CANADA WELCOMES the KING and QUEEN

Ontario Towns And Cities Will See Their Majesties

Addresses And Bouquets Will Be Presented 13 Stops Following Western Trip—Mayor, Councils and Local Officials In Each Case Will Welcome King George And Queen Elizabeth.

The inter-departmental committee arranging for the Royal visit has announced the official program for the King and Queen's tour of 13 Ontario cities and three days prior to crossing to the United States at Niagara Falls, Ont., for the trip to Washington.

Returning from the west coast and the Prairies, the Royal train will arrive at Sioux Lookout, Ont., from Melville, Sask., at 7.55 p.m., C.S.T., on Sunday, June 4, and will stay at the northwest Ontario town for ten minutes with the Prime Minister presenting the Mayor of Sioux Lookout and Mrs. Moran to Their Majesties.

On Monday, June 6, at 6.30 p.m., E.S.T., the Royal party is scheduled to arrive at Sudbury Junction where the King and Queen will descend to the station platform and the Prime Minister will present the Mayor of Sudbury and his daughter, Mis Laforest, and the Mayor of Copper Cliff. The train will leave Sudbury Junction at 7.30 p.m., E.S.T.

10-Minute Stops Planned

Three 10-minute stops will be made on the afternoon of June 6. At 1.35 p.m. E.S.T. the Royal train will arrive at Guelph, at 2.15 p.m. E.S.T. at Kitchener, and at 3.20 p.m. E.S.T. at Stratford.

At each city the Prime Minister will introduce the Mayor and his wife. The Mayor will present an address of welcome and then will present the members of the City Council, officials and their wives.

The Royal train will visit Windsor at 7.30 p.m. E.S.T. that evening and a 21-gun salute will be fired as Their Majesties leave the train to have the Prime Minister present the Mayor of Windsor and Mrs. Croll. A guard of honor will be inspected by the King and the Mayor will present His Majesty with an address from the people of Windsor. Her Majesty will accept a bouquet.

London, Windsor

On Wednesday, June 7, the Royal train will arrive at the C.N.R. station at London at 10 a.m. E.S.T. and the King and Queen will be met by the Mayor of London and his mother, Mrs. Johnston, who will be presented by the Prime Minister.

At 10.20 a.m. Their Majesties, the Prime Minister, an Ontario member of the Federal Cabinet, the Mayor and his mother, and the ladies and gentlemen in waiting will drive through the city.

When passing the municipal offices, The King and Queen will sign the official visitors' book of the city which will be brought to their motor car. At 10.55 a.m. the Royal party returns to the C.N.R. station and at 11 a.m. the train leaves for Ingersoll where a stop will be made from 11.30 a.m. E.S.T. to 11.40 a.m. and the usual procedure regarding presentations at short stops followed.

Sign Visitors' Register

Another 10-minute stop will be made at Woodstock with the train arriving there at noon E.S.T. and the city officials will be presented as they also will be at Brantford where the Royal party arrives at 12.50 p.m., for a 15-minute stop. Besides the usual presentations at Brantford Their Majesties will autograph the Queen Anne Bible of the Six Nations Indians.

The sovereigns arrive at Hamilton at 1.45 p.m. E.S.T. and will meet the city officials. A 21-gun salute will be fired and a guard of honor inspected. Their Majesties, the Prime Minister, an Ontario member of the Federal Cabinet, the Mayor of Hamilton and Mrs. Morrison and the ladies and gentlemen in waiting will drive to the City Hall where the mayor will greet the Royal visitors, hand The King an address from the citizens of Hamilton and invite Their Majesties to sign the visitors' register. The Queen will accept a bouquet.

At Niagara Falls

A guard of honor will be inspected by The King and the train leaves at 3.10 p.m.

The Royal party arrives at St. Catharines at four p.m. E.S.T. Their Majesties will meet the Mayor and his wife and city officials and their wives.

At 4.10 p.m. The King and Queen, the Prime Minister, an Ontario member of the Federal Cabinet, the ladies and gentlemen in waiting will drive to Niagara Falls, arriving at the boundary of the city at six p.m., where they will be met by a mounted escort. The King will receive a Royal salute from the escort and the Royal party will proceed to the administration building at Queen Victoria Park.

The procession will drive to the C.N.R. Station at 9.10 p.m. and a guard of honor will be inspected by The King. At 9.30 p.m. the Royal train leaves Niagara Falls for the United States.

King George VI and Queen Elizabeth

Royal Train Is Blue And Gold

Silver Panels Between The Windows; 12 Cars Included In Equipment For The King's Use.

The Royal Train which bears the King and Queen on their Canadian tour has 12 cars the same as the pilot train that will precede it, carrying the press officials.

Color scheme of the Royal Train is royal blue with silver panels between the windows and horizontal gold stripes above and below the window line for the length of cars. The two private cars of the Governor-General, which are being used to carry the King and Queen, carry the Royal coat of arms. Other cars bear the royal cypher and crown.

