

SETTLING A SCORE

LIEUT. TIM MILLS, 21, RCNVR, of Toronto, has a personal score to settle with German E-boats in the English Channel. His brother, Mike, was killed in a running battle with eleven of them in the fall of 1941 while commanding a British motor gunboat. Tim is gunnery officer aboard the new frigate H.M.C.S. Wentworth and likes it, but his ambition still is to take his brother's place in the M.G.B. flotillas. The young officer was a student at the U. of T. before joining the Navy two years ago.
