Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Brights or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

Colds on the Chest

Ask your doctor the medical name for a cold on the chest. He will say, "Bronchitis." Ask him if it is ever serious. Lastly, ask him if he prescribes Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this disease. Keep in close touch with your family physician.

Ayer's — We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor

When you tell your doctor about the bad taste in your mouth, loss of appetite for breakfast, and frequent headaches, and when he sees your coated tongue, he will say, "You are bilious." Ayer's Pills work well in such cases.

Where Red Deer Run

Two weeks more on a hardwood stool,
Fingering a foolish pen,
Doing the work of a drudging fool
Over and over again;
Three weeks more and then for the wild
With a friend, a dog, and a gun,
Where Nature opens her arms for her [child,
And the red deer run.

Off to the woods to take my stand
In the run-ways of the deer,
My good old rifle poised in my hand,
As I strain my ears to hear;
Nothing perhaps but the wind in the trees
Moaning for loss of the sun,
Or perhaps the bay of a hound on the [breeze
When red deer run.

Up goes your rifle as swift you drop down,
Branches crackle like hail;
Bang!—at a sudden streak of brown,
Nothing but legs and tail.
Perhaps you've got him--and maybe not--
Still you've had your fun;
There's more than lies in a lucky shot
Where red deer run.

Get your deer or miss your deer,
Not such a lot it means;
Still the old camp-fire gives its cheer,
Still do the gods send beans.
Sleep brings balm to your cedar bed,
Whether you've lost or won,
And fir-trees croon above your head
Where red deer run.

Only two weeks from now till then,
Fourteen days er so;
Off to the good brown woods again
With a dog and a man I know.
There to live as God meant we should,
Far from debtor and dun,
Where things all look and smell and taste [good
And red deer run.

The Board of Trustees of the General and Marine Hospital has decided to build an addition to their institution. The annex will cost between $12,000 and $15,000, and will double the accommodation. Several thousand dollars will also be spent in making the old building modern in its equipment.

The new government building, costing $80,000, which has been in the course of erection for the past two years, is at last about completed. It will be some weeks yet before the post office will be installed, as the fittings have not yet been put in place.

The annual report of the county gaol for the year ending September 30th, is complete. On Oct. 1st, 1908, 17 prisoners, all males, were in gaol, while on Oct. 1st, 1909, there were 10 males and one female prisoner, two of whom are of unsound mind, and one of whom is awaiting trial. During the year just ended 116 males and 7 females were committed to gaol, while during the previous year 104 males and 8 females were incarcerated. Of those within the walls during the past year 3 were under sixteen years of age, 68 males and 7 females appeared for the first time, while twenty males were in for the second time, 8 paid their third visit, while 20 had been oftener still. Nine males and 3 females were of unsound mind; 35 males and 1 female were acquitted on trial, and discharged; 5 males were discharged on suspended sentence; 1 female is awaiting trial, and 67 men and 2 women were sentenced to serve time. Of those sentenced 10 males went to Central Prison, one to the penitentiary, 2 to the reformatory, and 54 males and 2 females completed their time. 21 prisoners served terms under thirty days, while the other sentences ranged to three years in the pen. The government paid for the maintenance of 62 prisoners, who served 2149 days, while the municipalities paid for the support of 55 prisoners, who served 3635 days. As to the nationalities, 71 males and 4 females were Canadian, 21 males were English, 6 males and 1 female were Irish, 6 males were Scotch, 6 males and 1 female from United States, while 6 males and 1 female were natives of other countries. As to religious belief, 16 were Roman Catholic, 35 were Church of England, 25 were Presbyterian, 18 were Methodists, and 27 claimed other denominations. Thirty-four males and 5 females were married, 22 males and 1 female were illiterate, 28 males and 6 females claimed to be temperate, 58 males and 1 female were intemperate. Of those serving sentences 5 were committed for arson, 8 for assault, 3 for abduction, 1 for breach of by-law, 1 for burglary, 1 for contempt of court, 15 for being drunk and disorderly, 23 for vagrancy, 34 for larcency, and 3 each for selling liquor without license, perjury and stealing animals. Laborers lead in occupation, 72 being of that class, farmers come next with 11 to their discredit, sailors and fisherman 6, merchants 3. The greatest number of prisoners confined at one time was 22 males and 1 female, and the lowest was 7 males and 1 female. Those committed to hard labour sawed wood and did general work around the gaol. The officers salaries totalled $1900, and the cost per prisoner per day for rations was a fraction under 13c. This is Governor Miller's forty-seventh annual report.

