Messrs. Joseph H. and Herbert Strain were serenaded by the Flesherton Band on Monday evening last, on the eve of their departure for Uncle Sam's domains. The Band was handsomely treatted. The Strain brothers left for the U. S. on Tuesday morning, having enjoyed their visit to their native land very much.

One of our village boys got into some pretty hot water last Tuesday by calling a well-known gentleman "wee-wee." As the boy was hotly chased some two or three blocks on Durham street by the indignant gentleman, with threats of "coort" ringing in his ears, it is to be inferred that the fun was not altogether one-sided.

Quite a number went to Bell's lake on Friday last. The occasion was a Masonic picnic. All enjoyed sailing on the lake on board Moffatt's tidy little steam yacht; but the good-looking young man from Flesherton, who manifested a preference for row-boats, thinks lake water is rather cold and unpleasant at times. We agree with him, for we've tried bathing with our clothes on ourself!

What makes us hopping mad is to hear any person running down the town or village they live in. We have no use for such people; neither has the place, which would thrive much better if this class of belittlers and grumblers were transported to Halifax or Botany Bay, or somewhere else. If a man doesn't like his village or town, why in thunder doesn't he get out of it on the double quick.

The Grey Review conveniently forgets to answer the question we asked it the week before last. This is not polite in our contemporary, seeing that we did not fail to respond promptly when it was the questioner. But the trouble is, that the less the Review has to say about the hanging of Riel the better it will be for the Reform M. P., Dr. Landerkin. Hence the Review wisely closes its mouth and is mum.

The Canadian Pacific Railway, now that their train service to the Pacific Coast is fully established, in order to encourage travel to British Columbia and give their many well wishers an opportunity of seeing the country and their line, have made a big reduction in rates. Second Class passage is offered to Vancouver or Victoria, from any point on their line in Ontario and Quebec, for $50; First-Class for $75, and First-Class return tourist tickets, good to stop over at any point of interest on the route, for $110. Passengers have the option of going by their Lake Route or Rail Route. Return tourists, going by one route and returning the other.

The happy couple immediately took train for the South.

A MODEL GARDEN.

The Agricultural Editor Attends a Garden Party at Mr. Beecroft's.

Saturday evening last the agricultural editor of the ADVANCE, his wife, and Mrs. Wm. Petch, might have been seen strolling leisurely along on the Collingwood gravel road. It might also have been observed, that quite a number of other citizens of this town were wending their way in the same direction. Enquiry would have elicited the fact, that a party, composed chiefly of young people, had been invited out there to partake of the hospitality of our esteemed friends and citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Beecroft and family, and enjoy themselves generally—examining the magnificent and very extensive collection of plants and flowers, in the well cultivated and tastefully laid out grounds, promenading, playing all manner of harmless games, and in many other ways passing an evening long to be remembered.

The plants and flowers of "Flesherton Greenhouse" enjoy a wide and well deserved reputation; their adaptation to the oftimes vigorous climate in these elevated regions are well known. Here one can form a pretty intelligent opinion as to the amount of labor and care which must necessarily be bestowed upon the plants, &c., in order to bring them to that high state of perfection which will ensure a steady and increasing demand in the market.

It may here be remarked that there is a fine large "patch" of tame raspberries adjoining the grounds, and that the A. E., with remarkable perristence, stuck to this part of the premises. The berries were good.

We had a short time at our disposal before it grew quite dark, and accordingly our hostess kindly showed us through the heavily laden orchard and the vegetable garden, everything evincing cultivation in the highest degree.

Just at dark a few drops of rain fell, which had the effect of sending all the young people helter skelter into the house where the rest of the evening was spent in a very agreeable manner.

Eugenia vs. Flesherton.

More than usual interest centered in the match of base ball between the Eugenia and Flesherton teams last Monday afternoon. The game was played on the grounds of the former, Mr. Jas. G. Russell umpiring in his usual firm, decisive and excellent manner; and en passant, an umpire's lot is not a pleasant one. There was a goodly number of spectators from Flesherton, Eugenia and neighborhood. The game was conducted throughout, on the part of the players, in a friendly spirit. But when will the spectators at all these amateur games learn to preserve a decorous silence respecting decisions of the umpire, or the good or bad playing of members of respective teams?

We never saw a game played in a more friendly and neighborly manner, and we point with pride to the fact, that the Eugenia boys carry the palm of victory or sustain a defeat in an equally quiet and gentlemanly a manner. Our Flesherton team also showed, that while, for the time, victory crowned their efforts, they had met "foemen well worthy their steel." At the close of the ninth innings for the home team, and the eighth for the visiting team, the score stood, Flesherton 48, Eugenia 24. Two matches have now been played between these teams—the first being won by Eugenia by a majority of 21 runs, and the last by Flesherton by a majority of 24 runs; so that neither team, thus far, have room for boasting, being very fairly matched.

