Our Table.

The American Agriculturist for December treats of such a variety or subjects that we cannot attempt to enumerate them. Suffice it to say the number before us contains a quantity, quality and variety of matter not found in any other agricultural paper in the world. We thought last month's American Agriculturist was as near perfection as it was possible for such a journal to attain, but to our astonishment, the December number eclipses all the preceding numbers we have had the pleasure to review. Subscriptions received at this office, where sample copy can be seen.

The Rural Canadian for November is an excellent number. "Improvement" seems to be the motto of the publisher, Mr. C. Blackett Robinson, of Toronto. The matter bears evidence of careful preparation, and a knowledge of the requirements of the Canadian farmer. We are glad to know that Canadian enterprise is not lacking in this direction, and feel assured that greater improvements are in store for readers of the Rural Canadian, than even that which has already characterized it a go-ahead farmer's paper. Subscriptions received at this office, where sample copy may be seen.

Our sprightly comic cartoon paper, Grip, presented its readers last week with a well executed cartoon of the leader of the Opposition in Ontario, Mr. W. Meredith. The most striking cartoon in this number is that on the eighth page, representing Mrs. Ontario, with a sore spot on her arm (Tax Exemptions), in conference with her medical adviser, Hon. O. Mowat. Mrs. Ontario is represented as saying: "Doctor, I want this cured at Once! No more taking it into your serious consideration!" Grip possesses the happy faculty of "hitting the nail on the head" in illustrating great public questions, and contains a large amount of amusing and instructive reading matter. $2 per annum. Subscriptions received at this office. Grip Printing & Publishing Co., publishers, Toronto.

The Inland Printer for November is a model of neatness typographically. The matter is of interest to printers and publishers and affiliated trades. $1.50 per annum. The Inland Printer Co., publishers, Chicago.

The Arcade Guide and Record is a neat little pamphlet just issued by C. Blackett Robinson, Toronto, and contains a large amount of information relative to the magnificent new Toronto Arcade buildings.

The Scientific American still maintains its well-earned supremacy as the leading scientific journal in the world. $3.20 per annum. Munn & Co., publishers, New York.

—"Why! What's the matter?"

Lady—(With face enveloped in roll of hot cloths)—"Oh! I'm crazy with that Neuralgia that continually troubles me."

—"Well, how foolish! Why don't you go to Richardson's Drug Store and get a bottle of Fluid Lightning? It cured me in less than one minute. I always keep a bottle in the house. It only costs 25 cents."

Clubbing Offers.

We have not yet made complete arrangements in regard to clubbing THE ADVANCE with other papers at reduced prices, as it is rather early in the season. At present we are prepared to make the following offers:—

Any five persons sending us in their names and $2.25 in cash for each—in all $11.15—will each be furnished with THE ADVANCE and Grip for one year.

THE ADVANCE and Family Welcome from now until Jan. 1st, 1886, for $1.50. The Family Welcome is the best literary paper in Canada.

THE ADVANCE and the Toronto Daily World far one year for $3.00. The World is a first-class paper, and this is our best clubbing offer—so far—for 1885.

Toronto Weekly News and THE ADVANCE 1 year for $1.40. The News is one of the spiciest weekly papers in Canada, and contains a large amount of interesting matter.

The American Agriculturist, the prince of Farm Journals, and THE ADVANCE one year for $2. Regular price of the Agriculturist, $1.50 per year. This is an excellent offer.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. H. Buchanan, of Hamilton.

