Restored to Life.

We notice with pleasure, that the Orangeville Gazette—which has not been issued for the past eleven weeks bade its readers a cheery "good morning," and this time it has evidently come to stay. From the number of short, racy paragraphs contained in it, we feel convinced that our clever young friend, Mr. Seneca G. Ketchum has "a finger in the pie." Wade right in and win, old boy! You can do it every time.

Heavy Damages.

Mr. A. C. McRae, of Gore Bay, we notice, has secured a verdict against Turner of Hamilton for $9,000 damages. The case was for malicious arrest, and appears to have arisen from the following circumstances. Turner is a wholesale grocer in Hamilton, and sold goods to McRae, a storekeeper at Gore Bay, who furnished him with a statement of his affairs. Shortly after this McRae failed in business, and Turner had him arrested for obtaining, as he alleged, goods under false pretences.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

Changed Hands.

The Grey Review has changed hands, and in future the editorial chair will be filled by Mr. B. F. Townsend, brother of the late proprietor. In an acquaintance extending over a period of nearly four years, we have always found Mr. Jos. Townsend a thoroughly honorable and upright man, and he carries with him our best wishes for his future success. We believe that the Review will lose none of its characteristic enterprise and straightforwardness of purpose under the new management.

"Jimmy Puzzler" to the Fore,

Campaign's famous trotter, Jimmy Puzzler, won the three minute trotting race at Meaford fall races on Monday of last week, in three straight heats. Five horses competed, but the race was almost a "walk over" for little Puzzler.

We understand that Puzzler also came off with flying colors at the Walkerton races last week. This is what Jenkins calls a "common horse;" but we bet a cent that he would change his mind if he rode behind him for about five minutes.

Sermon and Lecture.

Rev. Alfred Andrews, the Sunday School Agent of the Guelph Conference of the Methodist Church, will (D. He will also give a description of the Tabernacle of Moses, illustrating the same by charts and diagrams. Full opportunity will be given for questions to be put on any topic relating to Sunday Schools. A free-will offering will be taken up to sustain the Sunday School agency fund. Mr. Andrews will be prepared to supply copies of his admirable "chart of Bible Chronology" and "Case's Bibles." All are cordially invited to attend.

Markdale Items.

(From our own Correspondent.)

In perusing your valuable paper of the 9th inst., I noticed a communication under the heading "Markdale," and above the signature "Plunky." Now, Mr. Editor, I feel justified in resting my suspicion on a certain individual who has been among us but a very short period, and one I think who has not as yet formed your acquaintance. Perhaps it would be as well, before going further, to censure Mr. "Plunky" for a breach of etiquette. Why did he not make your acquaintance before boring the columns of your paper with such nonsensical trash—an article that simply contains in it nothing? Would this gentleman, in taking his friends part, be so base as to deny his frequenting the bar-room and one of the private drinking rooms of a certain hotel in town, if so, "Old Prowler" will only be too willing to withdraw and devote his pen to some one more deserving. "Old Prowler" is not asleep when moving around in his usual wondering attitude, but speaks authoritively and not without full knowledge of what he is saying. He is a mysterious being of the male sex, and one who is not easily discouraged by an article, such as appeared in last issue of the ADVANCE, and would therefore advise Mr. "Plunky" to aim his vile insinuations at his own target.

Mr. R. H. Baird's Comedy Co., played in Rae's Hall last Saturday evening, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W., and was largely attended. Judging from the frequent outbursts of laughter, the audience, on the whole, were highly pleased with the entertainment. We bespeak for Mr. Reid and his troup, success in the tour they are now taking through our neighboring towns and villages.

The Revere Hotel was re-opened last week; and is now under the proprietorship of Mr. John Colwell, late of Galt. He has had several years experience in hotel-keeping, and we have no doubt will manage his business successfully.

Our sidewalks, in some places, are in a dilapidated condition. What are our police trustees doing that they are not making a move to have them repaired?

OLD PROWLER.

Geo. Buskin and Wife's Further Statement.

To the Editor of the Advance.

Sir,—On the evening of July 31st one of the Directors, and another man—a patron of the cheese Factory took charge of our cow's milk until they were satisfied. At a Directors meeting a written report was presented and explanation given. We learned that the Directors did not accept it or deal with it in any way. After a few days I heard that the milk in the testing glass had varied greatly. I went to Mr. Garrett and told him that if the milk came to the factory one day good, another day middling, and another day bad, it was likely to continue that way; we could not make any improvement unless nature changed it. Would he take it and give us no further trouble? If not, we should be obliged to keep the milk at home. He gave me no decided answer.

Lately I received a copy of that report; according to the factory testing glass the factory testing glass the milk changed from 3 till nearly 7 per cent. in five successive days. Now, these men were satisfied without a doubt in their own minds, that we were not to blame. Stilll there are those who have persistingly went on to "hang" us for something over which we had no control! Come, boys, you do not know the day that trouble may come unexpectedly at your own doors.

We have already received a copy of a motion passed at a meeting of the Directors on the 23rd of July last, which reads as follows:—

"Moved by W. Hill, seconded by W. Buchanan, that Geo. Buskin be paid only 50 per cent. for what milk he has sent up to the 15 July, and that he be served with a copy of this motion.—Carried unanimously."

They do not tell us why they retain the 50 per cent. but go back to the first day the factory was opened, May 23rd.

It was June 23rd, to our surprise, when we heard our milk was below the average. In this we think they have made a mistake by taking the law into their own hands, knowing that several patrons along this route have had there milk returned on several occasions this summer. We are at a loss to know how it was they never once returned our milk, but have made it into cheese, sold the cheese, and kept the money! for twelve dollars is all the money we received for milk this summer.

Seeing the trouble was likely to continue, and not desiring to have so much unpleasantness, we concluded to keep the milk at home.

GEO. & HAN. BUSKIN.
