Afflicted With Rheumatism.

"I was, and am yet, afflicted with rheumatism," says Mr. J. C. Bayne, editor of the Herald, Addington, Indian Territory, "but thanks to Chamberlain's Pain Balm am able once more to attend to business. It is the best of liniments." If troubled with rheumatism give Pain Balm a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. One application relieves the pain. For sale by W. E. Richardson and W. J. Douglas.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by W. E. Richardson and W. J. Douglas.

Our Country's Flag.

To the Editor:

Sir—Believing that the press will be the most effective means of accomplishing what our Association aims at, I desire to direct your attention to the following resolution passed at the recent Annual Meeting of the veterans of 1866 Association: The flag of our country being the emblem of Britain's might and glory, it ought, whenever and wherever displayed, to evoke feelings of patriotic pride in every British subject, but this Association views with regret the prevalent and increasing custom of making it the medium of calling attention to auction sales and otherwise using it for advertising purposes demeaning the flag and taking from it the respect with which it ought to be viewed. Resolved, therefore, that the President appoint a committee to act with kindred Associations or otherwise in endeavoring to secure a discontinuance of using the British or Canadian flags for such purposes. If you sympathize with our object will you, through your paper, urge the discontinuance of this practice now thoughtlessly indulged in? If the press generally would take the matter up we would soon have such a public sentiment of respect for the flag that it would no longer be put to the indignity of calling attention to the sale of some poor man's furniture or his cow.
