

CSM. Rayner (Slightly wounded) Sgt. Crowe (Slightly wounded)

Six Toronto paratroopers with the Allied 5th Army in Italy are listed in the latest army casualty list as "slightly wounded," one other man is reported to be dangerously injured, one is wounded, and another is slightly wounded.

The paratroopers are C.S.M. H. H. Rayner, husband of Mrs. Irma Rayner, 34 Fuller Ave.; Sgt. James M. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Gilbert, 189 Arlington Ave.; Sgt. G. F. Lindsay, husband of Mrs. Mae Lindsay, 118 Holland Park Ave.; Sgt. Jack V. Lueck, son of Mrs. Mary Lueck, 71 Dewson St.; Sgt. F. H. Trant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trant, 252 Sheldrake Blvd., and Sgt. G. C. Crowe, son of Mrs. Eva Crowe, 199 St. Clair Ave. E.

Worked in Shipyards.

Sgt. George Crowe, 26, wounded Dec. 3, joined the army two years ago and was studying engineering in Hamilton and Ottawa when he transferred to the airborne troops. Born and educated in Bobcaygeon, Ont., he worked in the shipyards here before enlisting. He has two brothers and a sister.