KIMBERLEY

Rev. Dr. Mercer of Maxwell exchanged pulpits with Mr. Buchanan on Sunday and had reception and Sacrament services at New England, Epping and Kimberley, also a baptismal service, when the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Soul was baptized. Fourteen united with the Kimberley church.

A number attended, at Thornbury, the shower given to Mr. Chas. Lincoln and Miss E. Cripps, whose marriage took place in Toronto on Saturday. We wish the couple much happiness.

Mr. Dalton Ferguson is home for a couple of weeks. Mrs. M. Cook and Mr. Allen Ferguson of the H.E.P.C visited their mother on Sunday. Mrs. Ferguson is under the doctor's care with a very sore eye.

Miss Jackson and Miss Orlie Kirkpatrick of Markdale hospital spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kirkpatrick.

Mr. Montgomery and eight others are busy practising their play 'Don't Darken My Door Again," to be given about Nov. 28th.

Mrs. Buchanan has as guests this week, her aunt, Mrs. Carson, and cousin, Mrs. House and David, from Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Miss Leota Gilbert spent the week end with Kimberley friends.

Guard Ezra Fawcett and friend spent the week end here.

(Intended for Last Week)

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Steer and son, Harold, and Mrs. Jas. Acheson of Dundalk were guests of Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burritt visited Kimberley friends Tuesday. Mrs. W. Fehr returned with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson, A. C. and Jimmy, of Barrie visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Burritt and Mrs. C. Thompson.

The "pot luck" supper on Friday night turned out to be a good luck supper and also the program after. $27 was taken in, with only a few dollars in expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and family visited over the week end with Mrs. G. Hutchinson, Milton and Tena.

Rev. Taylor of the British and Foreign Bible Society, gave a very interesting talk in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, with Rev. E. H. Young presiding.

Mrs. Chas. Thompson is visiting this week at Barrie with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson.

It is with deep regret we learn of the resignation of Rev. E. H. Young from the Thornbury and Kimberley Baptist churches. We feel we have been greatly bnefited by fellowship here. We wish him God's blessing at Hanover, where he is moving in the near future.

A short memorial service was conducted by Rev. W. Buchanan Friday night. Mrs. Jas. Lawrence unveiled the wreath placed by the memorial tablet.

Pilot Officer Jimmy McKee of Thornbury spent several days on a trip north.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of D. B. Russell. We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family.

VANDELEUR

There was a generous response in this community to the canvas in aid of the British War Victims' Fund. The local canvassers were: George Buchanan on the Meaford Road and Howard Graham on the 12th.

A well attended meeting of the Girls' Club was held at the home of Miss Dorothy Kelso on Tuesday afternoon last. The president, Miss Irene Fawcett, presided over an interesting program, which was followed by the election of officers. Miss Hazel Morrison is the new president.

Mr. Harold Hutton attended the Western Ontario Shorthorn sale at Stratford recently and purchased a fine Scotch Shorthorn heifer.

Mrs. F. R. Boland spent a week with friends at Caledon.
