

TORONTO FLYERS THERE

Enemy fighters were reported by W.O.2 Fred Johnson, of 21 Macaulay ave., and Sgt. Jack Coates, of 98 Spruce st., Toronto. Coates had swirmishes with three fighters, one of which chased him out of the target area after he had given the slip to two others. Two Junkers 88s swooped in on Johnson's Halifax, but his Bluenose squadron Halifax was undamaged.

P.O. R. G. Devitt, of 3071 Dundas st. W., and Flt. Sgt. James Manson, of 107 Russett ave., Toronto, remarked on the feebleness of opposition around Tergnier.
