—Rev. R. H. Leitch, and wife left for home on Friday last.

—W. Clayton has received a large stock of Boots and Shoes for fall and winter wear.

—Mrs. Baskerville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Trimble, of this place.

—Don't forget to pay the printer.

"The man who cheats the printer
Out of a single cent,
Will never reach the heavenly land
Where good Elijah went.

Mr. Wm. Wingate, well and favorably known here, goes to Owen Sound this week to take a situation in one of the leading tailoring establishments there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Buskin's statement relative to the cheese Factory difficulty received too late for insertion in this issue of THE ADVANCE; will appear in our next.

—The Toronto World, last week, contained a statement to the effect that the wholesale liquor men had given up fighting against the Scott Act. This has since been denied.

Clayton's Boot & Shoe store, Flesherton, is the place to get yourself and family shod for the winter. Prices as low as is consistent with good wark and material. Boots and Shoes, ready made or made to order. Repairing as usual.

—By this time next week we will be reclining on the hair-cloth sofa in our palatial new sanctum, listening to the rapturous melody evoked from our (imaginary) fifteen hundred dollar piano, while the soft zephyrs fan our heated but benign countenance, and our devil screeches himself hoarse for "copy!"

—"Six thousand starving Indians at the Popular River Agency, Montana, threaten to take the war path," is one of the latest sensational news items.

Well, if the war path is good enough for them let them take and enjoy it; though it strikes me if they were to take the cow path they would come on something more satisfying.—Grip.

Personal.

Our old schoolfellow, Mr. J. W. Proctor, of Peshtigo, Wisconsin, agreeably surprised us by dropping into our office on Saturday last. He speaks in glowing terms of the far west, but says that for scenery and fertile soil no place he has visited can compare with our Beaver valley district. Mr. Proctor is a shrewd observer and knows whereof he speaks.

Correspondence.

Having been obliged by rush of "agricultural" matter to leave over our Toronto corespondent's very interesting letter, also some items from the clever pen of our north Carolina correspondent, they are now too stale for our readers. In future, however, we will issue supplements rather than leave such interesting matter over and run the risk of allowing them to become too stale for our columns.

On the War-Path.

Our hunters are already on the war-path after deers and other nimble footed animals. On Wednesday morning of last week—about four o'clock—our well known sportsman, Mr. W. H. Campaign left Little Mills on a hunting expedition. In the evening he returned, having succeeded in shooting a fine fat deer, a raccoon, a rabbit, a duck, and a number of squirrels in the interval.

Those requiring extra good Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, Shuttles, Needles, Oil, &c., are invited to apply for them to C. TREADGOLD, Flesherton.

Flesherton Cattle Fair.

The cattle fair held in Flesherton last Monday was probably the largest and best ever held in this village. The large number and superior quality of bovines usually brought to our fair, has had a tendency to attract the notice of and bring buyers from all quarters. It is now unquestionably the best Cattle Fair in Grey. A large number of cattle changed hands on Monday at fair prices. There was a very large attendance of buyers, sellers and visitors.

A Question Answered.

In answer to the question of our correspondent, "Subscriber," in last week's ADVANCE our respected citizen, Mr. John Dinwoody, informs us that Mrs. Grey, now residing in the state of Iowa, U. S., was the first bride, she having been united in marriage to Mr. John Grey about the year 1850, some thirty-four years ago Mrs. Grey is a sister of Mr. Dinwoody's "better half." Mr. Dinwoody informs us that at that time there was not a minister in Artemesia, and the services of a Toronto clergyman had to be called into requisition to tie the marriage knot. Mr. Dinwoody has been a resident of Artemesia for the long period of thirty-five years, and was, therefore, one of the first settlers in the Township. He has passed through all the trials and difficulties incident to pioneer life, and is to-day one of the most highly esteemed and honored residents of Flesherton, having retired from agricultural pursuits over a year ago.
