Wesley Church.

Tenders are called for in our advertising columns to-day for painting and calcomining Wesley Church, Meaford Road. Read it.

At the General Conference.

Dr. Christoe, of this town, who was elected a representative to the General Conference of the Methodist Church on the first ballot, is in Toronto this week attending to his duties in connection therewith. Dr Hixon is in attendance at Medical Hall during his absence.

Tit-Bits.

Consisting of Local and Other Interesting Items gathered by The Advance Reporters.

The ADVANCE till the first of January, 1887, for 25 cents.

Mr. Thos. Clayton, of this place, has been visiting friends in Meaford.

A well assorted stock of Drugs and Patent Medicines, also Druggists sundries at Richardsons Drug Store.

Mr. Smith, the Markdale Barber, will be in Flesherton Monday next, cattle fair day, to attend to those requiring his services.

The Sons of Temperance here purpose introducing some interesting features for the long evenings which are so close at hand.

The first and only original case of Berlin Wools ever imported into Artemesia. Ladies call and see them at Richardsons Drug Store. Very cheap.

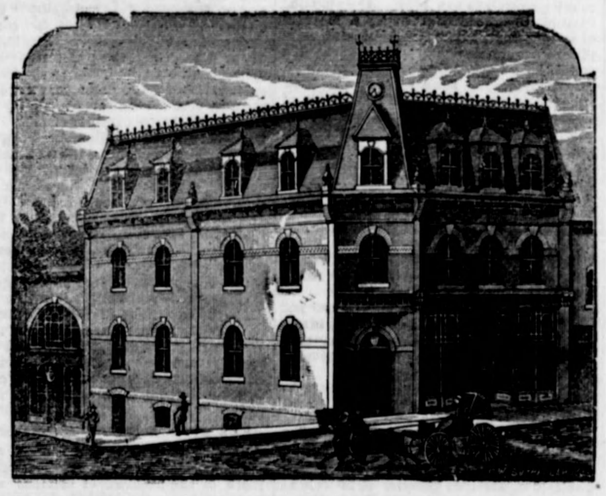
Read the advertisement for tenders for work in connection with Wesley Church, Meaford Road, in our advertising columns.

Miss Ella Ayers is organist in the Methodist church here in the absence of Miss Christoe, and last Sunday filled the position very acceptably.

Just received, a large stock of Stationery, Note Paper, Envelopes, School Books, Presbyterian Hymn Books, Methodist Hymn Books, &c., &c. at Richardsons Drug Store.

Mr. Vanzant, our well known marble man, recently placed a handsome $500 granite monument in the Clarksburg and Thornbury cemetery for Thos. Loucks, Esq., of the first mentioned place.

A young man was in Flesherton recently, with the view of starting a first-class bakery here. He must have got discouraged at the prospect, for we have not heard anything more about him since he was here. Between the bakery we have here, and the number of outside bakers who visit the place every week, things evidently looked blue for him. It is a palpable fact, too, that the outside bakers are well patronized. Otherwise they would not visit the town so regularly.



JUST RECEIVED!

Prohibition will be discussed at the District Meeting of R. T. of T. on Tuesday afternoon, the 7th inst., in Town Hall, Flesherton, and powerful addresses in the evening by popular speakers. Don't fail to be present.

Master Wm. Whalen, the present bus driver between this town and the C. P. R. station is perhaps the most popular and courteous young carrier of Her Majesty's mails we have had here for a long time. Long life to you, Billy my boy!

Table Linens and Towellings from Belfast, and a fine range of Nottingham Laces opened at Richardson & Co's.

We had a pleasant call from our old school-mate, Mr. D. S. Carnahan, on Saturday last. Mr. Carnahan is now doing a good business in blacksmithing in the thriving little village of Duncan, on the town line between Euphrasia and Collingwood.

The Concert by the R. T. of Temperance on Tuesday next, the 7th of September, promises to be a grand affair. Do not fail to secure seats easily; popular price of admission; single tickets 15 cents, and 25 cents for lady & gentleman.

The solo by Miss Edith Richardson, and chorus by the choir, rendered in the Methodist church here last Sunday morning, was one of the most enjoyable features in connection with the various services of the day.

Knit Wool Shawls from Germany, a large consignment just opened at Richardson & Co's.

Miss Addie and Mr. Will Armstrong accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clarke to Hamilton last week. Two of the most prominent members of the Methodist choir are now, therefore, absent, viz., Miss Armstrong, and Miss Christoe.

The Liberal Conservative party of East Grey will have a convention early in October for the selection of candidates for the representation of the riding in the House of Commons and Ontario Legislature. Due notice of the same will be published later on.

The indignant Tyronian, whose letter appears in this week's paper, didn't send his real name, and it is only out of a profound respect for the classic Tyrone settlement that we forego our usual custom by publishing it. Was he ashamed of his name? If not, why did he not have the courtesy to send it?

