
Clear telephone lines for
ALL-OUT PRODUCTION

Your telephone is part of a vast interlocking system now carrying an abnormal wartime load. Don't let needless delays hold up messages on which production efficiency may depend.

OTHER "WARTIME TELEPHONE TACTICS"

1. BE SURE you have the right number . . . consult the directory.
2. SPEAK distinctly, directly into the mouthpiece.
3. ANSWER promptly when the bell rings.
4. BE BRIEF. Clear your line for the next call.

These things may look trifling, but on 6,500,000 daily telephone calls, they are very important.

Manager: "Very much, if you can get the undertaker to arrange it."

Records show that there is more money in the banks of Canada today than there was when the first Victory Loan was sold. Industries are busy everywhere and money in volume is in circulation. That kind of information has a good, solid ring.

The Late John Priestley

Death came suddenly to Mr. John Priestley of Maxwell on Saturday evening, March 7th, and his passing came as a great shock to his many friends throughout the district. He was 44 years of age. He had been ailing for a couple of years, but had recently been in much better health. His death, due to a heart attack, occurred at his home in Maxwell, shortly after he had returned home from visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Priestley, who reside a mile east of Maxwell. The late Mr. Priestley had been a resident of Dundalk for 12 years, and last fall moved to a farm he had purchased at Maxwell.

The late Mr. Priestley was united in marriage 14 years ago to Sadie McLeod, who now survives to mourn his passing. He also leaves, besides his aged parents, three brothers: Allan of Fort William, Robert of Toronto, and George of Maxwell, and by three sisters, Lillian (Mrs. Louis Kerton) and Pearl (Mrs. Geo. Long) both of Maxwell, and Annie (Mrs. Chester Cameron) of Owen Sound.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. M. Caldwell of Dundalk. Interment was made in Maxwell cemetery.

Blessed is the man who can get money without letting money get him.

Mr. Ted McTavish of the Galt Aircraft School was home over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Best of Toronto spent the week end at their parental homes.

Pte. Edgar Doupe of the R.C.E., Toronto spent the week end at his home in town.

Pte. Ben Leavell of Camp Borden was the guest of Jack Adams over the week end and called on his old friends in town.

Mr. Gordon Long is showing splendid improvement recently. He suffered a stroke some weeks ago and has been bedfast since.

Mrs. Bruce McDonald returned to Toronto last week, after spending the past two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thistlethwaite.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Paton of Toronto spent the first of the week with their parents, Mrs. O. W. Paton and Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald.

Mr. Geo. Allen, who has been ill for the past two months, part of the time in hospital, has so far recovered that he was able to be home over the week end.

We were sorry to know that Mrs. H. Down suffered a heart attack at the home of her son, Bob, at Markdale, but we are pleased that she is improving nicely.

The storm this week has played havoc with the schedule of the rural routes and very few budgets of correspondence reached The Advance office on Tuesday, hence were not available for this issue.

Mrs. Firman Irish held a successful sale of household effects on Saturday afternoon, with W. Kaitting wielding the hammer. Thursday last Mr. Gordon Long also held a successful sale with Jack McAlister as auctioneer.

Miss Annie Howard had the misfortune to fall in the cellar of her home in Toronto and fracture her shoulder. She was in hospital for a week but has returned to her home. It is likely that it will be the end of this month before the cast will be removed.

Mrs. S. Gilbert Passes

Sarah Ann White, wife of the late Samuel Gilbert of Vandeleur, passed away Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Smith, 7th line north of St. Vincent. She was in her 73rd year.

The late Mrs. Gilbert had not been enjoying good health for some time and her passing was not unexpected. She was born at Vandeleur and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White. Some 56 years ago she was united in marriage to the late Samuel Gilbert, who passed away six years ago. Since that time Mrs. Gilbert had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Amos Smith.

For many years Mrs. Gilbert was president of the Vandeleur Women's Institute. She was an active knitter and took her full share in the war effort up until the time of her passing. She was a member of the United Church. Left to mourn her passing are two daughter, Mrs. Eva Garner of Toronto and Mrs. Amos Smith, and a half-brother, Mr. Alex. Carson of Priceville.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon with service at the Ferguson Funeral Home. Rev. C. D. Farquharson conducted the service. Interment was made in Lakeview Cemetery chapel, Meaford.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wm. McLean, Frank Ellis, Samuel McKay, Robert Kearney, Bert Kearney and E. N. Arthur.

The Late Mrs. Coleman

Mrs. Thomas Coleman, resident of Owen Sound for many years, passed away Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Collinson, Ceylon. About a year and a half ago Mrs. Coleman went to reside with her daughter, due to the infirmaties of age. Death was due to heart trouble.

The deceased's maiden name was Hannah M. Sargeant, and she was born at Inglis Falls 83 years ago, daughter of Jesse Sergeant and his wife, Elizabeth Fraser. Her husband predeceased her in 1902 and she is mourned by two daughters and two sons, namely: Mrs. Collinson of Ceylon, Mrs. David Craig of Lebret, Sask., Russell of London, Ont., and David of Wheatley, Ont. Two sisters and four brothers also survive: Mrs. W. C. Barber of Derby, Mrs. D. D. Robinson of Allenford, Henry, William, George and Dan Sargeant all of Derby.

Throughout her long residence in Owen Sound, the late Mrs. Coleman was a devoted member of St. George's Church. She was an indefatigable worker, lending expert assistance in all the social functions, suppers and similar events in connection with the Parish for as long as her strength permitted.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, March 10th, with service at the Kyle Funeral Chapel at 2.30 p.m. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery.

Both Heavy Bomber and Fighter — The British Four-Engined "Halifax" Monoplane

The Handley Page Halifax bomber which, with the Stirling and other heavy types, forms the spearhead of the sustained British R.A.F. offensive on Germany, has been engaged in many heavy raids, some on Berlin, when the devastating effect of its huge bomb-load has been brought home forcibly to the enemy. An all-metal midwing monoplane, its wing span is 99 feet, length 70 feet, and height 22 feet. Powered with four Rolls-Royce Merlin 12-cylinder liquid cooled engines, it has three-bladed airscrews and carries heavy defensive armamnt.

The bomb load in position ready for lifting. The size of the "Halifax" can be gauged from the landing wheel.
