Spring Stallion Show.

A Fine Exhibit and a Good Attendance of Visitors.

The enterprise of Mr. Alex. Hannah in getting up the Spring Stallion show, held at Flesherton Station last Saturday, is worthy the highest praise. Seldom do we find individuals attempting such "feats"—if we may so call them—but rarely, if ever, are individual efforts crowned with such success as on the occasion referred to. Several gentlemen from a distance gave it as their unbiassed opinion, that it was one of the very best stallion exhibitions ever held in Grey. And this is our own opinion.

The various classes were well represented. Messrs. Trimble & Pickell's imported Clydesdale, & W.Trimble's famous "Black Prince" came in for a large share of attention—the massive build of the former reminding us very much of the handsome horses used by Hendry & Co. in Hamilton, Toronto and other large cities. The far-famed trotter, "Jimmy Puzzler," made his appearance "fresh as a daisy," reminding us of a celebrated ride from Priceville about a year ago—a circumstance many of our readers, possibly, have not forgotten either. Mr. Robt. McGirr's handsome young Clydesdale, bids fair to stand second to none in the County, in his class, at no distant date. Mr. Hodgson's "Young Lebon" also came in for a good share of attention, his sprightly groom, Mr. Johnston, showing off his "points" to good advantage. Mr. Angus Kennedy exhibited his compact, well built stal'on, which gives evidence of excellent qualities, which time will speedily develop. Altogether the exhibit of stallions far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the spectators, and the result must be gratifying, not only to the energetic promoter of the scheme, Mr. Hannah, but to all interested in the improvement of our stock. The decisions of the Judges, we believe, were highly satisfactory. Following is the prize list:—

Heavy Draught—1st Garfield, 2nd Lord Dufferin.

Canadian Draught—1st Clydesdale Jock, 2nd Wellington.

General Purpose—1st Black Prince, 2nd Farmer's Friend.

Roadster & Carriage—1st Clear Grit, jr., 2nd Puzzler.

Two year old Roadster—1st A.S.Vandusen

From our own Correspondent,

Business booming. Our two roller flour mills are running night and day, furnishing food for the famishing. I don't know how much flour they send to feed the STARVING half-breeds of the North-West.

The North-West fever has at length spent its fury and the people here are again convalescent. But fears are entertained of an attack of the Anglo-Russian fever, and considering the weak pulse after the severe antidotes used to allay the former, we may well have a wholesome dread of the latter.

The Oddfellows' Lodge of this village is increasing at a rapid pace; five new members the last night of meeting and more expected the next.

The School Concert held last week was a success. We had the pleasure of seeing the new dictionary which was purchased with part of the proceeds. We believe the remainder goes toward purchasing a new bell for the school. May we soon hear its merry chime.

Our milliners have arrived. Mac's seems to magnetize the young men, but no doubt Hill's will receive a due share of their gallantry on account of her amorous name.

The Salvation Army has come to town. Now, Mr. Editor, I'm not going to say any more about it. It has had its time with the press generally and I would not put a straw in its way. There is here a grand field in which to labor. May they meet with success.

Mr. D. J. Shanahan, who suffered so severely by the fire here a short time ago, has bought the lot on which stood the old shop and, I believe, he intends erecting a building costing between $3000 and $4000.

Markdale spring show took place to-day (Monday). The weather was favorable and the mumber of animrls shown was large. R. J. Trimble captured 3 first prizes. As usual some felt dissatisfied.

SHILOH'S COUGH and Consumption Cure is sold by D. S. Munro on a guarantee. It cures Consumption.

Newspapers of To-Day.

People generally, and even those who may be termed steady readers and close observers, have but a faint conception of the magnitude and influence the press of this country has attained. From a careful examination of the advance pages of the 1885 edition of the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY, issued May 1st, by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, it appears that there are 14,147 newspapers and periodicals published in the United States and Canada; of these the United States has 12,973, an average of one paper for every 3,867 persons. In 1884 the total number of newspapers was less by 823 than at present, and while the gain this year is not so marked as in some previous years, it is still considerable. Kansas shows the greatest increase, the number being 78, while Illinois follows with a gain of 77. It is curious to notice that New York, the scene of so much political activity during the last campaign, should have only about one-third as many newspapers as the State of Pennsylvania. As an index to the comparative growth and prosperity of different sections of the country, especially the Territories, the number of new papers forms an interesting study, and may well occupy the attention of the curious.