It is needless to particularize as to the many excellent catches and good play made by members of both teams on the present occasion, as we had not space to to do so when the first match was played. But in all future matches, we shall give each player due credit by publishing full scores, &c.

Mr. Tweed pitched for the Eugenias and Mr. Williams backstopped; while Mr. Will Clark pitched for Flesherton and Mr. Will Vokes backstopped.

We could not close this brief account of the match without referring specially to the hospitality and urbanity which characterized Mr. and Mrs. McAlear's treatment of all visitors to the popular and well conducted Eugenia House. The supper at this famous hostlery, to which the visiting team were treated by the genial Eugenias, was a grand one.

MARKDALE vs. FLESHERTON.

A Game which was not Played, and the Reason Why.

The game of lacrosse between the junior teams of Markdale and Flesherton, announced by posters to take place on the grounds here last Tuesday afternoon, didn't come off. Although our boys were prepared to meet them in good shape, and had dinner ordered for the crowd at the hotel here, Markdale failed to put in an appearance, sending the following letter by way of explanation:—

MARKDALE, July 27.

DEAR SIR,—We have decided not to play your club at all, after the names you called us and the mean way you treated us through the paper, which were all lies, which we can prove and back also. So you needn't expect us down.

MARKDALE LACROSSE CLUB.

After arranging the match, getting posters printed and circulated, and otherwise preparing to receive the Markdale club in a much more civil and courteous manner than our juniors were treated in Markdale on the 12th, this is the answer—an insolent letter, written on the very afternoon upon which the game was to have been played, and not received until between five and six o'clock in the evening. If the juniors were offended because of the remarks in the ADVANCE, why did they not raise their objections in time to prevent our boys losing a whole afternoon and putting them to other expense and trouble? The whole thing looks shady and disreputable on the face of it, and is in perfect keeping with the past actions of the Markdale Junior "Lacrosse Club," who allowed some of the members of the Flesherton team to get their own dinners and pay for them on the 12th of July, and otherwise treated them as never club—lacrosse or base ball—was treated in Flesherton. At that time we advised our boys to have nothing further to do with the Markdale club; we knew they would be shabby enough to repeat the affair of the 12th, and we have not been mistaken. We now advise our boys to give the Markdale sharpers a wide berth and play with young gentlemen only in future.

The Re-opening of Church at Inistioge.

This pioneer Methodist church has been renovated at a cost of between $300 and $400, and was re-opened last Sabbath. The Rev. G. Cornish, Chairman of the Markdale District, officiating morning and evening, and Rev. W. Ayers in the afternoon.

A tea in connection was held on Monday evening, when a large and select audience was present to take of the provisions so sumptuously supplied by the ladies of the congregation. Then followed one of the most interesting meetings ever held in this section of country. There were two ministers of the Church of England, one Presbyterian, three Methodist, besides Messrs. Brown, the jeweller, Markdale, Richardson, the merchant at Flesherton, and Christoe, the doctor, of the same place, as chairman, and not least was the Dundalk choir; all of whom seemed in the spirit of the enterprise, and eloquent speeches and splendid singing were the result. It was indeed a rare treat to hear the unity of sentiment upon the Christian power of the Sabbath and churches, from so diversified sources. Great good must result from such godly men. The proceeds were somewhere near $200.

Phœbe Takes Exercise.

The screams of Phœbe Boyles late one evening recently startled some of the neighbors from their slumbers. Enquiry elicited the fact that Phœbe was exercising her lungs in order to scare off certain imaginary boys, whom she thought were going to do her bodily harm. The whole thing existed only in Phœbe's distorted imagination. Some place ought to be provided for these people—Phœbe and Norman, we mean—as they are rapidly becoming an intolerable nuisance.

Magistrates' Court.

Three cases came before Squire Armstrong yesterday—all from the Township of Osprey. In two of them Francis and Isaiah Winters were the complainants, and Mrs. Pressick the defendant. One for injury to property, in which defendant Pressick was fined $2 and costs; the other, for assault and battery of Isaiah Winters, was postponed until 7th August at 10 a.m. The third case was brought by John Graham, sr., against John Graham, jr.—step son of complainant—not decided at time of writing. Mr. Lamon, of Dundalk, appeared for defendant in this case, which arose through some difficulty in connection with the use of a lane dividing the premises of the parties in the suit.

For Sale or to Let.

Attention is directed to the fact, that Mr. Robt. Clark offers his blacksmith shop, stable and premises on Collingwood street, Flesherton, for sale or to let on reasonable terms.

A GROWING EVIL.—Scrofula, or king's evil, as an enlargement of the glands of the neck is termed, may be called a growing evil in more than one sense. Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, was cured of enlarged glands of the neck and sore throat by the internal and external use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil.