A demand has been made by the forty teachers of the town public schools for an increase in salaries, and they ask for an immediate decision, so that if the request is not granted those who desire may make a change before the first of next year.

Magistrate Creasor was occupied all day Saturday with the case of John Johns, assistant foreman at the C.P.R. steamship freight sheds, charged with theft, and two employees, George Christie and Jas. Ferris, also on a similar charge. All pleaded not guilty. Johns is a member of one of the oldest and most highly respected families of the town, and the interest in his case is particularly keen. Among the articles alleged to have been stolen are 14 cards of lace, valued at several hundred dollars, each card containing 33 yards; 18 pairs of ladies' kid gloves, 7 pairs of shoes, besides a variety of other articles such as shirts, shaving soap, chocolate, Spanish onions. The evidence showed that goods said to be missing had been found in Johns' house. It is alleged that thefts have been going on all summer at the C.P.R. The result of the hearing was that the case was adjourned for one week, as several important witnesses for the prosecution are expected from the west, men to whom the goods were supposed to have been consigned.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

An Incident That Seemed to Explain Joshua's Miracle.

There was an incident in our life at Brandy, connected with Gettysburg, which is worth relating. Batchelder, whose map of the battlefield of Gettysbury is authority and whom we had fallen in with while we were there, asked to join our mess at Brandy when he came to the army to verify the positions of the various commands. One night we had just sat down to dinner when he entered our big hospital tent, quite tired.

"Well," he announced after taking his place at the table, "I have been down in the Second corps today, and I believe I have discovered how Joshua made the sun stand still. I first went to — regiment and had the officers mark on the map the hour of their position at a certain point. Then I went to — regiment in the same brigade. They declared positively it was one or two hours earlier or later than that given by the other. So it went on, no two regiments or brigades agreeing, and if I hinted that some of them must certainly be mistaken they would set me down by saying with severe dignity, 'We were there, Batchelder, and we ought to know, I guess,' and I made up my mind that it would take a day of at least twenty hours instead of thirteen at Gettysburg to satisfy their accounts. So when Joshua's captains got around him after the fight and they began to talk it over the only way under the heavens that he could ever harmonize their statements was to make the sun stand still and give them all a chance."

Any one who has ever tried to establish the exact position or hour when anything took place in an engagement will confirm Batchelder's experience and possibly, if not too orthodox, accept his explanation of Joshua's feat. —Morris Schaff in Atlantic.

A MONSTER SKULL.

One That Was Said to Be Bigger Than a Bushel Basket.

One of the most remarkable finds of gigantic human remains of which we have any record was that said to have been made at Palermo, Sicily, in the year 1516, when an entire skeleton of unheard of proportions was unearthed by some marble quarry men. These mammoth remains measured exactly thirty-four feet from head to foot and nine feet seven inches from point to point of the shoulders.

A stone ax buried with this old time giant may still be seen at Palermo in section "Z" of the St. Isorent museum. It is made of a bluish looking, fine grained bowlder and appears to be about two feet eight inches long by one foot broad and nine inches through in the thickest place. A musty, rusty looking tag attached to the relic informs the visitor that it weighs fifty-two pounds, but the general verdict is that it could not weigh over thirty or thirty-five pounds.

The skeleton was burned by a mob in the year 1662 during the prevalence of the black death at Palermo, the ignorant, superstitious people believing that it was connected in some mysterious way with the death dealing distemper. The skull of this giant, according to Abbe Ferregus, "was largely excessive of the baskets sayd to hold the bushel, being fitted above and belowe withe teeth to the number of sixty-foure, the each of which would have weighed two ounces."

Cavalier Seroy claimed to have found a skull on Tenerife that had sixty teeth.

More Bread to the Barrel

That extra cost per barrel which you pay for

Ogilvie's Royal Household

doesn't go into anybody's pocket.

It covers the cost of inspecting the entire wheat crop of the country, and selecting the choicest grain.

It pays, for cleanliness, for purity and for scientific flour-making.

A barrel of Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour goes farther than a barrel of any other flour. It makes more bread and better bread.

You are not really spending that extra amount—you are investing it.

Go to your grocer and say "Royal Household." 22
