Makes Broiling Easy

It is much more convenient to do your broiling by lifting this Key Plate, than to lift the cover or use the broiler door. You have more room and get the meat directly over the coals.

Notice the Low Warming Closet, a special feature of this year's "Peerless Peninsular" Ranges.

Daylight Oven, Adjustable Damper, Removable Grate Bars, Thermometer in oven—are only a few of the conveniences you should ask about.

Step in at any time and go over the "Peerless Peninsular" Ranges. Glad to explain their improvements to you. 72

An Owen Sound Murderer

The man named Lafayette Dales, who was arrested in Nebraska over a week ago on a charge of murdering Volly Mann, had a long connection with Owen Sound. Dales accuses a woman of the name of Smith, with whom he was travelling, as being the perpetrator of the deed. The tragedy occurred east of North Platte, Nebraska, where the couple met Mann driving his prairie schooner across the country. Mann gave the couple a ride, and on the evening of the second day, while Mann was asleep, he was shot through the head.

The woman Smith told the police that Dales had done the deed, while on being arrested Dales declared that the woman had for two days urged him to commit the murder, in order that they might obtain Mann's horses. At the critical moment, however, his nerve had failed him, and the woman had taken the revolver out of his hands and shot the sleeping man.

Dales came here about twenty years ago and was known as one of the best stone cutters in the district. He was given to drink, however, and appeared frequently in the Police Court. Eventually he was accused of robbing a farmer of a watch, and on being liberated on bail amounting to $1,000, fled from the town. That was about eight years ago. His wife and two grown-up daughters, one of whom is married, reside here. Five years ago his wife received a C. O. D. parcel containing a note and a bundle of clothing. The note was to the effect that the clothing belonged to her husband, who had died and been buried in Youngstown, N. Y. Mrs. Dales had her doubts as to the truth of this statement, and since then has refused several offers of marriage, being always under the impression that her husband would turn up again. She and her daughters are highly respected here.

Toronto Daily Star Now in First Place.

An epoch in Ontario newspaper development has been recorded during the last year when The Toronto Daily Star jumped into first place in circulation, thus furnishing another climax to a record of growth that is quite unparalleled in Canadian journalism. It is only nine years since the present management assumed control. At that time the paper had a daily circulation of around 6,000. For the year 1908 it averaged well over 56,000 copies a day. That the growth is still going on, and going on rapidly, is shown by the fact that the increase of 1908 over 1907 was over 8,000 copies daily.

In its editorial policy the Star has gained a reputation for sanity and fairness, and while it has strong views it never berates those whose views are different.

When it comes to news-gathering, The Star can generally be depended upon to lead the way in enterprise. That it does not spare expense in serving its readers was illustrated many times during the year, a notable illustration being on the Olympic games, when it sent a member of its staff from Toronto to England to cover them specially by cable and letter for The Star.

The Star not only gets the best news, but it dresses it up so as to make its pages bright and attractive. It is a firm believer in the value of striking pictures.

These are some of the reasons why The Star is now supreme in its field.

One of the latest features of the paper has been a series of articles on combines, which has been attracting very wide attention. These articles are being quoted and commented on everywhere, and one subscriber wrote the other day to say that one of the articles alone was worth his whole year's subscription.

PILES get immediate relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment.

IF your baking goes wrong, investigate — find the cause. Look to your stove, your yeast, your baking methods.

If you succeed in pinning the trouble down to the flour—then take up the flour question in dead earnest.

Consider that flour, to be successful from a baking standpoint, must be fine to produce light bread or pastry, pure to make that bread or pastry wholesome, and rich in nutriment to make it nourishing.

Ogilvie's Royal Household has these three qualities in the greatest degree.

Ogilvie's Royal Household is milled by the most modern methods, and made only from Manitoba Hard Wheat which contains the highest percentage of nutriment.
