Bobcaygeon and Verulam Casualties

JOHN G. KELSO LEONARD WICHOLLS S. H. THURSTON¹ Killed Wounded Killed

Pte. John G. Kelso, of Bobcaygeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelso, was killed in action in France on August 25. He enlisted in 1940 and after going overseas two years later, transferred to the Royal Regiment. In addition to his parents, five brothers survive. Bmdr. Leonard F. Nicholls, also of Bobcaygeon, is reported wounded in France. He was well known as a fishing guide before the war. Rflm. S. H. Thurston, son of Mrs. Thurston and the late Charles Thurston, of the Verulam distr ar Lindsay, has been killed in action in France. He was serving Regime Rifles.