CLOVER POOREST CROP IN YEARS

As a result of the extreme dryness in the sumemr of 1936 and the lack of sufficient snow cover last winter, the 1937 clover seed crops in Canada are the poorest in many years. In fact total failures are reported over large areas of Ontario and Quebec, which normally produce large quantities of clover seed. This is particularly true of alsike in Ontario and red clover in Quebec. For Canada as a whole, the red clover seed production is not expected to exceed 10 per cent. of normal, while alsike will be even less.

Because of its deep rooted character, alfalfa resisted last year's drought much better, and considerable seed from the first cutting of the 1937 crop has been harvested in Ontario. There has been little seed, however, from second crop alfalfa.

A fair crop of sweet clover seed is also in prospect. Timothy seed production is about normal and with the substantial carryover from last year there will be no shortage of seed of this kind.

Live Stock Report

(By Dunn & Levack, Toronto)

Although supplies of cattle were not quite so heavy, the market opened very slow and very little business was done, until after the noon hour on Monday and at the close of the day over 4000 cattle were left unsold. Stockers and feeders made up the major part of the run and these sold at much lower prices, compared to the early fall season. There were no export shipments to either the United States or Great Britain.

A few lots of choice weighty steers made from $8.00 to $9.00, but the bulk of the sales were made at from $5.50 to $7.00. In the butcher section, a few fancy steers and heifers sold at from $5.75 to $6.25, with those of fair to good quality from $4.50 to $5.50; common to medium $3.50 to $4.00; very common $2.75 to $3.00. Baby beeves sold at much lower prices, only a few fancy selling above $9.00, with the bulk of the sales at from $5.00 to $7.00. Stockers and feeders of selected quality made from $4.25 to $4.75 for the light kind and those of heavier weights from $5.00 to $5.75, with a few short keep feeders at $6.00. Fat cows declined fully a quarter, selling from $3.75 to $4.00, with a few fancy heifery cows at $4.50; fair to good cows sold at from $2.75 to $3.25; canners and cutters $2.00 to $2.65. Choice milch cows and springers made from $40.00 to $50.00 each. The bull trade was slow, choice from $3.75 to $4.00; bolognas from $3.00 to $3.50.

The lamb market opened slow and choice lambs sold at from $7.50 to $7.75, with the bucks discounted $1.00 per cwt. Choice light sheep brought from $4.00 to $4.50, others at lower prices accordingly. The calf trade held active and strong, choice veal from $9.50 to $10.00, fair to good $8.00 to $9.00; common to medium $5.50 to $7.00; grass calves $4.25.

The hog market continued very slow on account of much lower bids from local buyers and reports to the effect that outside packers were buying hogs at much lower prices, had a depressing effect on the local trade. However, salesmen were successful in selling Monday's delivery at from $8.15 to $8.25 off trucks, but the prospects look lower for the balance of the week.

EXTRAVAGANT WIVES HELPING TO FILL JAILS

Ten tips on "How to Keep Out of Jail" were given at a conference of prison workers by Cyril Clancy, an official of the Discharged Prisoners' Aid Society.

In order of importance, he says:

1. Don't marry an extravagant wife.
2. If you have done so, tighten things up before something serious happens.
3. Don't marry on the love impulse only.
4. Choose a wife of prudence and virtue rather than one who looks charming in a bathing costume.
5. Don't pretend to be more than you are.
6. Don't run a car unless you are financially secure.
7. Remember, race courses are not maintained for your financial betterment.
8. Beer and wine cheer the heart of men—it is their misuse that brings so many within prison gates.
9. If you are out of a job a prison conviction won't help you to find one.
10. Life won't last forever—go straight while there is time.
