

SHARP CHATTER of the Lewis guns, known as the "acks-acks", is another sound that fills the Petawawa air these days. Some of them are fired from anti-aircraft mounts. In practice, free balloons are used by Lewis gun crews as targets. There was a blinding snowstorm when this gun was mounted