J. G. RUSSELL,

The Noted

Jewellery Man !

FLESHERTON.

REPAIRING!

In all its Branches Satisfactorily attended to.

THE ADVANCE.

A. R. Fawcett, — Editor.

FLESHERTON:
THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1885.

DR. LANDERKIN.

The representative for South Grey is very assiduous in keeping his supporters posted regarded the sayings and doings of his protegees in the Dominion Parliament. These men, however—extremists—never fail in committing themselves; their antipathies against the Government cluster so thickly around their speeches, that, to say nothing of Tories, moderate Reformers become sickened and disgusted.

The pamphlet widely circulated by Dr. Landerkin, containing Patterson's speech on the Budget, discloses facts referred to.

It is well known, that in regard to the Canada Pacific R. R., these gentlemen have been opposed to rapid construction. Build, say they, as the country became settled; let the emigrant penetrate the country—then follow with the road! And criticising an article in the Mail—and therefore the Government—upon the necessity of the Government to see the road pushed to a finish—unless financial ruin overtake the original partners, and the country stopped in its onward progress. This Patterson—the patriot—asks in derision:—

"Who is responsible for the rapid "completion of the Road? Who "urged it? Who put it through in "spite of the protests of those who "advocated the adoption of a wiser "course? If financial ruin and the "disruption of Confederation are in-"volved in it. The Opposition have "declared their views; they have de-"clared that the only safe policy with "reference to that work was to push "it over the prairie as fast as settle-"ment required it," &c., &c. This is echoed by Dr. Landerkin.

How wrong they are is evidenced by the present crisis; and the usefulness of the road. Now there is a grand national highway, and every one, from high to low, is in loud applause at a Government who, despite opposition at every step,—opposition created and fostered by these gentlemen at home and abroad—have assisted this great work, and intend to assist it to its completion—every volunteer to the front; every man, woman and child in the North-West welcomes the road, and are ready with imprecations upon the heads of the self-styled chivalrous patriots, who denounce the Government and the Syndicate for building the road so fast.

The present utility of the road is a crushing answer to the five year's continuous onslaught, and must cause a national pride, and be a source of inestimable pleasure to the Syndicate, the Government and its supporters, to find that they were correct in estimating its necessity and worth.

—A very rich-toned Organ for sale for less than half price, having six sets of Reeds, 14 Stops, and being 6 feet high.

C. TREADGOLD, Flesherton.

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

The cable news from England this week indicate that war with Russia is almost inevitable, and will probably prove to be the most terrible struggle that British armaments have had to engage in for half a century. With the history of the past before them, it is not to be wondered at that the British government would hesitate before precipitating the nation into a war with Russia—especially on Afghan territory. Millions of British gold have been spent in attempts to establish a friendly yet stable dynasty on the throne of Afghanistan, and thousands of British soldiers have perished in its mountain passes and defiles, the victims of Afghan treachery. While they are a brave and hardy people, they have no more friendship for British soldiers than for Russian, and, should they suffer serious reverses, would be very likely to turn their arms on their Allies—especially if Russia could offer equal inducements in gold for their services.

It is to be hoped that, if it is to be war, Britain may divert the battle fields from Afghanistan and thus make it possible for the Afghans to defend their own territory.

The last campaign in Afghanistan, under General, now Sir Frederick Roberts, left the most important of the mountain passes leading into India in possession of the British, and they have remained so since; and the forts commanding them have been and are still garrisoned by British troops, possibly Indians.

THE REBELLION.

Since our last week's issue came the horrible news of the Frog Lake massacre, which has raised public feeling to a high pitch of excitement. The latest particulars of the massacre are thus given in Tuesdays dailies:—

BATTLEFORD, April 13.—Details of the recent terrible tragedy at Frog lake here to hand, but nothing is said of any further murders having been committed beyond those first reported. The Indians entered Gowanlock's house and, without saying a word, deliberately shot him dead. Another Indian raised his rifle and aimed it at W. C. Gilchrist. Mrs. Gowanlock, rushing forward, pinioned his arms by clasping him around the body. He shook her off and fired, killing her instantly, and immediately afterwards killed Gilchrist. The fate of Mrs. Gowanlock is admitted on all hands to be preferable to that of Mrs. Delaney, who is held a prisoner by the Indians. Quinn, the Indian agent, was married to a Cree Woman, who, it is presumed, was cognizant of the intended murder.

Williscroft was a plasterer, and last season he was engaged by the Hudson Bay company on Lake Athabasca. He has a brother residing in the county of Bruce, Ont.

Nothing has yet been heard from Cameron, the manager for the Hudson Bay company.

Up to the present no trace of the body of Payne, the murdered farm instructor, has been discovered, but the floor of his house was found deluged with blood, and as the Indians assert that they killed him there is no chance that he escaped. Barney Freeman, whose correct name was Bernard Fremoine, was a Belgian aged 38, who has lived in the west since boyhood. He was found dead beside his wagon, one hand clasping a wrench and the other a wheel of the wagon. Two bullet holes ran through his head and an arrow was found in his breast. He was a man of great physical strength, and the probability is that he never saw his murderers.

As stated in last week's ADVANCE, these Indians are a treacherous crowd. Of all the tribes in the North-West, none are to be depended upon. Nothing but a force superior to their own will keep them out of mischief. Just imagine a lot of unprotected women and children at the mercy of these devils incarnate! It makes one shudder just to think about it. We only hope the Indians and half-breeds may stand their ground when Gen. Middleton and his troops arrive upon the scene with a few good Armstrong and gatling guns and Capt. Todd's sharp-shooters! Should such an unlikely thing occur, this Dominion would mighty soon get rid of a parcel of bloodthirsty cut-throats and useless citizens.

