Death of E. B. F. Robinson.

Mr. E. B. F. Robinson, M. A., son of Dr. Robinson, Markham, died in that town on Saturday last, of typhoid fever, after a two weeks illness. Mr. Robinson has been blind since his fourteenth year, but in spite of the handicap was able to continue his studies and became an M. A. He was for many years editor of one of the Markham newspapers and latterly Government Librarian of the Library for the Blind.

The funeral took place on Monday, 9th, and was attended by the Markham, East Toronto and Stouffville Orange Lodges, Mr. Robinson having been a prominent Orangeman for some years.

A widow and one child are left to mourn him, as well as his parents.

Mrs. Robinson (nee Miss Maynard) taught school here several years ago and has the sympathy of all her many friends here in her sad bereavement.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to colds," says Mrs. Wm. H. Serig, No. 41, Fifth St., Wheeling, W. Va. "Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough, but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my lttle boy has been prevented many times from having the croupby the timely use of this syrup. As soon as he shows any signs of croup I give him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for three or four days, which prevents the attack." This Remedy is for sale by W. E. Richardson.

A Good Story.

A good story that will make you laugh is better for you than five dollars' worth of doctors medicine. The first of "The Old Home House" series of eleven complete stories begins in the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, this week. There will be one complete story each issue for the next three months, and that means many a good hearty laugh around the fireside during the winter evenings. A subscriber to that big weekly certainly gets value for his money. The paper only costs one dollar a year, and the amount of sound information given in a year's reading is marvellous. The stories alone could not be bought for twenty dollars. The agricultural columns of the paper are regarded as the best in America. The Family Herald and Weekly Star should not be missed in any Canadian home.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an admit. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

The only nourishment that bread affords is that which the flour contains.

Bread baking is merely putting flour in appetizing form.

Flour making is merely putting wheat in shape for bread making.

Royal Household Flour
