

FORMERLY OF BOBCAYGEAN.

GNR. W. E. ST. THOMAS of Lindsay inspects a mass of German "potato masher" grenades left in a pit of one of the enemy's abandoned anti-aircraft guns at Le Clochettes in the Pas de Calais area. This and other guns were used to protect robot bomb sites in the area. The Germans left quantities of ammunition