THE ADVANCE.

A. R. Fawcett, — Editor.

FLESHERTON:
THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1884.

THE LIQUOR MUST GO.

The following from Canada's great and only cartoon paper, Grip, is a comment on the leading cartoon in that fearless and outspoken journal—which, by the way, has never yet given forth any "uncertain sounds" on the Temperance question:—

"Notwithstanding the frantic efforts of the friends of Rum, their cause in this Province is doomed, and the day is not far distant when that unspeakable desperado, the Liquor Traffic, will be lynched by a long-suffering community. It is tolerably certain that a goodly proportion of the counties now being contested will be carried for the Crook's Act, and the workers for that end ought to be inspired by the knowledge that as soon as a majority of the counties declare for Prohibition, the government is bound to grant it. In the meantime the campaign is going on briskly, not a little help against the traffic being furnished by the disinterested members of the Exceedingly Benevolent Trade, who are so injudicious as to attempt an argument in the public press. Nothing is better calculated to convince an intelligent reader of the indefensible character of the whiskey business than the labored apologies of its votaries."

"THE PROHIBITION MOVEMENT."

A letter from a clever correspondent, under the above caption, appears in this issue of THE ADVANCE. As we have ever been actuated by the spirit of "equal rights to all," we give the letter a place in our columns, however much the sentiments contained therein may be opposed to our own views on the Temperance question. The writer seems disposed to think, that Temperance people have no right to interfere with the "privileges" of those who indulge in intoxicants. If all men, or even a respectable portion of this latter class were really moderate drinkers—and never got any worse—the question would present a much different aspect. As it is, there are four drunkards to every man who does not drink to excess. Drunkness is a fruitful source of crime; therefore it is just as necessary that laws be enacted to prevent crime through drunkness as through any other channel.

Mr. W. J. Watson, the late excellent editor of the Meaford Mirror, is now editor of the Barrie Advance. The citizens of Meaford gave Mr. Watson a good and well merited—"send off," in the shape of a well filled purse and a neatly worded address. The principal citizens of the town took an active part in the affair. While we are sorry to lose such a gentleman as Mr. Watson from the ranks of the newspaper men of Grey, we wish him greater success than ever in his new sphere.

The Grey Review last week administered a well deserved drubbing to the Chronicle on the absurd stand taken by the latter paper in regard to the Scott Act.

THE Flesherton ADVANCE entered on its fourth volume last week. The ADVANCE is a sprightly and promising three-year old, and is among the most welcome of our exchanges.—Shelburne Free Press.

Mr. Henry G. Vennor, the weather prophet, died at his residence, Montreal, last week. Whatever opinions may prevail as to his success in the weather business, it is evident he was highly respected as a citizen.

"Truth's" statements concerning the Rev. Thos. Grandy, in our last week's issue, are replied to in a vigorous manner by two of our most esteemed correspondents in another column. Apparently the writer of the "Truth" article should have assumed a name more in keeping with his ungentlemanly remarks.

The Flesherton "Advance" entered upon its fourth volume last week, and seeing that its editor is alway alive to the interests of his constituency there is no probability of the faucet of prosperity being turned off.—Shelburne Economist.

The Flesherton ADVANCE has entered upon its fourth year. It is ably conducted by Mr. A. R. Fawcett and merits the hearty support given it. We only know of one paper that is as well printed, and modesty prevents us from naming it.—Chesley Enterprise.

Corrrespondents making vicious and uncalled for personal attacks on public men, under cover of assumed names, are little above the hyena or jackal in point of moral courage; and it will be found in many cases, that they are suffering from disease of the intellect. We like a manly, honest, above-board opponent—no matter how vigorously he strikes out from the shoulder, so long as he faces us fairly and squarely "like a little man." But there is no word in the English language strong enough to denounce the villainous cut-throat who, under cover of a mask, strikes a treacherous blow on the back. You have no opportunity for discovering your assailant and administering the castigation duly earned by such rascals, but must "grin and bear it" as best you know how.

Rutherford College.

Some body has sent us a Catalogue of the mentioned College, and judging from the reading that Institition is doing a great and good work, in North Corolina, we notice among the names of numerous students, those of Miss. Adaline Matilda Purdy, and Jesse Harlan Purdy, children of our old friend Mr. Wm. Purdy late of Eugenia, Grey Co. Ont. we are pleased to learn that they have opportunity for a Collegiate Education. Miss Anna Ruthella Purdy, it seems, prefers "keeping the house in order" and practicing music, to College studies, success to all who leave Canada, but better success to those who remain.

The meed of merit for promoting personal æsthetics is due to J. C. Ayer & Co., whose incomparable Hair Vigor is a universal beautifier of the hair. Harmless, effective, agreeable, it has taken rank among the indispensable articles of the toilet. To scanty locks it gives luxuriance, and withered hair it clothes with the hue of youth.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used instead three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by W. Richardson.

Cruelly Murdered.

In the Province of Ontario every year thousands are being slowly murdered by taking unsuitable, untried nostrums for such complaints as Costiveness, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Kidney Troubles, etc., who might easily regain lost strength and energy by using McGregor's Speedy Cure. To convince them that such is the case we will give them a free trial bottle at Richardson's Drug Store. Price 50c. and $1. See testimonials from persons in your own town.
