WANTED.—Fifty Cords of White Ash timber for Butter Tubs. Length, 18 inches.—JOSEPH McCORMACK, Flesherton.

—The Dundalk Herald has entered its second year under Mr. Hall's management.

—Mr. Geo. Walkey, of Allan Park, gave us a pleasant call on Monday morning last.

—The solo sang by Miss Bella Christoe, in the Methodist Church last Sabbath evening, was very beautifully rendered.

—Over five hundred extra copies of THE ADVANCE are issued this week and sent to non-subscribers in various parts of Grey.

—Mr. Seneca G. Ketchum is now presiding over the destinies of the Arthur Enterprise, which has been greatly improved under his management.

—A magnificent display of Velveteens, Mantles, Black and Colored Silks, and West of England Coatings at the Great Importing House of W. J. McFarland, Markdale.

—We have to thank our member for the Commons, Dr. Landerkin, for a copy of the "Report of the Select Standing Committee on Immigration and Colonization."

—Dr. Christoe is making some good improvements on the ADVANCE office. The front is being built up with brick on a line with the handsome three-story brick structure erected by the Doctor this summer.

New FALL Hats. Everybody can be suited in Size, Style, and Price out of RICHARDSON'S immense stock.

—Mr. W. J. Shepperdson, the extensive Sheep breeder, intends to bring two loads of Cotswold, Leicester, and Shropshire Down sheep, to East Grey Fall Exhibition to be held in Flesherton next Tuesday and Wednesday, the 23rd and 24th Sept. He will offer them all for sale.

Ball's New Elastic Corsets can be had at RICHARDSON'S.

—A newly wedded pair hailing from Euphrasia, and attended by the bridesmaid and groomsman, paraded the streets of Flesherton on Thursday afternoon last. The ladies wore white veils and lavished 7x9 smiles on their gushing partners in a manner that provoked the envy of some of our good looking young men.

For every description of underclothing for Ladies and Gents go to RICHARDSON'S.

Lost.

An Adze with the name "Jacob Sloan" on the iron was lost between Flesherton and Widow Thompson's two weeks ago. Finder will please leave the same at THE ADVANCE office.

Financial.

Parties desirous of borrowing money will do well to consult W. J. Bellamy before borrowing elsewhere. He lends only on the Straight Loan principle with interest at 7 per cent. You can pay a portion of the principal yearly thus reducing the interest on the amount paid or you are not obliged to pay any of the principal until the end of the term. Do not forget that the North of Scotland Mortgage Co. has any amount of funds to lend in this way on 1st mortgages.

For New Styles Dress Goods see RICHARDSON'S immense stock.

New Lamps.

People passing by Mr. R. J. Sproule's store, Flesherton, after dark recently have been wondering why it is that it is so much more brilliantly lighted up than heretofore. We dropped in to Mr. Sproule's store on Monday evening, and found that that enterprising gentleman had, at considerable cost, put in a number of newly patented lamps, the light from one of which is equal to that of four or five ordinary lamps. The wick is circular in form, and, when lighted, is so regulated by a current of air conducted from the bottom of the lamp through a tube which passes through the centre of the globe into the mouth of the glass, that it may be turned up high enough to allow the flame to come out at the top without breaking the glass or injuring it in any way. Well on to a hundred thousand of these lamps have already been sold. Mr. Sproule is sole agent for this locality.

Piles of New Goods of every description open at Richardson's New Store.

OPEN LODGE.

A very pleasant evening was spent by those who were present at the Sons of Temperance free entertainment in the Town Hall, Flesherton, on Wednesday of last week. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, and addresses, by members of the Division.

The chair was taken shortly after eight o'clock by Mr. J. W. Armstong, the Worthy Patriarch, on motion by Dr. Christoe. The entertainment was opened by prayer by Rev. Mr. McGregor, after which the following programme was gone through with:—Miss Hopkins, Edwd. Richardson, and A. R. Fawcett, read; Miss Davis and Wm. Thompson recited; Miss Bella Christoe, Miss Milly Vandusen, Miss Leitch, Miss Ada Sproule and Miss Annie Richardson, sang; and Rev. Mr. McGregor, Dr. Christoe, and Rev. D. C. McDowell gave short addresses. The reading, reciting and singing only occupied one hour, and the addresses thirty-five minutes. The meeting was opened by the singing of the "opening ode," Miss Jenny McDowell presiding at the organ. Shortly before ten o'clock the "closing ode" was sung and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. McGregor.

The Division purpose holding regular monthly "open lodges" during the fall and winter months.

Nip and Tuck.

Jim Blue, of Collingwood, was a passenger on the Pacific on her up trip, Tuesday. When the boat arrived at Meaford Mr. Blue took a run up town to see some friends, and forgot about the boat until the whistle warned him she was ready to leave. Jim started on a run for the wharf, but being a very stout man, the extra exertion soon told on him, and when he passed a Mirror reporter at the wharf storehouse he was puffing like a grampus. At this time the boat had cut loose and was backing out from the warfh, and it looked rather "blue" for Jim, but he put on an extra spurt and managed to get on board just before the boat cleared the corner of the wharf. Judging by the time made in his race on Tuesday, Mr. Blue would be a safe man to bet on in a fat man's race.—Meaford Mirror.

DR. LOW'S PLEASANT WORM SYRUP—An agreeable, safe and effectual remedy to remove all kinds of worms.

Almost a Fire.

Monday evening at about eleven o'clock as constables Spence and LeRoy were on their beat, they discovered smoke issuing from Kennedy's Furniture Factory. They made their way through a window when they found rags ablaze in the oil room, which they immediately extinguished. Constables Spence and LeRoy deserve credit for their watchfulness, as in a very few minutes the whole building would have been on fire resulting in a very heavy loss to Messrs. Kennedy Bros.—Owen Sound Advertiser.
