Many Attend Funeral Of Mrs. J. T. Best

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. T. Best, who passed away on Nov. 27th, was held on Wednesday of last week. A short service was held at her late residence at Saugeen Junction, followed by the regular service in St. John's United Church at 2.00 p.m. Rev. Geo. R. Service, her pastor, conducted the service and delivered a most comforting message to the family. A duet by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns "Does Jesus Care," was sweetly rendered. It was a favorite hymn of the deceased, who had enjoyed hearing them sing the duet while attending church in the past. The church was filled to capacity by sympathizing friends, who held Mrs. Best in the highest esteem. Interment was made in the family plot in Flesherton Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Stewart, Ross Stevens, J. T. Parker, Cephas Hindle, Jos. Watson and T. A. Watson.

Relatives and friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: J. H. Gardner of Toronto, Robt. Gardner, Mrs. F. Gott, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Loucks and Torrance Gardner, all of Meaford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah McConkey and family of Barrie, Ross Gardner of Craigvale, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Charters of Heathcote, Thos. Archdeakin, Stanley Archdeakin, Jim Archdeakin and daughter of Brampton, Mrs. Robt. Parkinson of Snelgrove, Fred Dunn, Mrs. Mott, Chas. McCurdy and Geo. McLean, Toronto.

The flowers were many and beautiful and were: pillow, husband and family; sprays from, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gardner, Robt. Gardner, Mrs. F. Gott, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Loucks, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Gershom Gardner, Ross Gardner and Mrs. Geo. Miss Macphail Does Not Favor The Party System

The two-party system of government is a "most wasteful" method according to Agnes Macphail, M.P.

"I believe the time will come when the Cabinet will be a body elected by the members of the House," she told the Toronto branch of the Civic Liberties League recently. "They will share equally in blame or praise and the situation will not be as it is now, namely, when the government does something really fine, the opposition is in despair."

She added: "When you think that the leader of the Opposition is paid a salary to oppose, it does seem ridiculous."—Walkerton Times.

Seeing is believing but all men don't use the same spectacles.

Praises Farm Clubs

"One of the greatest agricultural activities in Canada is the Boys' and Girls' Farm Club Work, which moves steadily on with a record of unbroken achievement," stated Dr. G. S. H. Barton, Deputy Minister, Dominion Department of Agriculture, speaking at the dinner on the opening night at the Royal Winter Fair. "The Boys' and Girls' Farm Clubs represent an active membership of more than 37,000 throughout the Dominion," continued Mr. Barton. "The membership has increased every year since the movement began about 25 years ago, chiefly because of the interest in the value of the work it means to the boys and girls in every project they undertake. The definite results are to be seen in every agricultural fair in which they take part. A new interest and a new life has been given to fairs by these clubs. But there have been significant developments in other directions as a result of the work of the organization. For example, potato production in one area has been revolutionized; in another thousands of bushels of grain have been produced and in others the production of live stock has been raised to a higher plain.

BRANT NOMINATIONS LACKED CHEESE

When Brant Township's long drawn-out nomination had finally concluded at Elmwood on Friday, November 25th, darkness had set in and with it a great thirst which fell upon many of the multitude who had gathered there to hear the flow of oratory but who had acquired very parched throats while listening in on the proceedings. Consequently when the chairman had dismissed the meeting there was one of the greatest rushes across the road to the Queen's Hotel that the Brant-Bentinck burg had witnessed in many a day. In fact so great was the throng that sought to slake their thirst that it looked as though the meeting had merely adjourned from one building to another. As time wore on and with the supper hour now passed, several appetites of large-sized proportions were developed, and noticing one candidate for municipal honors loiterng over a friendly stein, some of the North Brant boys, most of them of the Roman Catholic faith, prevailed upon him to get some biscuits and cheese to ease the pangs of hunger which had set in. The nominee readily agreed and sent out an order for a real cargo of fodder, but somewhere someone got the signals crossed and instead of returning with a Friday diet of cheese, the man returned with an armful of bologna which the other beverage room customers quickly seized and made away with in front of the longing eyes of the North Brant lads who almost wept as they watched their idea so quickly devoured by the others.—Chesley Enterprise.

It s estimated that it will cost the Dominion Government $100,000 to free Grey County of tubercular infested cattle in the restricted area campaign which will commence nert April.

Placing Boys on Farms

There are a number of young men in Ontario eager to learn farming with a good farmer. There are a number of good farmers in this province who would welcome a good intelligent and enthusiastic youth to their broad acres. The Ontario Department of Labor knows this to be true and has appointed A. MacLaren as Director of Farm Placement. Boys who would really like to go farming and farmers who would like to employ young men with a yen for farming should write Mr. MacLaren, Department of Labor, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

The boys are placed for one trial month and are paid by the farmer. If mutually satisfied, the boy signs up for one year with wages at the prevailing rate.

Mr. MacLaren, who has already placed over 30 boys under the Dominion-Provincial Youth Training Plan, states that he selects only young men who are really interested in farming. He visits each applicant in his home and talks to his parents as well.

Boys, if you are interested in stock raising, fruit, poultry or any branch of farming, write to A. MacLaren, Department of Labor, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

So far the dictators in Europe have used mostly hot air instead of hot lead in gaining their ends.

One difference between the old and the young is that to the young Christmas always seems slow in arriving each year.

When a skunk visited a chicken house at Richmond Hill the hens left and roosted in a nearby tree. All but two of them and they didn't move out quickly enough when the raid took place.

Father: "I'm sure our boy didn't inherit his silly ideas from me."

Mother (icily): "No, you've still got yours complete."

Some women talk on and on about things that leave them speechless.

Keeping out of war cost Britain $27,500,000, but getting into one would be definitely more expensive.
