When You Take Cold

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

Ayer's — We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor

When the bowels are constipated, poisonous substances are absorbed into the blood instead of being daily removed from the body as nature intended. Knowing this danger, doctors always inquire about the condition of the bowels. Ayer's Pills.

Lost a Breakfast.

When in London early in his career Paul Du Chaillu, the explorer, received an invitation to breakfast signed "S. Oxon." On going to the address given he found it was a boot shop in Pall Mall and came away, deeming it, as he said, an impertinence that a bootmaker whom he did not know should invite him to breakfast. He afterward learned that the invitation was from the famous Bishop Wilberforce of Oxford, whose London lodgings were over the boot shop. The prelate met him later and was greatly amused when the explorer told him of his mistake.

Dundalk

Louis Hale has sold out his dray and express business and outfit to Wm. Cudmore, who returns from Saskatchewan. It is Mr. Hale's intention to move to Toronto and Mr. Cudmore will then move his family into the vacated house on Victoria Ave. The new proprietor took possession of the dray business on Monday.

Death came suddenly to William Merklinger, of the 5th con., Proton, on Tuesday morning. He was in Dundalk on Sunday for medical treatment for diabetes. The disease was farther advanced than he thought, and the end came unexpectedly. The deceased, who was about 30 years of age and unmarried, was well thought of in this district.

A writ was issued last week upon Mr. Chas Maxwell, proprietor of the Queen's hotel, through G. M. Vance, K. C., of Shelburne, at the instance of a man named McKendry, of Maple Valley, who claims damages for assault, claiming to be seriously injured. It appears he imbibed too freely, and the assault is said to have taken place when he was being ejected from the hotel some weeks ago.

Hatherton

MARRIED—At the Methodist parsonage, Maxwell, on Jan. 26th, by the Rev. A. P. Stanley, Mr. James Winters to Mrs. Jessie Arnott, both of Hatherton. The bride and gsoom, who are two of our most popular young people, are the recipients of best wishes and congratulations of a host of friends and acquaintances for a long and happy married life.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. David Ring, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Fenwick are enjoying a pleasant visit from their son, Will., of Weyburn.

Mr. J. T. Winters sold one of his handsome horses for a good figure.

Emily Scilley is on the sick list. Hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

A number from here attended the social evening of Maxwell Epworth League in honor of Wareham League, who visited them. An excellent program was given by the visiting League. The topic was taken by Mr. W. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Down visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Hodgson, last week, who is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hall, of Whitfield. We are pleased to know she is improving, though slowly.

Miss Sadie Scilley returned home from Markdale last week.

Mr. H. Irwin spent Sunday in our burg.

Mr. Wess Monahan, of the west, is renewing acquaintances in this vicinity.

Mr. McCulloch, of the west, spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. C. Winters.

LIFE ON A SUBMARINE.

Is Not So Unpleasant as One Might Imagine—The Men Like It.

The average person would not be envious of the men on a submarine. However, life there is not as unpleasant or dangerous as one might imagine, but it is entirely different from that led aboard other types of ships. The crew, usually consisting of two officers and 14 men, is selected from volunteers after a most rigid medical examination. Service rarely extends beyond a period of two years and real work on a submarine is limited to about three weeks in the summer and one in the winter. During the remainder of the time the men live on a "parent" ship or on shore. The boat is, however, put through the various evolutions once every week. Owing to the character of the men selected discipline is always perfect.

Life on board a submarine is essentially "in common." The way men and many objects are crammed together in a narrow space is almost miraculous. The first impression on entering is one of heat, the air being rather close and heavy, but the men soon become accustomed to it. Standing room space is about six and one-half feet and towards both ends the boat tapers away almost to a point. There are no portholes. The hatchway in the conning tower is the only aperture. Under water electric light is used. There are ventilators, but when the boat dives they are shut off with a cap. Cooking is done in an electric oven and no foods which have a strong or disagreeable smell are used. Of course, smoking is allowed only when on the surface and then on the bridge.

There is scarcely any noise in a submarine when submerged. The greatest depth the boat descends does not exceed 30 feet. At that depth her speed is about eight knots. The air is quite "breathable" for four hours, but in case of emergency the crew can remain closed in for 70 hours without danger. The men love the life. With the officers they are as one family, sharing everything equally, including the dangers, which are not much to speak of, provided every one does his duty. When the weather is fair there is very little rolling. In rough weather the men escape knocking about by holding on to "steadying lines."

Mother's Experience.

Fond Mother—Now, look here, George! I want you to break off with that girl. She is very pretty, and all that, but I know her too well too want you to risk your life and happiness by marrying her. Why, she knows no more about housekeeping than I do about Greek—not a bit!

George—Perhaps not, but she can learn.

Mother—After marriage is rather late for that, George.

George—But you said yourself that you did not know a thing about housekeeping until after you were married.

Mother—Very true, George, and your poor father died of dyspepsia twenty years ago.

Mr. Sandy McLean of Rock Mills visited Mr. M. Leitch at the Temperance house last week.

The people of Feversham were very sorry that anything should be said reflecting on the conduct of our young men at the rink, as all speak very highly of the way in which it is conducted.

Merchants Tired of Giving Up.

What has become a curse, to put it mildly, to the merchants in every town and village—the giving of money by canvas or subscription—has been taken hold of by the Stratford merchants, and at a meeting they passed the following resolutions:—

1.—Not to buy tickets for concerts, excursions or games of any kind in our places of business.

2.—Not to advertise on programmes, hotel blotters, clocks, writing desks, or any other promiscuous advertising schemes.

3.—To discontinue the giving of prizes or subscriptions to picnics, societies, etc., unless recommended by the executive.

The Stratford papers, in referring to this move on the part of the merchants, say this step is the result of the manner in which merchants and their clerks have been pestered in years past by people representing schemes of all kinds, the important part of each one of which is that the merchant is to pay over money in varying amounts.

"Of Interest to Women" is the well-deserved heading of a special page in the Toronto Daily Star. It is one of two and sometimes three pages devoted particularly to women's tastes and is independent of the "Social and Personal" and "Madge Merton's" pages, for years popular features of the Star.

"Of Interest to Women" includes scores of little hints on health and beauty; the newest fashions in dress and house furnishings; talks on ethical matters of particular interest to women; points of etiquette; suggestions for home entertainment; recipes; daily menus; advice and suggestions on all the matters that lie close to a woman's heart. They will help solve household problems, and better still, stimulate and interest the mind.

On the Woman's page, and throughout the paper, current topics are treated in a bright, newsy way that appeals to the wide-awake woman. You'd thoroughly enjoy the
