Date.

Isaac Sprung married Elizabeth Ann Courtemanch in May 1861. Both of these families lived in Laxton Twp. near Norland.

They moved to a farm on what was then called the Monck Road about 1 to 1.5 miles east of Norland in Somerville Twp. Isaac built a 2 story house that still stands – home of Hilda Chynoweth & family.

The Sprung's first child was born 6 December 1864 and named Frances Alberta Sprung. Frances Alberta soon grew up and evidently liked men as a teenager! She had 2 children out-of-wedlock. One died young. The other, a boy, was raised by her parents. His name was Cuthbert Sprung.

Frances Alberta left home and wound up in Ragged Rapids – a boom-town lumbering settlement in Dalton Twp. near Victoria Falls on the Black River – about 1890.

There, she met and married (?) John Cooper. No marriage certificate has ever been found. She does not appear on the 1891 census. She gave birth to Eliza Ann, 8 May 1891. John Cooper was listed at home with his parents!

Nevertheless, Frances A. lived with John Cooper for the rest of their lives and had 7 children.
