Canadian-American Friendship To Mark Royal Winter Fair Opening

Enhancing the cordial Canadian-American association which for sixteen years has characterized the Royal Winter Fair, the Hon. Norman Armour, United States Minister at Ottawa is formally to open the Fair during the evening horse show performance of Tuesday, November 16th. Many of the 15 trophies of the Royal owe their distinctiveness to the friendly rivalry of American and Canadian competitors.

Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Tweedsmuir will make their official vice-regal visit, now a fixed tradition, on Monday evening, November 22nd. On the following day His Excellency will informally spend some hours at the Fair in a general inspection of the live stock and other exhibits in its eighteen sub-divisions.

As "Regal and Imperial Year," the Winter Fair is dedicated in loyal tribute to their Majesties on their coronation. Special trophies and ribbons will carry a memento of the historic event while the decorative scheme for the Royal Coliseum will be in keeping with the idea.

Five army officers' teams, those of Belgium, France, Irish Free State, Holland, and the United States, have been invited through the customary diplomatic channels to compete with Canadian Army Officers.

Boom in Jaffas

Five years ago, the export of Jaffa oranges from Palestine was comparatively small — about 3,700,000 boxes a year. But since then production has gone up by leaps and bounds, and it is estimated that the total export figure by 1940 will be more than 20,000,000 boxes.

FLUSH KIDNEYS STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

WHEN pain over kidneys or bladder irregularities keep you getting up at night; if you feel nervous, despondent, heed the warning. Read what Mrs. T. A. Berney of 595 Wellington St., W., Toronto, Ont., said: "My kidneys would be irregular in action and the too frequent passage of the secretions was very annoying, but Dr. Pierce's A-nuric Tablets gave me great relief. In fact, 'A-nuric' is the only thing I ever used that would relieve these symptoms."

An Honor Well Bestowed

One of the medals struck in commemoration of the Coronation of their Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth has come to Editor Rixton Rafter of the Arthur Enterprise. Commenting on this honor, he writes: "Why we have received this recognition we are at a loss to know, or to whom we are indebted for it, but certain we are that no recipient of this decoration among the loyal subjects of their Majesties appreciates it more or accepts it more gratefully."

But, as the Dundalk Herald says, many people have "a pretty good idea" why this editor was singled out for distinction. Mr. Rafter is blind, but he gets out one of the good weekly papers of the Province, and writes his own editorials: clever, well-written editorials. A reader keeps him posted on public affairs and news generally; then he makes selection of what he wants to use in his paper; and he uses a typewriter. Though sightless, he secured at the University of Toronto his B.A. degree.

This is another instance of the compensating faculties apparently given to those who lose their sight; also a philosophy that enables them to face life and its problems cheerfully. As the Dundalk paper puts it: "Isn't a man who triumphs over his great handicap the way Mr. Rafter does worthy of a Coronation Medal? We'll say he is." So do we.--Globe and Mail.

Alleged WIT

A Busy Day

(As outlined by the secretary over the telephone.)

A.M.

"He hasn't come in yet."

"I expect him in any minute."

"He just sent word in he'd be a little late."

"He's been in, but he went out again."

"He's gone to lunch."

P.M.

"I expect him in any minute."

"He hasn't come back yet. Can I take a message?"

"He's somewhere in the building. His hat is here."

"Yes, he was in, but he went out again."

"I don't know whether he'll be back or not."

"No, he's gone for the day."

All the talk about green pastures being on the other side of the fence will not convince most of us that our own business requires more ability, energy and effort than any other.

Passerby (to very small boy, trying to lead a big St. Bernard up the road) —"Where are you going to take that dog, my boy?"

Boy—"I—I'm going to see where he wants to go first."

Boss—"Can't you find something to do?"

Office Boy—"Gee Whiz, am I expected to do the work and find it, too?"

A six-week old calf was nibbling at the grass in the yard, and was viewed in silence for some minutes by the city girl.

"Tell me," she said, turning impulsively to her hostess, "does it really pay you to keep as small a cow as that?"

Visitor—"I hear there is drought in your village?"

Amos Tash—"Drought! Everything is dried up. My brother sent me a letter, and, would you believe it, the stamp was put on with a safety pin.

Negro Sermon

"Brudders an' Sisters, from de ducks Ah is gwine to teach you a valuable lesson. De ducks sits in de pond, washin' an' washin' demselves, throwin' watah till dey's wet all ober. But you see dem waddle out o' dat pond, shake demselves an' dey's all dry again. So it am wid you. You sits heah to heah de Gospel, an' Ah washes an' washes you, throwin' de watah o' de gospel ober you till you'se almos' drowned in it. But you goes home, shakes yourself a little an' you'se as dry o' de Gospel as eber!"

