Compensation.

To the Editor of The Advance.

Dear Sir,—Grip lately pictorially puts the liquor compensation question in a nutshell. Look at that well-dressed and comfortable-looking brewer: he wants compensation for the loss he will sustain if Prohibition becomes law. On the other hand, see that wretched-looking woman surrounded by a family of squalid children. She wants compensation for the loss that accursed liquor business has been to her and hers. That comfortable brewer's plea is, that he has increased the revenue, and out of the revenue his loss should be recouped. Perhaps he fails to say from whom he got the funds to increase the revenue, and perhaps he omits to say what real value he doled out to the men from whom he received those funds! He omits to say, no doubt, that but for his accursed stuff, the revenue would have been far far more increased by sober, industrious, real estate owning, respectable citizens. On the other hand his contributions to the revenue have been paid in to be paid out to support jails, lunatic and inebriate asylums, hospitals, etc. Of course he will not admit this. But there is a way to find out the facts, and we have been there. The books of the various crime repressing institutions will not lie. They will show in most cases, the cause which brought the inmates there. How would it do to offset the demands of the brewers for compensation with the bill of expenses directly attributable to the liquor traffic. Compensation? bah! Would it not cause the veriest school-boy to stand aghast when he hears the so-called "wise-heads," the parliamentarians discussing the compensation question and Prohibition not yet given! Oh, how the Victuallers whine and how their sympathizers plead for compensation. We think the time could be better employed by the M. P. P's by pleading for compensation for the suffering thousands made so by the traffic. Let us have a better order of things.

Horsemen, Attention!

When your horse is galled, scratched or cut, or has any ugly sore, bathe twice daily, and apply McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. It is undoubtedly the finest healing and cleansing application for it. Be sure you get McGregor and Parke's. Sold for 25c. per box, at Richardsons Drug Store.

——It is our sad duty to record this week the death of Esther Annie, wife of Mr. M. H. Arthur, Meaford, and second daughter of Mr. Thos. Plunkett, Division Court Clerk. The deceased lady was well known in this section and universally admired for her many estimable qualities. Her death causes a blank which Time itself will scarcely efface. The remains were interred in St. Vincent cemetery yesterday afternoon and were followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. The funeral sermon will be preached in Christ church on Sunday evening. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the desolate and sorrowing husband, and also to the parents and relatives of the deceased.—Meaford Mirror.

——Mr. Chris. Burns, warehouseman in H. Chisholm & Co's. new elevator, had a painful experience on Saturday last. He was cleaning out the "boot" a term used to denote some portion of the appliances in the elevator, when the finger of his right hand was caught in the revolving machinery thereabouts, with the result of amputating said finger at the first joint. The cut was made so easily that Chris. did not know he had lost a portion of his finger until examination revealed that fact.—Meaford Mirror.

——Those who do not approve of the Salvation Army should at least leave them alone. They have according to British law as much right to the free exercise of their religious views as any other class in the community. All are free on British soil, and as long as they obey the law, they must be protected by the law. Mahomedan, Jew, Boodhist, Pagan, Fetich are all free on British territory to worship as they see fit providing always they obey the law. We are sorry to hear of one case of disgusting blackguardism at the Salvation Army meeting on Sunday night last. Should such occur again we will certainly publish the names no matter how respectable their position in society may be.—Thornbury Standard.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ga.) Enterprise, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Acrobats, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880. "Ever since my hair began to give such very evidence of the change which death only procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Pleasant St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I saw a fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used half a one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