The Canadian National Railways prepared four locomotives and the Canadian Pacific, two.

Picked Personnel

Cooks, waiters and porters on the Royal train were under close medical surveillance for 72 hours before they began the Canadian tour with King George and Queen Elizabeth. All food served to Their Majesties is carefully supervised for purity and all drinking water served is from a bottled supply of tested water.

There are 18 Canadian National Railways employees classified as food handlers and three or four Negro porters of the Canadian Pacific Railway sleeping car service assigned to the care of the Royal retinue.

Semi-Streamlined Engine Pulling It

Royal Train Piloted By 25 C. P. R. Engineers In Turn.

A semi-streamlined engine—No. 2850 of the Canadian Pacific power fleet is hauling the royal train from Quebec to Vancouver, while 25 C. P. R. engineers in turn handle the throttle on the coast-to-coast run.

From the time Engineer Eugene Leclerc took over the 2850 at Quebec City on May 16, until the train bearing King George VI and Queen Elizabeth pulls into Vancouver station May 29, the engine will have completed upward of 3,600 miles. It is believed to be a run not hitherto carried out by a single engine on the North American continent.

DOMINION OF CANADA

To Meet Royalty At U.S. Border

Secretary of State Cordell Hull will greet King George and Queen Elizabeth at the Canadian border when they enter the United States during their trip to America.

Hull will accompany the King and Queen by train to Washington, where President Roosevelt is to meet them at the station.

King Unveils New National War Memorial

Ceremony Highlights Their Majesty's Visit To Ottawa—Cornerstone Of New Supreme Court Building Laid By Queen Elizabeth.

The four-day panorama of state ceremonial and military pageantry in Ottawa May 20 will provide the King and Queen with a broad cross-section view of the capital's varied population.

Highlight of the visit of the King and Queen to Ottawa is the unveiling of the National War Memorial in Confederation Square, May 18. His Majesty's address to the thousands gathered about the massive granite pile in the city's main square is being broadcast to all Canada and the United States.

Trooping Of The Color

Secondary features of the capital program include laying of the cornerstone of the new Supreme Court building by Her Majesty, trooping of the color by the King, a state dinner, a dinner for members of the Senate and Commons, a birthday garden party for His Majesty and a state ceremony where the King will either give Royal assent to a number of bills or prorogue parliament.

Welcome From Governor-General

Cannon crashing out a Royal salute will herald the arrival of the Royal train from Montreal on May 17, an hour before noon. Prime Minister Mackenzie King will descend from the train with their Majesties, who will be welcomed to the capital by their hosts, Governon-General and Lady Tweedsmuir.

Also on the special platform beside the railway tracks on the outskirts of the city will be cabinet members, Senators and House of Commons members from the Ottawa area and Speakers of both Houses.

Planes To Escort King and Queen

R.C.A.F. Fighting Planes Accompany Their Majesties During Various Stages of Their Tour.

Escorts of fighting planes have been provided for King George VI and Queen Elizabeth by the Royal Canadian Air Force during various stages of their tour of Canada.

The air escort met the battleship Repulse at sea and accompanied it up the St. Lawrence River until the ship docked at Quebec City, May 15. Other planes will accompany the Royal train from Belleville Station, Ontario, to the Royal Canadian Air Force base at Trenton. A squadron will be also provided on the journey between Vancouver and Victoria and return.

Additional escorts will accompany Their Majesties from Cape Tormentine, N.B., to Charlottetown, P.E.I., and thence to Pictou, N.S. When the Empress starts the return journey to England from Halifax a flight will accompany it until beyond sight of Canadian territory.

Royal Train's Post Office

Philatelists will be able to obtain the special postmark of the Royal Train Post Office by sending to the Philatelic Division (Royal Train Covers,) Financial Branch, Post Office Department, Ottawa.

Such Canadian postage stamps as are required to be cancelled with the special postmark, or a remittance sufficient to cover the value of stamps, should be sent in with the covers. Requirements may be stated in a brief, enclosed letter.

This special post office will be operated for the convenience of the Royal party and the officials accredited to the Royal Tour.

King George to Broadcast Five Times During Tour

Queen Elizabeth Will Speak Over Radio Once While Their Majesties Are In Canada——Empire Day Message From Winnipeg Will Be Heard All Over World.

BROADCASTS BY THEIR MAJESTIES

Monday,	May 15,	1.45 p.m.	EDST	At Quebec
Thursday,	May 18,	2.45 p.m.	EDST	At Ottawa
Friday,	May 19,	10.45 a.m. (Her Majesty the Queen)	EDST	At Ottawa
Wednesday,	May 24,	3.00 p.m. (Empire Day Address)	EDST	At Winnipeg
Tuesday,	May 30,	6.00 p.m.	EDST	At Victoria
Thursday,	June 15,	1.15 p.m.	EDST	At Halifax

Those who have been able to see the script prepared by the CBC for the Empire Day Broadcast at which His Majesty will make his principal speech during his tour of Canada, declare it to be a very impressive piece of writing. Simplicity is its keynote.

