Where are We in China?

To the Editor of The Advance:

DEAR SIR,—Conditions in China change slowly, but certain things are known that help to appreciate the extent of the calamity, and also to predict what the end is to be. Not less than one hundred and fifty, probably two hundred Missionaries have suffered martyrdom, the number of native Christians slain is very large. Some estimate 40,000, but let us hope that the number is not so great. At the lowest estimate, it is a terrible slaughter of China's best people.

It is now known that Hsu Ching Cheng, and Yuen Chang, two intelligent officials in the Chinese Foreign Office, refused to transmit the awful edict to 'Massacre all foreigners' and changed it into 'Protest all foreigners.' On account of this refusal, they lost their heads.

It is also known that the Viceroys along the Yang tsze Valley entered into a compact with their Consuls in Shanghai to protect foreign life and property. Several, other Viceroys and Governors and many minor officials have shown great kindness to foreigners, giving money, escort and facilities to escape. In spite of the Empress Dowager's command and the determination of the reactionists to have these commands carried out, one half the mandarins of the Empire refused to obey. This is a proof that the missionaries had not excited the hostility of the mandarins as claimed by the Chinese Government and other unfriendly critics. Indeed in some cases, Chinese are to-day asking the missionaries to return to their fie'd and work. There is no longer any doubt that the Boxers were in the employ of the Chinese Government. In Tientsin correspondence fell into the hands of the Powers, showing conclusively that the Boxers had sent in claims for their services in slaughtering foreigners and native Christians and that these claims were honored by the Government.

The country has become so far quieted that many missionaries have returned to their fields in the provinces near the coast, and have even returned to the inland provinces. The danger in Honan is, not now so much from Boxers as from famine. Three successive harvests have failed, and the fourth is certain to fail. The people have become desperate and the country is infested with bands of robbers seeking loot or in any way to sustain life.

One missionary now in China writes:—'Our native Christians have been sorely tried, but we have very great cause for gratitude in the faitfulness they have been able to maintain. Is it not marvellous in that, believers are being added even in such times as these?. It is true in other places also, that men are being converted through the loyalty and nobleness manifested by the Christians under persecution. I feel that as sure as God is in His Heavens, there is going to be a marvellous ingathering into the church of Christ, when these troubles are overpast. I cannot understand any man who has a true faith in God, giving way to despondency because of the things which have happened. They have been dreadful, enough—far more dreadful than you at home will ever know—but had many more been slain, it would only make me more certain of the ultimate triumph of Christ in this land. The Russians around Tientsin claim that the land upon which the blood of their fellow countrymen has been shed, has been made sacred by them. Christ's peaceful claim upon this land where his saints have died for Him, is far more certain of realization.

The Church of Christ must not and cannot go back on this undertaking.'

There is the right ring about these words. Satan makes desperate struggles against the dissolution of his Kingdom, but Jesus shall reign.

Terrible Suffering from Asthma

Mrs. J. Wethom, of Mount Forest, Ont., says: 'For a number of years I have been a sufferer from Asthma, and during that time I have consulted many doctors on my case, and have used many of the so-called cures for Asthma, but never got relief. At times I have been that I found it necessary to have all the doors and windows open to get my breath. I had given up in despair of ever being cured till I heard of your preparation—Catarrhozone. I have used it and am now perfectly cured—thanks to your wonderful medicine. I recommend it as positively sure cure for Asthma." Catarrhozone is a guaranteed cure for Catarrh, Asthma and Bronchitis. Sold by all druggists. Trial outfit sent for 10c in stamps by N. C. POLSON & CO., Ont., Proprietors.

Kimberley

On Friday evening of last week a number of friends met at the residence of Mrs J. M. Thurston and presented the following address together with a purse containing a nice sum of money.

Kimberley, March 7, 1901.

To Mrs. J. M. Thurston and Miss Myrtle Thurston.

We, a number of your friends and well wishers, present this evening, have called upon you in order to express personally the deep feelings of regret felt by us at your anticipated removal from our immediate circle, and also to show by our presence here, that while we sincerely regret your departure, you will be followed to your new home by our sincere wishes for your future happiness. In sickness, Mrs. Thurston, we have found you ever ready to lend your aid and assistance to the stricken family, and in cases where the last and greatest trial on earth has fallen in our midst, we have found you there with your kind words and attention, and in you we feel that we are losing a kind neighbor, a true and sympathetic friend.

In you, Miss Thurston, we feel that your absence will be sorely felt in the church, the Sabbath School, and prayer meeting, as a devoted Christian, an attentive officer and teacher, ever ready to help along the cause of Christ as well as in the social relations of life.

That your both may for many years to come, be preserved by God's grace, and and blessed with health and strength, sufficient to meet all the duties of life, is our sincere prayer. And while we extend to you our sincere wishes, and assure you that you will be followed by our well wishes for your comfort and prosperity, yet we cannot allow you to leave us without presenting you with some mark of our regard for you, therefore we beg to present to you this purse, not for its intrinsic value, but as a token of our love and esteem for you. The distance which will separate us is not great, and we hope to have many happy reunions in the future. In conclusion may your lives and ours be such that when summoned from this earthly abode, we may ascent to those immortal mansions above whence all goodness emanates, and where meeting and parting shall be no more.

IN MEMORY OF LESLIE SMITH.

Mamma, you are tired I know,
Watching by me night and day;
Soon you'll rest, for I must go,
I must die, I heard them say.
That means going to the skies,
Mamma does that make you weep?
Dimmer grow my weary eyes;
Kiss me as I fall asleep.

Mamma, I remember now,
Brother Percy lay just so,
And you kissed him, lips and brow,
When he said that he must go.
Soon, dear mamma, we shall meet,
Be again as brothers are.
Playing thro' the happy street,
Of that sunny land afar.

You will miss your little boy,
And I'd rather stay with you,
Think dear mamma of the joy,
When we meet where all is day,
You have told me of that land,
Where the skies are ever fair,
I am going, take my hand,
We shall be together there.

Section 80 of the Ontario Insurance Act provides "that every lawful claim against an insurance company shall become legally payable on the expiration of sixty days after the claim papers have been filed, but the Insurance Corporation may at its discretion pay the claim at any time before the expiration of the sixty days." An examination of the annual statement of the Royal Templars for 1900 shows that they act under the latter clause of the section. Of a total of sixty-one claims for life insurance filed with them last year, fifty-nine were paid on the day on which they were filed and the other two within forty-eight hours of filing. Such promptness in settlement of claims cannot fail to be appreciated and must not only be a source of gratification to Royal Templars, but also a strong recommendation of the order to the insuring public.

TREACHERY

A persistent cough is at first a friend, for it gives warning of the approach of a deadly enemy. Heed the warning before it is too late, before your lungs become inflamed, before the doctor says, "Consumption." When the danger signal first appears, help nature with

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Don't delay until your lungs are sore and your cold settled down deep in your chest. Kill the enemy before the deadly blow kills you. Cure your cough today.
One dose brings relief. A few doses make the cure complete.

Three sizes: 25c. for an ordinary cold; 50c. for the harder colds; $1.00 the most economical for older cases.

"I consider your Cherry Pectoral the best remedy for colds and coughs and all throat affections. I have used it for 30 years and it certainly beats them all."
