Brevities.

—Pasture to let, well watered and fenced. Apply to Andrew Rutledge.

—Mr. Duncan Stewart, Artemesia, lost a mare, worth $150, this week.

See Mr. Roger Lever's new announcement in our advertising columns.

Mr. Wm. Varty will shortly burn a kiln containing 150,000 bricks.

—Prime long clear Bacon and Roll Bacon just received at Sept. Good's meat market, Flesherton.

—Mr. Wm. Mastin, cradle manufacturer Thornbury, was in Flesherton on business on Monday.

—Mr. James Beecroft brought us a few blades of orchard grass over a week ago which measured four feet in length.

—Do you want to buy a first-class farm? If you do, it will pay you to see Mr. W. J. Bellamy, Flesherton, who has one to dispose of.

—There are one or two persons living near Eugenia whom we intend to interview on certain matters connected with certain "Little accounts" one of these days.

—Mr. W. J. Cooey of Meaford Road lost a valuable cow last week. He has been very unfortunate in losing stock during the past year—his losses all told footing up to about $250.

—On Saturday last a son of Mr. James Ludlow, Artemesia, had his wrist broken by a fall from a horse he was riding belonging to Mr. Talbot. It would seem, that misfortunes seldom come singly. In Mr. Ludlow's case, at any rate, this is a sad truism.

—We are pleased to notice that W. A. Frost, a former pupil of Owen Sound High School has graduated at the recent May Examination at Toronto University with first-class honors in Mental and Moral Science, Civil Polity and logic. Mr. Frost came nearly getting the silver medal, being bracketed second in Logic and third in Civil Polity. This is the highest stand taken by any of the Owen Sound pupils heretofore.—Owen Sound Times.

An Enterprising Jeweller.

Mr. W. A. Brown, of Markdale, is perhaps the most enterprising Jewelry man in Grey. He has a large and varied stock of Watches, clocks, Jewelry, &c., which are exactly what he represents them to be, and sold at astonishingly low prices. See his announcement in our advertising columns next week.

Picnic in Flesher's Grove.

A grand Picnic will be held in Flesher's Grove on Dominion Day (July 1st) under the auspices of Flesherton Division, Sons of Temperance. Refreshments on the grounds. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Large posters will be issued shortly giving full particulars.

Dominion Day Celebration in Flesherton.

Dominion Day will be celebrated in Flesherton this year pretty much the same as on former occasions,—(viz., by horse races, atheletic games, and sports) —with, perhaps one or two exceptions. In the first place it is the intention of the Managing Committee to effectually squelch out all foul play at the horse races,—which, we regret to say, was one of the principal features at last year's races. A repetition of such unsportsmanlike practices would militate very seriously against future celebrations. Hence the determined stand taken by the committe this year will be heartily approved of by the public generally.

We also observe by the bills, that more encourgement is given in the atheletic games and sports than on any former occasion. For the few last years, the horse races have occupied too prominent a place by far in the programme—in fact the athletic games and sports have been more than once got through with in rather a slip-shod manner. The prizes are also much better.

We feel confident, therefore, that everything on the programme will be carried out in the most satisfactory manner.

NATIONAL PILLS—are unsurpassed as a safe mild, yet thorough. purgative, acting upon the biliary organs promptly and effectually.

Contemptible.

Three Stayner hotel-keepers withdrew their patronage from the Sun because they thought the editor was rather inclined to favor the Scott Act, forsooth! They also made some strong hints about starting another paper in the village, and driving poor Jewell out of the business. Bah! the time for muzzling the press of this country has long since gone by as these follows will not be long in finding out.

Church Opening.

The handsome new Presbyterian Church, Flesherton, is to be opened for divine service on Sabbath, the 29th of June instant. The Rev. John Smith, of Toronto will preach in the morning at 10;30 o'clock, and in the evening at 6;30. Rev. D. C. McDowell, pastor of Flesherton Methodist Church, will preach at 2;-30 o'clock p. m. A collection will be taken up at the close of each service.

A tea meeting will be held on the evening of Dominion Day (July 1st) when Rev. Mr. Smith will deliver his popular lecture "Sins of the Pew." A first-class programme of vocal and instrumental music will be furnished for the evening. Tea will be served from 4 o'clock p. m to 7. Lecture at 7;30 p. m. Tickets of admission to both lecture and tea, 25 cents; Children 15 cents.

Those desiring comfortable seats at the various services, as well as at the tea-meeting, will do well to come early, as there will undoubtedly be a large crowd of people present.

The Excursion.

The Methodist Sabbath School Excursion from Flesherton to Toronto last Thursday, was a splendid success, the weather being all that could have been desired, and a large number availing themselves of the cheap trip. Conductor Osborne was is charge and all speak in highest terms of his courteous and gentlemanly deportment. An enjoyable time was spent in the city by those who were acquainted with its various places of interest—such as the Queen's Park, the University, Osgoode Hall, Metropolitan Church, St. James Cathedral, Mail building, "Zoo," &c., &c. But those who visited the city for the first time, and who were unaccompanied by persons well acquainted with the place, wandered listlessly about near the station, deriving very little enjoyment from their outing.

