EDITOR MAKES PROPHECY

The editor of Port Elgin Times, after a recent visit to Ottawa, tells there is a well founded rumor going the rounds in Ottawa that after a cooling off period Mr. Meighen will again seek to obtain a seat in Parliament, and that Hon. Earl Rowe will step aside to give him a second chance. If this happens the Port Elgin paper thinks it would not be surprising to find Agnes Macphail running on the C.C.F. ticket against Mr. Meighen, and the the Times predicts should this prove to be a fact, Miss Macphail will soon be back in the halls of parliament again, where she served her riding well for many years.—Exchange.

Heavy Rains Filled Rivers

Heavy rains Monday afternoon and night swelled the rivers in this district to overflowing and in many places the water on low lying land flooded the highways to a considerable depth. The storm was accompanied by thunder and lightning. The Feversham mail was unable to get through on Tuesday, due to deep water over the road in front of the farm of Mr. M. Gould, one mile south of Feversham. This Wednesday the water had not receded to any extent and Mr. Laurie Sewell, the mail carrier, toted the mail bags around the little lake and Jim Kirkpatrick, Kimberley carrier, met him and brought the mail through to Flesherton. Two days' mail in one. The return mail for the Osprey district was conveyed in the same manner. Tuesday evening snow again fell with colder weather and the high water retreated. Water flowed over the Proton sideroad, just east of Proton, but there was no amount of damage done. Other places the roadway was washed out.

Preparations Continue For Plebiscite Vote

Preparations for holding the manpower plebiscite April 27th, are well under way and supplies now are being forwarded to returning officers in the more distant constituencies, and all officers will be supplied by the early part of next week.

Appointment of enumerators will be made shortly after instructions are received, it is expected, and the enumerators will commence their canvass April 13th and be required to complete it by April 18. In urban district, voters will be advised on the location of their polling station on the enumeration notice left with them. Rural voters will be informed verbally by the enumerators. These will likely follow the usual voting places in each polling sub-division. The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Returning officers will be required to make a preliminary compilation of votes and provide the press with a bulletin of the voting. The votes of members of the active service forces will be cast between April 16th and 25th.

They expect to have a run of about eight months. The logs are being trucked in faster than they can be sawn. Little—Magee

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, March 14th, at two o'clock p.m. at the United Church Parsonage, Maxwell, when Doris Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee, Eugenia, became the bride of Pte. Joseph Little, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Little of Toronto. Rev. Dr. Geo. L Mercer officiated.

The bride wore a becoming street-length dress of Sunni blue rayon jersey, with navy accessories and was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Magee, who wore beige crepe with tan accessories. Both carried Sweetheart roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Lloyd Little.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, when the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The bride's three storied cake centred the table and the dining room was prettily decorated with a white wedding bell and pink and white streamers. The bride and groom were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts.

Need Different System

(Creemore Star)

One of the disadvantages of the highway snow plows is that they create a trough or channel and when the weather turns mild this trough holds the water. A local patrol man with a shovel could soon cut channels and release this water, but when no one on the spot has any authority it is just too bad for the motorists. The County Road Commission could very well look to the system so successful on the railroads and adopt a similar setup. As soon as flood conditions are in evidence on the railroad, the track men patrol their beat and, as the old saying goes, "a stitch in time saves nine." A few minutes with a shovel at the right time can prevent much damage and at the same time keep the roads reasonably passable instead of hazardous.

COAL DEPOSITS IN NORTH

W. G. Nixon, M.P.P. for Temiskaming, states that the Ontario Government and the T. & N.O. Ry. are conducting experiments aimed at the development of 100,000,000 tons of lignite deposits on the James Bay plateau, 125 miles north of Cochrane. This formation, which is the only commercial coal deposit in Ontario, has yielded 12,000,000 tons already, he said, and results have been encouraging. Mr. Nixon pointed out that similar deposits in Saskatchewan have been exploited successfully after dehydrating, which is necessary before the lignite can be used as fuel. Could such a source of fuel be successfully developed, it would be of immense value to Ontario and would, to a considerable extent, reduce the immense amount of fuel which we have to buy from the United States at ever-increasing prices. — Barrie Examiner.

Flew Plane Over His Old Home

(By 8th Line, Osprey, Reporter)

Considerable excitement prevailed in our midst on Wednesday, March 4th, when in the quiet of the beautiful morning a low flying plane was heard and seen hovering near, and we greeted as best we could L.A.C. Arthur Lawler, stationed at Hagersville, who is now realizing his boyhood ambition to become an aviator. Although airplanes go over very often, it gave us all a particular thrill when we knew it was one of our home boys who was guiding the machine so gracefully and encircling his old home three times. Arthur is to receive his wings in the near future, and his friends here wish him success and safety.

ONE-PANT SUITS DO NOT SAVE CLOTH

I see by one of the metropolitan public prints that there is a possibility—or probability—that no longer will a man be able to buy an extra pair of pants with a suit. Doubtless this idea is due to a belief that such action would save cloth, but I opine it will merely WASTE cloth. Men who buy an extra pair of pants with a suit do so because they have found from experience that they wear out two pairs of pants for every one coat and vest. If such customers are restricted to buying one-pant suits, it will mean that the net result will be that they will use just the same number of trousers as heretofore, but TWICE as many coats and vests—Bracebridge Gazette.

A production limit has already been placed on copper base silver plate and now the cheaper silver-plated articles are going off the market, owing to restrictions on tin.
