THE MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

A Small Attendance but a Grand Musical Treat.

There was rather a slim attendance at the musical festival in the Methodist church, Flesherton, on Wednesday evening, 20th ult., owing to the very stormy weather which prevailed. However, the programme was ably sustained by our musical amateurs. We noticed a most decided improvement in the rendition of the various solos, duets, &c., by our leading vocalists. The selections were chaste and appropriate. "Coronation" fully realized the fondest anticipations of all present. The Brass Band never played better; there was nothing harsh or discordant, or shrill, nor yet squeaky, about their music—on the contrary, the tones were soft, clear, distinct and musical. The Glee Club did well, considering the nature of the selections necessary to be given, and the limited time for their preparation. Two anthems, by the Methodist church choir, astonished as much as they pleased the audience, by the unexceptional manner in which they were rendered. Miss Edith Richardson sang one of the solos faultlessly and in tones so rich, clear, and sweet, as to hold the hearers spell-bound. It has never been excelled in Flesherton. In the duet, Miss Edith and Maud Richardson won golden opinions. "Ashamed of Jesus," by Miss Ella Ayers, showed that young lady to be possessed of a remarkably strong, sweet, and clear alto voice—such as we have never heard excelled by any amateur vocalist in town or city. Miss Damude is decidedly to be rank'd amongst the best amateur vocalists we have ever heard. Her singing on this occasion excelled all her previous efforts, which shows that she has yet to attain to greater degrees of excellence in the vocal art. Miss Christoe sang in her usual charming manner—in fact the range of her sweet and highly cultivated voice, seems almost unlimited; and no matter how softly she sings, the tones of her voice are distinctly heard in every part of the auditorium. There is, also, a marked improvemement in her articulation. Miss Addie Armstrong is rapidly coming to the front ranks of our local amateur vocalists, and as she really possesses a grand voice, we surprise and charm the most fastidious audience which can be mustered in the place. Miss Maud Richardson has improved greatly as a soloist, and on this occasion secured the marked attention of her hearers. Of Miss Edith Richardson we have simply to say, that her singing was faultless throughout. The cantata gave much satisfaction, and the marvel was that it was so well rendered, there having been only two copies for the use of the large number who took part in it. Mrs. W. W. Trimble sang her solos very sweetly, but of course there was little opportunity for the display of her fine scope of voice. Miss Aggie Leitch did well, as did Mr. Barnhouse, Miss Ayers, Miss Edith and Maud Richardson, Master E. Richardson, and others. Misses Ada Sproule, Locie Armstrong, Tina Richardson, and Lena Large, in the "Lilly" song, brought tears to the eyes of some by their clear, child-like voices and their pathetic attitudes. The Band, Glee Club, Choir and audience, then sang "God save the Queen" in a right hearty and loyal manner.

We could not close this rather imperfect report, without referring specially to the zealous, untiring patient and indefatigable efforts put forth by the leader, Mr. C. J. Sproule—in the limited time at his disposal—in the preparation of the programme. He deserves the thanks of all. Rev. Mr. Ayers was also a most diligent worker.

Corrections.

In our list of officers of Royal Black Preceptory No. 343, published in our issue of 21st ult., "J. C. Lusts" should have read J. C. Irish, and "J. Wilters" should have read J. Witters.

Military Case Settled.

The adjourned cases against Mr. Wm. C. Hanley—referred to in our last issue—came up again for hearing on Thursday evening following, before squires Arnstrong and Richardson. They were both settled, the defendant paying all costs in the matter. Mr. Masson appeared for defendant, and Mr. J. W. Frost, LLB., for the prosecutor.

Our Supplement.

We issue a large supplement to the ADVANCE this week, which contains the concluding chapters of the story which has been running in our columns for some time past, "Blue Veins and Black," together with a variety of other interesting matter. This supplies in a measure the "vacuum" caused by the non-issue of our paper last week.

To Correspondents.

We have to remind some of our correspondents that they have been rather remiss in the matter of sending in news items during the past two months. Correspondents are important aids in country newspaper work, and when their budgets of news are published regularly, are looked forward to with pleasure by constant readets.

Orange Concert.

An Orange Concert, under the auspices of Eugenia L O.L. No. 1118, will be held in the Orange Hall, Eugenia, on Monday evening, Feb. 22nd, when a splendid programme of recitations, dialogues, vocal and instrumental music and addresses will be given. Doors open at 7 p.m. concert commences at 7:30. Admission 25 cents, lady and gentleman 40 cents Engaged for 1886.

Mr. C. J. Sproule has been engaged at a good salary as teacher in the school-house, a short distance south of this village, for the present year. Mr. Sproule possesses high educational qualifications, and is a young man of exemplary habits and earnest devotion to his vocation. We congratulate the school section alluded to upon securing his services, and have not the least doubt but that the record of the present year's labors will be a good one.

