the monument, and also from the fact that there was no unusual wind storm on the night when the rascally deed was perpetrated. It must have been lifted bodily from its place and thrown to the ground. This is the opinion of our marble man, Mr. E. Vanzant. Who the perpetrator or perpetrators of such ruthless vandalism is or are, it would be difficult to conjecture, as this disgraceful act, like all other such acts, was done under cover of darkness. It is the earnest wish of all good citizens, however, that the guilty party or parties may be speedily apprehended and brought to justice. No species of rowdyism must be permitted to tarnish the fair name of this village and neighborhood.

A Misunderstanding.

"I thought I would take a run up and see if you didn't want to buy a sewing machine," said the agent to farmer Grimes.

"I dont know as I do," replied the farmer, "I've got most of my spring sowing done."

"But won't you need it for sewing in the summer.

"Look here, young feller, we don't sow in the summer. We cuts, an' gathers, an' binds."

"Oh, well, this machine gathers and binds."

"Mebbe you'll be telling me next that your machine will haul in the crap an' put it in the barn. Don't come around here with any of your big stories."

"Don't be ruffled, my dear sir; I think you do not understand me. I mean a machine to sew cloth, not grain."

"Ahem! you do, do you? Then you'd better go talk to the wimmin. It's a good things you didn't mean the other kind, for if you'd kept on telling me about your wonderful machine for plantin' an' reapin', you'd got me rippin' and tearin' 'til I'd basted you."—Texas Siftings.
