THOMPSON — PETCH

The marriage took place Saturday at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Allan Houden, Humberside Ave., Toronto, of Helen May Petch, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Petch, to E. Edward (Ted) Thompson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Toronto. Rev. J. Clifton Mackay, Victoria Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony; Miss Eva Petch, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore midnight blue crepe, with matching turban and finger tip veil. Her flowers were pink roses and white baby 'mums, and she wore pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Irene Petch was her sister's bridesmaid in mustard crepe with brown accessories and carried yellow and bronze 'mums. Ronald LeLiever was best man. At the reception Mrs. Petch received, wearing wine crepe, matching hat and was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Thompson, in American Beauty rose crepe with black accessories. The couple left later for a trip east and on their return they will reside on Admiral Rd., Toronto.

MAGEE — CARSON

The marriage of Bernice Loraine Carson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carson, Priceville, to Gerald Magee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Magee of Eugenia, took place on Saturday, Oct. 25th, at the manse, Priceville. Rev. Dr. Campbell officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. Donald Carson, brother of the bride, and Miss Hazel Magee, sister of the groom, were the only attendants. The bride looked charming in a gown of powder blue and carried a bouquet of 'mums. The bridesmaid looked pretty in a copen blue frock. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto and other points.

LITTLEJOHNS — RUSSELL

A pretty wedding of interest took place on Saturday, Oct. 25th, 1941, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Russell, Rock Mills, when Anna Ilene Russell was united in marriage to Wesley George Robert Littlejohns, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Littlejohns of Orange Valley. Rev. Keith McMillan of Flesherton was the officiating minister.

At 3.30 p.m. the bride entered the living room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by the groom's cousin, Miss Vera Mitchell of Toronto. The bride took her place under an arch of evergreens, decorated with pink and white streamers and 'mums and centered with a white bell, banked with baskets of pretty autumn flowers. The bride looked lovely in a street-length dress of crater blue crepe with a corsage of pink Johanna Hill roses with white bouvardia, and wore a dainty gold locket, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid was Miss Eleanor Russell, sister of the bride, who wore a dress of light rose crepe with corsage of roses and maiden hair fern. The groom's gifts to the bridesmaid and to the pianist were gold compacts. Mr. Clifford Littlejohns, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's mother received in a dress of Queen's blue crepe and corsage of Ophelia roses, assisted by the groom's mother, wearing a navy blue reddingcote, with white trimmings, and corsage of Sweetheart roses and maiden hair fern. The home was decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells.

Miss Ruth Rusesll, sister of the bride, wearing a street-length dress of forest green crepe with corsage of Talisman roses, invited the fifty guests at 6 o'clock to the tables, which were decorated with pink and white streamers and yellow 'mums and tall pink and white tapers, which burned during the supper hour. The bride's table was centred with a three story wedding cake. During a course of the wedding supper a toast was proposed to the bride and groom by Rev. McMillan, and in a few chosen words the groom responded to the toast. The assistants, with Mrs. George Stewart, as supervisor, were: Miss Bessie Russell, Mrs. Ken Teeter, Miss Gladys McFadden and Mrs. Willis Coburn.

The happy couple left on a trip through Northern Ontario and other points, the bride travelling in a harvest wine coat with squirrel trim hat to match, and black accessories. On their return they will reside in Flesherton.

SMITH — IVERS

On Saturday, Oct. 25th, Miss Doris Ivers, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ivers, 22 Mystic Ave., Scarborough, became the bride of Delbert L. Smith, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith of Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. K. Douglas Whatmough in St. Nicholas Anglican church, Birchcliffe.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of chenille embroidered white satin on Princess lines, with full-length veil, falling from a halo of white satin and carried a cascade of red roses and white 'mums. Mrs. Whittaker, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor, in bouffant style dress of turquoise blue taffeta, with halo hat to match, and carried pink roses and white 'mums. The bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Crates and Miss Beatrice Stevens, in bouffant style dresses of romance pink taffeta with halo hats to match and carried bouquets of supreme red roses and white 'mums. Mr. Sherman A. Piper of Flesherton was best man. The ushers were Mr. Laurie Smith and Mr. Victor Whittaker. The wedding music was played by Mr. Orville Cornish.

The reception was held at the Birchcliffe Club, Mrs. Ivers receiving in a dress of harvest wine crepe with corsage of roses and white 'mums assisted by the groom's mother, wearing a skyline blue crepe dress with corsage of roses and white 'mums.

Later the young couple left on a motor tour to Quebec. For travelling the bride wore a black ensemble, with accessories to match and short grey fur jacket. On their return they will reside in Peterborough.

The best reflections come from thinking instead of looking into mirrors.

PAPER KNIFE SOUVENIRS FROM PIECES OF BOMBS

Thousands of miles from the war zone, people are now slitting their letters open with paper knives made from bits of bombs rained by the Nazis on London in the blitz. The larger pieces are melted down and used again by industry, but small fragments have been shaped into blades, leaving the handle in the rough of the original splinter. The paper knives are from six inches to two feet long and quantities of these souvenirs have already been shipped to the Dominions and U.S.A.