Each participant, typical citizens from all walks of life scattered throughout the Empire, has submitted his little speech in which he talks about himself and his work. There will be no frills and no pompous ceremonial.

While the King's Here

TO BE HEARD ..... May 19, 10.45 A.M. all networks—Her Majesty speaks at the laying of the corner stone of the new Supreme Court Building ..... 2.45 P.M all networks—the King and Queen visit the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa ..... Saturday, May 20, all networks, 10.45 A.M, Trooping of the Colour at Parliament Hill described from the Main Steps of Parliament Buildings in Ottawa ..... May 22, all networks, 11.30 A.M., Description of the Royal procession from the Toronto City Hall to Queen's Park ..... 11.50 A.M., Address of Welcome to Their Majesties by the Premier of Ontario and Presentation of Members of Ontario Provincial Parliament ..... 12.45 P.M., Presentation of Colours to Toronto Scottish by Her Majesty the Queen ..... May 23, 6 P.M., Description of the Royal arrival at Port Arthur ..... 6.20 P.M., all networks, Songs of greeting to Their Majesties by Fort William School children's choir ..... 6.45 P.M., all networks, Arrival of the Royal Party at Fort William boundary ..... May 24, all networks, 1.30 P.M., Address of Welcome to Their Majesties by the Premier of Manitoba on their arrival in Winnipeg ..... 2.15 to 3.15 P.M., all networks throughout the British Empire, the United States etc., EMPIRE DAY BROADCAST to and from the entire British Empire and HIS MAJESTY THE KING addressing his subjects everywhere at 3 P.M. EDST from Winnipeg ..... 8.15 P.M. all networks, the ceremony of the Black Beavers, presented to His Majesty the King ..... May 25, all networks, 4.30 P.M., Address of Welcome to Their Majesties by the Premier of Saskatchewan on their arrival in Regina .....

Rebroadcasts

At 11.15 P.M., EDST every evening throughout the tour of Their Majesties in Canada and the United States, the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation will present a rebroadcast of the highlights of the activities of the Royal Party on that day.

Queen Brings Two Ladies With Her

Lady Nunburnholme And Lady Katherine Seymour Accompany Her Majesty On Royal Tour—Are Personal Attendants.

The Queen has chosen two ladies-in-waiting, of about her own age from among her friends to accompany her to Canada. They are both women who have known her since the days when they went to children's parties, and both have children who play with the young Princesses.

Lady Nunburnholme, tall, stately, lovely to look at, has fair English coloring and large grey eyes. She is 35, and as the youngest daughter of the Marquis of Bath, was Lady Mary Thynne before her marriage in 1927. Popular with the Royal family—at one time rumor went she was to marry the then Prince of Wales—she was one of the large retinue of bridesmaids at the Queen's wedding in Westminster Abbey and also an attendant when Princess Mary, now the Princess Royal, married Viscount Lascelles. ow of a few months. She has three

Both Are Close Friends

Lady Katherine Seymour is the same age as the Queen and a widow of a few months. She has three small children, one son and two daughters, also playmates of the Buckingham Palace children.

Youngest daughter of the Duke of Abercorn, she was appointed to the present Royal household as lady-of-the-bedchamber on the same day as Lady Nunburnholme, March 1, 1937, when preparations for the Coronation were under way,, and the Queen asked the help of her close friends.

Queen Bringing Finest Jewels

Queen Elizabeth is wearing a diamond maple leaf-shaped brooch on occasion during her Canadian visit.

The brooch, a present from King George, will be among the many pieces of fine jewelry Her Majesty is taking to Canada and the United States.

Among others is her favorite brooch which is a badge of Her Majesty's Own Regiment, the Black Watch. She uses this brooch to pin flowers to her coat.

The Queen has also brought her pearls which were a present from her father, Lord Strathmore.

Dress Not Set For Royal Trip

Those Who Will Meet The King Can Suit Selves About Attire

Dr. H. L. Keenleyside, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the royal visit, says that no instructions on the matter of dress have been issued.

"There's no sense in telling people they'll have to buy a complete new outfit because they'll be presented for 10 seconds to the King and Queen," he said. "We're issuing no instructions whatever on the matter of dress. People can wear what they like on any occasion."

King's Barber During Tour

Paul E. (Red) Tasse, popular proprietor of the Chateau Laurier (Ottawa) barber ship, is barber by appointment to His Majesty King George VI, on the Royal train during its trip across Canada.

For 35 years Mr. Tasse has been engaged in barbering in Ottawa and this is the crowning honof of his life so far.

They Are A Happy Family:

King George, Queen Elizabeth And The Two Little Princesses