The Canadian Highlander.

BY CHARLES MACKAY, LL. D.

I.

Thanks to my sires, I'm a Highland born,
And trod the moorland and the heather,
Since childhood and this soul of mine
First came into the world together!
I've "paidled" barefoot in the burn,
Roamed on the braces to pu' the growan,
Or clomb the granite clifts to pluck
The scarlet berries of the rowan.

II.

And when the winds blew loud and shrill
I've scaled the heavenward summits hoary,
Of grey Ben Nevis or his peers
In all their solitary glory,—
And with the enraptured eyes of youth
Have seen half Scotland spread before me,
And proudly thought with flashing eyes
How noole was the land that bore me.

III.

Alas! the land denied me bread,
Land of my sires in bygone ages,
Land of the Wallace and the Bruce,
And countless heroes, bards and sages.
It had no place for me and mine,
No elbow-room to stand alive in,
Nor rood of kindly mother earth
For honest industry to thrive in.

IV.

'Twas parcelld out in wide domains,
By cruel law's resistless flat,
So that the sacred herd of deer
Might roam the wilderness in quiet,
Untroubled by the foot of man
On mountain side, or sheltering corrie,
Lest sport should fail, and selfish wealth
Be disapointed of its quarry.

V.

The lords of acres deemed the clans
Were aliens at the best, or foeman,
And that the grouse, the sheep, the beeves
Were worthier animals than yeoman;
And held that men might live or die
Where'er their fate or fancy led them,
Except among the Highland hills
Where noble mothers bore and bred them.

VI.

In agony of silent tears,
The partner of my soul beside me,
I crossed the seas to find a home
That Scotland cruelly denied me,
And found it on Canadian soil,
Where man is man in Life's brave battle,
And not, as in my native glens,
Of less importance than the cattle.

VII.

And love with steadfast faith in God,
Strong with the strength I gained in sorrow,
I've looked the future in the face,
Nor feared the hardships of the morrow;
Assured that if I strove aright
Good end would follow brave beginning,
And that the bread, if not the gold,
Would never fail me in the winning.

VIII.

And every day as years roll on
And touch my brow with age's finger,
I learn to cherish more and more
The land where love delights to linger.
In thoughts of day, and dream of night,
Fond memory recalls, and blesses
Its heathery braes, its mountain peaks,
Its straths and glens and wilderness.

IX.

And Hope revives at memory's touch,
That Scotland, crushed and landlord-ridden,
May yet find room for all her sons,
Nor treat the humblest as unbidden,—
Room for the brave, the staunch, the true,
As in the days of olden story,
When men unvalued grouse and deer,
And lived their lives;—their country's glory.

Quantity in medicine is no indication of value. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is concentrated and powerful; requires a smaller dose, and is more effective, dose for dose, than any other Sarsaparilla. It is the best of all blood medicines.

——MAGISTRATE COURT.—On Monday last, Messrs John Lawrence and Jas. Frame, were up before the Mayor, on a charge of fighting and disorderly conduct on Wednesday last week. The evidence went to show that both parties were to blame, but that Lawrence, having bitten Frames hand in a serious manner, was fined $5 and costs, and Frame $1. We are informed the License Inspector has given the Hotel keepers of Durham notice to give John Lawrence no more liquor.—Grey Reuiew.

——HIGH SCHOOL AND TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.—The midsummer examinations for admission to High Schools will be held this year on Thursday and Friday, the 2nd and 3rd of July. For 3rd and 2nd class teachers the examination in the non-professional subjects, will begin on Monday, July 6. For 1st class, grade "C," on Wednesday, July 15; for grades "A and B" on Thursday, July 23. The professional examinations for 1st class will be held on Wednesday, July 22.—O. S. Times.

Catarrh—A New Treatment.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting with the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissue, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination—this accomplished, he claims the Catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has ever attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple, and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favourable for a speedy and permanent cure, the majority of cases being cured at one treatment. Sufferers should correspond with Messrs. H. A. Dixon & Son, 305 King street west, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.—Montreal Star, Nov. 17, 1882.
