YOU KNOW YOU DO.

For The Advance.]

BY SENECA G. KETCHUM.

When someone's steps comes up the walk,
Your cheeks put on a rosier hue,
And though no other heard his knock.
You hear it well—you know you do!

And if his arm steals round your chair,
You give a smothered scream or two,
As though you didn't want it there.
But, Oh! you do—you know you do!

You let him kiss your blushing cheek,
Somehow your lips met his, I'm too;
You tempt him, pretty thing, to speak,
You wicked flirt—you know you do!

And when he timidly doth press,
His wish to make a wife of you,
With happy heart you answer, yes—
You darling girl—you know you do!

True Liberty.

To the Editor of The Advance.

DEAR EDITOR,—I do not presume to measure swords with your correspondent L. M. L. S. which I interpret as "Long Metre Laging Sadly" neither do I rise to the sublimity of his "deluge" of blessing or delve into the profundity of his "historical retrospect," or his unique theological lecture, so beautifully ended by poetic effusion of the "immortal bard" but would simply remark, that the "broad platform of moral suasion" has been tried for many years, and it has become necessary in order to cope with a gigantic evil to try other means. True, "Fanatics are generally narrow minded," but is it not possible that your correspondent may have fallen into the same error? While he warms eloquent on the "mental imbecility and absence of spiritual vigor" of others, has he these graces and gifts himself? If he is actuated by high and holy motive, the field of usefulness is wide, the laborers few, and the blessings of him that is ready to perish will be upon him. But let him first examine himself, lest his zeal may not be "according to knowledge." Strange, that while professing his belief in the theory of Holy Writ, he should entertain such dishonoring opinions of the servants of his divine Lord and Maker. In all our endeavors to benefit others let us be careful that we are actuated by a spirit of Brotherhood and Christian Charity.

BASE BALL MATCH.

Flesherton Vs. Dundalk and Toronto.

Dundalk Awarded the Victory.

The return match between Flesherton and Dundalk B. B. C's was played on East Grey Agricultural Society's grounds, Flesherton, on Tuesday afternoon last. The game was announced to commence at 2 o'clock, but it was not until after 3 that the bat was taken, as the Dundalk boys were, we understand, awaiting the arrival of the professional auxiliaries from Toronto.

Shortly after three o'clock Flesherton boys went to the bat, Mr. Peterson, of Dundalk, acting as umpire. Result, one run. Dundalk then went to the bat and scored one run, when they were neatly caught out by Messrs. Ruston and Bulmer respectively.

On the second innings, Flesherton made two runs, the sharp fielding of Dundalk (and Toronto) making "speculative runs" rather risky. Dundalk also made two runs in this innings. Hanbury made three bases on a strike in brilliant style. Langley was similarly successful.

In the third innings Flesherton only succeeded in scoring one, while Dundalk came to the front with six runs. At the commencement of this innings the Toronto "auxiliaries" of the latter team took the position of pitcher and back stop respectively with marked success. The pitcher threw a curved ball which together with the keen fielding proved disastrous to the home team for two or three innings.

In the fourth innings Ruskin went to the bat and made a successful run, and was cleverly succeeded by R. A. Hannah. Capt. Bulmer made a neat hit, but was caught "on fly." Result, 2 runs for Flesherton. Dundalk made some keen playing on the third, fourth, and fifth innings, at the end of which they were no less than fifteen runs ahead of their opponents. It was then thought by the majority of the people on the grounds, that our boys were badly beaten. But on the sixth innings the "tide of victory" turned in favor of the home team, "our boys" making seven runs in brilliant style, and "whitewashing" the Dundalk (and Toronto) club, amid great cheering. R. A. Hannah made the whole run of bases on a powerful strike in this innings, Ruskin made three bases on a strike, and Clark sent the ball whizzing across the field.

On the seventh innings Flesherton made three runs in good style, and again succeeded in "whitewashing" their opponents.

The eighth innings was keenly contested, both clubs doing their level best. Flesherton went to the bat and were "whitewashed" in turn. While the Dundalk team were having their inning a dispute arose which brought the game to an abrupt termination. The decision of the umpire, Mr. P., was considered unjust, and therefore the home team declined to play any longer. The game was consequently given to Dundalk, although had it been played out, it is hard to say how it might have ended. However, as Dundalk (and Toronto) team was ahead at the time, they were given the benefit of the doubt.

At the conclusion of the eighth innings the scores stood:—

Dundalk	25 runs.
Flesherton	18 "

James Brayley, Hamilton, says: "I read the testimonials for McGregor's Speedy Cure and found that I had not to go to New York, Philadelphia, Louisiana or Texas to find living witnesses of its value, we have plenty of persons right here to prove its merits I got a bottle and it helped me right away. I was as bad with Billious Fever and Indigestion as I think any one could be, I have taken three bottles and am nearly well and and can eat any kind of food without it hurting me. I may say that I am better than I ever expected to be. Free trial bottles at Richardson's Drug Store.

A Pleasant Surprise.

On Friday afternoon last, just before closing the school, and bidding farewell to his pupils, Mr. M. P. McMaster was made the recipient of a beautiful cruet stand, accompanied by an appropriate address, as a slight token of the high esteem in which he was held by the scholars. Mr. McMaster expressed his thanks in brief and fitting terms. There were several visitors present. Messrs. M. Richardson, R. J. Sproule, and A. R. Fawcett gave short addresses in which they severally expressed regret at losing the services of Mr. McMaster and wishing him success in his new sphere. The scholars were then dismissed and farewell greetings exchanged.

Mr. McMaster left for Thorold on Saturday morning, and expected to commence his duties there on Monday. Both Mac and his estimable wife will be much missed in our social circles.

The following is the

ADDRESS.

Dear Teacher,—We, your grateful pupils, do sincerely regret your departure from our midst. The untiring efforts, zealous care, and patient watchfulness manifested by you in guiding our youthful minds in the ways of knowledge and truth, will bear their impress to the end of time. And now, since the many happy hours spent under your tuition are about to close, permit us to present you with this "memento" as a slight token of our deep sense of gratitude for your unwearying patience in promoting our welfare; and we trust when you gaze upon it your thoughts will happily revert to your Flesherton pupils in whose memory you will ever hold an exalted position. We sincerely hope that your lot may be cast in pleasant places and that your future efforts may be crowned with success. And since we are about to say farewell, on the shores of time, we trust that we, Teacher and pupils, may meet in that better land where parting shall be no more.

Signed on behalf of pupils,

LIZZIE RICHARDSON.