Some have had the impudence to say the rebels are fighting in a just cause. Such persons are as bad as the rebels themselves, for by making such statements, they endorse rapine and murder. No grievances—such as the half-breeds and Indians complain of—can possibly justify the shedding of innocent blood; and now that these misguided people have stamped their "Bill of Rights" in the blood of the innocent, we trust our Government will see to it that speedy vengeance falls upon the heads of the offenders of law and order.

BLAMING SIR JOHN.

The following from the Woodstock Times is very timely just now when so many otherwise well-conducted journals are allowing their politics to run away with their common sense:—"WE notice that some of the Grit journals are now assailing Sir John Macdonald for not being able to arrest Riel and bring him to justice for the part he took in the Red River rebellion. If Sir John neglected to do so, then more blame is attached to the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, who had Riel within reach when he walked into the parliament buildings at Ottawa in March 1874. Mr. Mackenzie was at that time Premier and refused even to move a resolution to prevent Riel sitting as a member of the House, and when Riel was re-elected in 1875, Mr. Mackenzie went so far as to move a resolution granting a general pardon to the rebels."

FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS destroy and remove worms without injury to adult or infant

——The most of our readers will undoubtedly remember Miss Sarah Pilcher, who left her home (Mr. Jas. Elliott's residence) abocut the 25th of January last, and although diligent search has been made for her no trace whatever could be found up to yesterday, (Thursday) morning. It appears that two young men by the name of Leslie, and O'Donnell were crossing Mr. Peter Leslies field, on their way to the bush to work (on con. 3, lot 50 Egremont). They happened to see what they thought to be some person lying in the snow and upon approaching nearer found it to be the body of the deceased, who apparently had been there about three months, news was at once sent to town, to friends and a conveyance sent for the corpse. Strange to say, yesterday, when the body was found, there was a gang of twenty-five men out searching the woods and swamps near town not thinking she had wandered so far away.

Coroner Jones examined the body, finding no marks of violence considered an inquest unnecessary.—Mt. Forest Index.

——Scott act victories are old stories now, but this does not detract from the importance of the act's adoption in so large and important a county as Wellington by an overwhelming majority. The change that has come over public sentiment concerning sumptuary legislation is emphasized by the fact that it is only a few years since Wellington rejected the Dunkin act by over two thousand majority. The result just achieved in Wellington is expected to give an impetus to the temperance campaign in the adjoining county of Waterloo, which has long been regarded as the brewer's stronghold, because the Germans combine sobriety with the consumption of beer, and because the Lutherans and Roman Catholics of that nationality are as a rule opposed to sumptuary legislation upon principle. The moral effect in Waterloo of the triumph in Wellington will be considerable, and it is quite possible that Ontario's little Germany may vote to close the breweries of her many thriving towns and villages. Should this come to pass it will be high time for Bacchus to draw his Caesarian robe around him and die, exclaiming: Thou, too, Brutus!"—Toronto News.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 28, 1882.

"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., 0..., 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

ROAD NOTICE!

TOWNSHIP OF ARTEMESIA.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Municipal Council of the Township of Artemesia will, after the expiration of four weeks from the first publication hereof in the FLESHERTON ADVANCE newspaper, (the date of said first publication being the 19th day of March, 1885) proceed to pass a by-law to close up and sell or otherwise dispose of, all that part of Kincardine Street, in the Village of Priceville, lying between the East side of Lot Number Seven and the West side of Lot Number Nine on said Kincardine Street, according to the Government plan of said Village of Priceville.

All persons interested are hereby required to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

W. J. BELLAMY,
Twp. Clerk.

Dated, 19th March, 1885.

J. G. RUSSELL,

The Noted

Jewellery Man,

FLESHERTON.

Selling Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, &c.

Cheaper Than Ever!

James Sullivan,

The Tinsmith, - Flesherton.

Repairing, Eavetroughing, and in fact everything in the business will receive my prompt and careful attention at reasonable prices.

Stoves & Holoware in Stock.

Flesherton Carriage VVorks!

Milburn & Gadd,

PROPRIETORS of the above works, are prepared to attend to everything in the Carriage Making & Blacksmithing!

—lines promptly and well.—

Repairing in both Branch's

Promptly attended to.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

NORTHERN PACIFIC R. R. LANDS

In Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon

From Lake Superior to Puget Sound.

At prices ranging chiefly from $2 to $3 per acre, on 5 to 10 years' time. This is the Best Country for securing Good Homes now open for settlement.

FREE 320 acres of Government Land Free under the Homestead and Timber Culture Laws. NOTE—10,818,433 Acres OR MORE THAN HALF of all the Public Lands disposed of in 1883, were in the Northern Pacific country. Books and Maps sent FREE, describing the Northern Pacific Country, the Railroad Lands for sale and the FREE Government Lands. Address, CHAS. B. LAMBORN, Land Com'r, N. P. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

I have a Full Supply of Boots & Shoes!

On hand suitable for the Season, having just received a large addition to my Stock and will be constantly making additions to it.

INSPECTION INVITED.

WM. CLAYTON, - FLESHERTON.

Largest, Cheapest, and Best stock of

--STOVES!--

IN THIS SECTION OF COUNTRY, AT

STRAIN'S,

FLESHERTON.

FARMERS AND THRESHERS!

——Ask your Merchants for——

McColl Bros. Lardine MACHINE OIL.