Doubt whom you will, but never yourself.

Pathfinder makes this wisecrack:

Waitress—"May I take your order, sir?"

Ogdonelle — "Yes, two hard boiled eggs and a kind word."

Waitress (returning in five minutes)—"Here are the eggs."

Ogdonelle—"That's fine. Now what about the kind word?"

Waitress (whispering) — "Don't eat the eggs."

A kind-hearted English vicar one day observed an old woman laboriously pushing a perambulator up a steep hill. He volunteered his assistance and when they reached the top of the hill, said, in answer to her thanks:

"Oh, it's nothing at all. I'm delighted to do it. But as a little reward, may I kiss the baby?"

"Baby? Lor' bless you, sir, it ain't no baby, it's the old man's beer."

It ain't what a man gives, but the way he gives it that shows his true character.

Robot Apparatus Smells Out Gold

Radio waves are being used by an engineer of Bluffton, O., to search for gold. He claims he will be able to locate it even if it is a mile deep.

He has perfected an electrical apparatus and he says that the waves given out by the apparatus are affected by the atomic properties in gold ore, and the effect is registered on an indicator.

To Locate Hidden Hoards

Experiments have been carried out by placing 26 different metals some distance from the machine, and in each case the indicator registered the gold ore only. By means of the apparatus, which took twelve years to perfect, the inventor hopes to locate hidden gold in huge quantities and even the gold in vessels sunk at sea.

In Germany the Nazis are trying to hoard gold by a different method. They want to stop people putting it in their mouths.

More than £1,000,000 worth of gold has been going into German mouths every year because of the lure of gold teeth. Now dentists are trying to persuade their customers to have teeth made with other metals, or porcelain, and so save this gold for other purposes.

Hints Gold "Buttons"

In North Dakota, a mining engineer has patented a new scientific process for recovering gold from gravel and sand deposits in that State. Since January his plant has produced several gold "buttons" from this sand and gravel.

One "button" weighing one ounce and three grams was recovered from 91 cubic yards of gravel. Although this is a "minute" quantity from such a huge bulk of gravel, the engineer says it is a paying proposition. It represents about 42 cents a cubic yard.

How would you like to "chew up" a yard of gravel for 1s. 10d? Still, when gold beckons, men will go to a lot of trouble to answer its call.

A Chicken For 15c

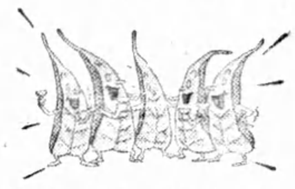
Roast chicken is a dish most of us enjoy—occasionally. The crew of a tramp steamer which recently arrived in Sydney from Japan don't want to see chicken again for a long time. During the voyage of nearly two months they had practically nothing else to eat.

Boiled chicken, roast chicken, grilled chicken or chicken broth faced them at almost every meal, the reason being that when stores for the voyage were taken aboard chicken was the only meat available. Chicken is the poor man's dish in Japan, where a plump bird can be bought for less than 15c.

HAPPY ROLLING TO YOU



It's always happy birthday to you when you roll-your-own with Ogden's. For Ogden's Fine Cut is always mild, cool, fragrant—the friendly tobacco that keeps you "smoke-happy" down to the last puff. Of course you'll use the best papers—"Chantecler" or "Vogue"—to round out the best smoke. 15c buys a bigger package of Ogden's now.

P.S.— Your Pipe Knows Ogden's Cut Plug

Bicycle Is Best Traffic Negotiator

A bicycle won a test for speed in heavy city traffic, in Chicago. The distance, about one mile, was from Dearborn and Quincy Streets to Halstead and Van Buren Streets during a noon rush hour.

The results, in minutes, were:

Bicycle, 11½; taxicab, 11¾; elevated train, 11¾; private auto, 12; horse, 12½; bus, 23; street car, 24. A pedestrian made it in 12¾.

A MISTAKE TO WAIT WHEN "ACID INDIGESTION" STARTS

CARRY YOUR ALKALIZER WITH YOU ALWAYS

The fastest way to "alkalize" is to carry your alkalizer with you. That's what thousands do now that genuine Phillips' comes in tiny, peppermint flavored tablets—in a flat tin for pocket or purse. Then you are always ready.

Use it this way. Take 2 Phillips' tablets—equal in "alkalizing" effect to 2 teaspoonfuls of liquid Phillips' from the bottle. At once you feel "gas," nausea, "over-crowding" from hyper-acidity begin to ease. "Acid headaches," "acid breath," over-acid stomach are corrected at the source. This is the quick way to ease your own distress—avoid offense to others.