Stable Thieves.

One of our citizens having missed a number of articles from his stable recently, caused an investigation to be made, when the majority of the missing articles were recovered from the stable of a person living not a hundred miles from Flesherton. People will do well to keep their stables locked while such light-fingered gentlemen are abroad. We do not mention names this time, but should another such case occur, we will certainly not withold them.

Farewell Party.

Some two dozen of our young people assembled in Miss Hind's refreshment rooms on Thursday evening, 21st ult. and proceeded to enjoy themselves in the usual manner. The guest of the evening was Miss Page—late milliner in Mr. R. J. Sproule's store—and although her health was not drunk, as is the custom at more adult gatherings of a somewhat similar character, yet her amiability and genial good nature was honored in an equally interesting manner. All regret Miss Page's departure from Flesherton. The refreshments served did credit to Miss Hind's excellent establishment.

Another Important Item.

Mr. J. E. Moore, our well-known master contractor, has purchased the extensive premises, formerly known as "Hooper's Factory," situated on Durham street, near M. Richardson & Co's mammoth store. Mr. Moore is fitting up the premises in first-class style, and in another column informs the public as to the lines of business he is carrying on. One part of the premises, we understand, is to be fitted up specially for Leitch's tailoring establishment which is now one of the most popular places for superior work in the county of Grey.

Duncan Village.

We well remember the time when this neighborhood was a "howling wilderness," so to speak. But things have changed since the Agricultural Editor was a school-boy, and now Duncan is a flourishing little country village, boasting of a good general store, a post-office, a blacksmith and carriage shop, and a grocery store. Duncan is on the town line between the fertile townships of Euphrasia and Collingwood, about six miles south of Heathcote. Amongst the many enterprising agriculturists in the neighborhood, we might mention Mr. Wm. Kerr. An old schoolfellow of ours, Mr. David Carnahan, is starting in blacksmithing there. Duncan is likely to become a smart little place in the near future.

Ordination Services, &c.

Watson, pastor of the Baptist church, Flesherton, will take place at 2 o'clock p.m. At 7 o'clock p.m. on the same day, there will be a teameeting and entertainment, for which an excellent programme has been prepared. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. J. P. McEwen, of Owen Sound, Rev. D. A. McGregor, of Stratford, Booken, of Mount Forest, Dunlap, of Durham, A. Grant, of London, and others. Admission to tea and entertainment, 25 cents. See bills.

Were they Burglars?

Mr. S. Damude's office, at the Flesherton tannery, was broken into by some persons on the night of the 24th ult. As nothing in the office was removed, and the safe unmolested, it is thought some drunken tramps had made an attempt to to effect an entrance in order to secure shelter from the keen, frosty atmosphere without. If not tramps such as described, might they not have been burglars, who were frightened by some late passer-by, or obliged to move off from some other cause? The question is a difficult one to answer, as, with the exception that it is known they wore overshoes, no clue has been obtained as to their identity.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.—Most diseases of the skin arise from bad blood and lack of cleanliness, except when caused by grubs or insects. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Pimples and all Humors of the blood are curable by Burdock Blood Bitters, which purifies the blood.

Clydesdale Stallion.

Messrs. Trimble & Pickell have just returned from purchasing the pure bred imported 4 year old Clydesdale stallion, "GLENSWILLY," registered in the British Stud Book 2826. We have seen his pedigree, which shows him to be a grandly bred horse, and he is said to be a beautiful type of this very popular and useful breed of horses, weighing over 1900 lbs., and costing $2300. We understand they have secured the horse for ten days on condition that they are able to secure the requisite number of subscribers. Their agreement, which we believe lacks some enterprising citizen and property owner, illustrates the great service to the country rendered by Messrs. Trimble & Pickell in the introduction of superior stock.

HEADACHE.—If you suffer from Headache you may be sure that your Stomach, Liver or Blood is at fault, and perhaps all three are combined in bad action. If so, the best remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which cures Headache by regulating the organic action generally.

Artemesia Agricultural Society.

The annual meeting of the Artemesia Agricultural Society was held in the Town Hall, Flesherton, on Thursday the 14th ult., for the purpose of receiving and disposing of the Auditors' report, election of officers, and other business. There was a very fair attendance of the members and others. The Auditors' report showed the Society to be in a very healthy condition financially, the total receipts from all sources during the past year being $292.64, disbursements $212.53, leaving a balance on hand of $30.11. This is a very encouraging state of things and speaks well for the officers and members of the Society. The officers elect for 1886 are as follows:—

R. Oliver, President.
D. McLean, Vice-Pres.
Directors,—Geo. Stewart, Jas. Brodie, James Stewart, Alex. Stewart, David Harrow, T. Conkey, Joseph Aussum, Donald McMillen, Archibald Currie.