Less than six months ago it was our sorrowful duty to chronicle the death of Mr. Henry Buchanan, father of the wife of the Editor of THE ADVANCE. This week the equally sorrowful duty has to be performed of announcing the death of Mrs. Buchanan, relict of the first mentioned. The deceased passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on Wednesday evening of last week about half-past eight o'clock. About 7 o'clock in the evening she remarked to her daughter, who was alone in the house with her, that her feet were getting cold, and she then lay down on the sofa. She rapidly grew worse, and in half an hour after the first attack, signified to her daughter that she desired to go to bed. She was fully conscious that the end was near, and while being assisted to her bed-room, mentioned the names of each member of her family and requested her daughter to tell them all "to meet her in Heaven." The sting of death had no terrors for her, as she had long enjoyed the felicity of those whose trust is firmly fixed in God. Almost immediately after getting into bed, the spark of life died out only to shine with greater glory in that beautiful city whose builder is God. So sudden was her death that her two sons—Messrs. C. H. and J. G. Buchanan, of the Times—were not permitted the melancholy satisfaction of seeing her breathe her last.

Deceased was born in Ireland and was married to the late Mr. Buchanan in Montreal in the year 1825. Both lived to a good old age, and led upright, Christian lives. The deceased was particularly kind in disposition, having winning, motherly ways, and was remarkably bright and intelligent. From remarks let fall by her during the last few months of her life, to which no particular significance was attached at the times they were uttered, she evidently tried to convey, as gently as possible, to her son and daughter who lived with her—and who have ever been most assiduous in their attentions; anticipating her every wish, as they did that of the late Mr. Buchanan—that she would soon follow her departed husband. Over 57 years of happy married life had made a strong bond between the aged couple; and it was scarcely severed on this side of eternity when it was re-united on the other.

The funeral took place from the late residence of the deceased, Elgin street, on Saturday, at 3:30 o'clock p. m., and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Carson, of the Centenary Methodist church, gave an impressive address at the house, in which he spoke of the many Christian virtues of the departed, and of the many pleasant conversations he had had with them. The gentlemen who acted as pall-bearers, performed a similar office at the funeral of the late Henry Buchanan.

"Nothing is here for tears, nothing to wail
Or knock the breast, no weakness, no contempt,
Dispraise or blame, nothing but well and fair,
And what may quiet us in a death so noble."

A PERFECT BEAUTY.—Perfect beauty is only attained by pure blood and good health. These acquirements give the possessor a pleasant expression, a fair clear skin and the rosy bloom of health. Burdock Blood Bitters purify the blood and tone the entire system to a healthy action.

A Contradiction.

To the Editor of The Advance.

DEAR SIR,—Will you be kind enough to inform "ONE WHO KNOWS" that he tells point blank lies. First he says that Grierson lives in Collingwood township, then he says Mr. Richardson and I had a dispute. Mr. Richardson was not a judge at Flesherton. I had no dispute with any of the judges except young Cruickshanks. "One Who Knows" is an unmitigated and notorious liar and knows as much about the affair as a skunk or bob-tailed Jackass.

Yours truly,
DAVID MADILL.

Feversham News.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The storm on Sunday evening made it very disagreeable for the people going home from the Army meeting. There was a heavy fall of snow on Monday.

One of our boys was trying to make a little fun for the rest of the lads in the barracks on Sunday evening. Captain Ned gave him a few words of good advice and told him if he wished to see his name flourish in all the local papers in the County, he might continue to interrupt the meetings. Beware, Jack! you know Ned is as good as his word.

Our quiet village was thrown into a deep gloom on Thursday last, by the sudden and unexpected death of the wife of Michael Curts, Esq., merchant of this place. About two weeks ago she was taken ill with inflammation of the lungs, and at 9 o'clock on Thursday night she passed away to the eternal reward. Deceased was known to nearly every resident of Osprey Township, and to very many firm friends in other parts of the country. She was a lady of excellent Christian habits, being a member of the Presbyterian Church. Possessed of estimable social and domestic qualities, she was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. Her decease is learned with deepest sorrow and universal sympathy is expressed for the husband and sorrowing family and relatives. She was buried on Saturday at 3 o'clock, after which a touching and impressive sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Chisholm. The funeral was attended by the largest concourse of friends ever witnessed in this village.

Mr. J. McAlear and wife, of Markdale, and formerly of this place, was in town on Saturday attending the funeral.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