The Prohibition Movement.

To the Editor of the Advance.

Dear Advance.—Well meant efforts are often misdirected in their aim; and many noble enterprises have failed to attain their desired end, because its advocates take ground at variance with the intellectually recognized laws of the great I Am.

I perceive that the County of Grey has been grouped into four sections for this clerical election purpose. If either one, or more, sections, carry for or against the measure, what then? By-and-by I expect this social tyranny will extend to individual townships; then to school sections, and finally to pathmasters' beats. The extreme of liberty is the forerunner of despotism, when wielded by an infatuated populace; or, on the other hand, the unsurpation of a venial clericalism, which, in its dogmatic ignorance of the laws it professes to be the propounder, exhibits a skepticism in the redeeming power of the blood of a crucified Saviour for the redemption of mankind, and the sanctifying influence of the Holy Ghost. They thereby acknowledge their day of usefulness gone, and that all moral and social good is only to be obtained thro' the Parliamentary enactments of puny mankind.

No doubt the campaign will again bring to the surface the irrepressible Affleck, with his coarse witticisms and absurd logic; while the two female shriekers who done duty in this County during the Dunkin Act campaign will have an opportunity of earning for themselves a higher niche in the famous temple of Mary Magdalene.

DEATH OF MR. HENRY BUCHANAN.

On Friday morning last Mr. Henry Buchanan, of No. 6 Elgin street, Hamilton, passed quietly away to the invisible world, at the grand old age of 84 years.

Deceased was born in Ireland in the year 1800. He came to this country in 1824, first settling in Montreal where he resided for the long period of 25 years. During his residence there he lived through the troublous times incident upon the rebellion of 1837. He also was a resident of that city when the great Cholera swept over the land, carrying death and desolation in its wake. He was for over half a century a member of the Methodist Church, and was a man of spotless character. Although retiring in disposition, he made many warm and sincere friends. Through all the trying scenes of his long and eventful life, his faith and trust in God was firm and immovable. His walk and conversation was ever upright and pure in the sight of God and man. He was a strict temperance man all his life; and even when the shadow of death was passing over him, he would not taste any medicine which he supposed might contain alcohol as one of its ingredients. He did not use tobacco in any form. He was a man of splendid intellect, and had he been less retiring and unassuming, might have made his mark in the higher walks of life. Of a contented, cheerful disposition, and being well read in the higher class of religious literature, his conversation was pleasant and instructive to those who yearned for something beyond the mere worldly affairs of this life.

"Man wants but little, and that little long."

Mr. Buchanan leaves a widow (to whom he was married for the long period of 57 years), two sons and three daughters. The eldest son, Mr. C. H. Buchanan is in the staff of the Hamilton Times job-room department, and the second, Mr. J. G. Buchanan is city editor of that journal. One of the daughters is the wife of the Rev. J. C. Bell, Methodist minister, living near Cobourg; another lives at home; the third, Amelia, is the wife of the Editor of this paper.

The funeral took place from the late residence of the deceased, Elgin street, last Sunday at 3:30 o'clock p. m., and was very largely attended, many of the leading citizens being among those who accompanied the funeral procession to Burlington cemetery, where the last sad rites were performed. The chief mourners were Messrs. J. G. and C. H. Buchanan, the two sons of the deceased, with the two sons-in-law, Rev. J. C. Bell and Mr. A. R. Fawcett. The pall-bearers were Ald. Allen, Ald. Carruthers, Mr. H. F. Gardner, editor-in-chief of the Hamilton Times, ex-Ald. Evans, ex-Ald. Matthews, and Wm. Clucas, School Trustee. Rev. Mr. VanWyck, of the Gore street Methodist Church, officiated at the house and grave, assisted by Rev. Mr. Koyle, who is occupying the pulpit of the Centenary Church during the Rev. Mr. Carson's absence in Europe. The body was encased in a handsome casket, and the beautiful floral tributes testified to the high esteem in which both deceased and the members of his family were held by a large circle of acquaintances.

Sudden Death.

A son of Mr. Jonathan Hickling, Artemesia, died very suddenly last Sunday. He ate as hearty a meal as any other member of the famly, and expired a short time afterwards. He was over twenty years of age.

Great Negligence.—There is great neglect with most people to maintain a regular action of the bowels, which causes much disease. Burdock Blood Bitters cure constipation.

STRAYED.

From the premises of the undersigned, Lot 38, 5th Con. Artemesia, a two-year old Steer, bright red color. Any person giving information leading to the recovery of the above will be suitably rewarded.
