St. John's Church Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of St. John's United Church was held Thursday evening, Jan. 22. A splendid spirit prevailed throughout the meeting. Reports of the various organizations were heartily received. It was decided that no annual statement would be printed in booklet form, but that it be published as follows in The Advance. The givings of individuals will be listed and posted at the rear of the church.

The Session report showed that the membership is suffering from removals because of war. The total membership has changed very little, with an increase of two during the year. Eleven new members were received. The Session report which follows give the details.

It is gratifying to find that the local account is balanced with all bills paid, when there was raised, in addition $182 for the building fund. The Woman's Association commences the year with a substantial balance. They are looking forward to making some needed improvements in the church. The C.G.I.T. and Trail Ranger groups, whose reports were presented by Genevieve Milne and Keith Goessel, respectively, do not appear below. Each had a good year. There are 24 members in the former and 12 in the latter. The program carried on by these teen-aged groups is exerting a fine influence on their character. Another children's group that is doing good work is the Mission Band.

During the course of the meeting appreciation was expressed for the services given by: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Duncan, in keeping the Treasurer's books so efficiently; Mrs. R. G. Holland, treasurer of the Missionary and Maintenance committee; Mrs. E. Blackburn, organist and choir leader; Mr. R. Park, caretaker. The meeting closed with Mr. G. H. Cairns voicing the appreciation for, and confidence in, the work being done by the minister, Rev. G. Keith McMillan, and his wife. Mr. McMillan stated in reply that he and Mrs. McMillan were very happy in their work in Flesherton.
