

TORONTO'S FIGHTING FLIERS LOOM LARGE IN PICTURE

ONE OF THESE OFFICERS HELPED FRUSTRATE JAP RAID ON CEYLON

There are four officers of the R.C.A.F. squadron, flying long-range Catalina flying boats, which recently reached the Far East and is said to have observed the Japanese fleet in time to frustrate a raid on Ceylon. Squadron Leader I. J. Birchall of St. Catharines (SECOND LEFT), was first to report the Jap raiders. After he sent the message his aircraft disappeared. From LEFT: Squadron Leader J. O. Scott of Toronto and Galt; Squadron Leader Birchall; Pilot Officer A. M. Bell of Saint John, N.B.; Flying Officer W. R. Meadows, Montreal.