If the date after your name is not "87" you should at once proceed to "tickle us gently under the chin," for you are in arrears for your subscription to the ADVANCE. As we need money, it will not be necessary for us to inform you that we are in earnest—in solemn earnest at that.

THE ADVANCE, the liveliest, spiciest, and best local and family newspaper, will be sent to any address in Canada or the U. S. from now until Jan. 1st, 1888 (exactly 16 months) for $1.00 spot cash. This is the best offer of the season. Those who do not wish to take this offer, can have it until January 1887, for 25 cents.

Another farm advertised for sale in this issue of the ADVANCE. The farm contains 100 acres more or less, 80 of which are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and is located in Township of Osprey. Apply to Samuel Colquett, Feversham P. O., or to James Love, Inistioge P. O., for full particulars.

We understand that, by the death of a relative in the U. S. recently, Mrs. Strain, of this village, has fallen heir to the handsome sum of $5,000. As Mr. and Mrs. Strain are both well-known philanthropists—who for many years have been doing charitable deeds in a quiet and unostentatious manner—all are pleased at the good fortune which has lately befallen them.

Mr. Leonard Betts' chariot attracted considerable notice Monday morning. Leonard is becoming quite aristocratic, but he should engage a coachman, with a tall plug hat, and a beaver cloak, and ride in the chariot himself. It would look more like the correct thing, down't ye know. The idea of Leonard mounting the high coachman's seat himself, in a straw hat and brown derrys—with pants tied up bag shape—is quite shocking to codfish aristocrats, downt ye' know, bay jove! Down't do it again, Lenny, old boy!

New Tapestry Carpets, choice patterns, at Richardson & Co's.

Mr. Wm. Barnhouse, of this town, was more than surprised on Saturday last by a visit from his sister, Mrs. C. Symons, and two children, from Oregon and California, U. S., where Mrs. S. has been staying for the benefit of her health during the past nine years. He is much pleased with the decided improvement in his sister's health. Mrs. Symons speaks highly of the climate of Oregon, as being everything any one may desire.

Local notices intended to benefit any company, society, or individual, inserted among reading matter at the rate of 10 cents per line first insertion, and 5 cents per line each subsequent insertion. This does not exclude politicians of any stripe. A newspaper being to its proprietor what a farm is to the agriculturist, a store to the merchant, or a stock of drugs to the chemist, it will be seen that the Editor has a perfect right to sell or rent space in his columns for what it will fetch him, circulation, &c., being taken into consideration. Churches are not excluded either, be it remarked: they have no more right than the people to dead-beat their way—and we don't intend to let them either!

Notice.

Whilst Dr. Christoe is attending the Methodist General Conference in Toronto, Dr. Hixon will attend at the Medical Hall Tuesdays and Saturdays, and any other day if required.

It is Whispered Around

District Council.

Next Tuesday, 7th, Sept., will be quite a gala day with the Royal Templars of Temperance of this district, who will assemble in the Town Hall, Flesherton, for the purpose of transacting important business in connection with the District. In the evening a grand Concert will be given under the auspices of Fountain Council, consisting of choice vocal and instrumental music, &c. Admission only 15 cents or 25 cents per couple. See bills for other particulars.

Did He Take His Seat.

To the Editor of The Advance.

Dear Sir,—Upon what authority did you make the statement recently, that Riel took his seat in the House of Commons, during the regime of Mr. McKenzie? Or was it merely a joke?

ARTEMESIA.

[If Riel could so far elude the vigilence of the wary (?) officials as to enter the House of Commons and affix his signature in the register, what reason have we for doubting that he took his seat therein long enough to rest himself? Dodging officials and signing ones name under the very eyes of the "powers that be" surely entitled him to a seat—for a short time at anyrate.—ED. ADVANCE.]

Obituary.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. J. Lindsay, of Orangeville, which sad event occurred on Monday last, 30th inst.

Deceased was a very amiable and kind women, and although she had been in delicate health for some time, her death has been a severe shock to her husband and a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Her husband, Mr. J. Lindsay, is one of the most prominent citizens of Orangeville, and is an uncle of Mrs. A. R. Fawcett, wife of the Editor of THE ADVANCE.

The funeral took place on Wednesday (yesterday) and was very largely attended by relatives and sympathizing friends. The remains were conveyed to the C. P. R. station at Orangeville, and from thence by way of the C. V. R. branch railway to their last resting place at Brittania, Toronto township, where the last sad rites were performed with a solemnity befitting the occasion.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent,

Miss Ford is back again after the holidays at her calling of teaching the young ideas how to shoot.

The Rev. Mr. Ayers through physical inability was unable to be in attendance at the Wesley church last Sunday, but the want was very ably supplied by Mr. M. Richardson.

The most exciting incident here has been already noticed in the ADVANCE, is the narrow escape of Mr. Buchanan from being poisoned, he is coming around all right and feels very thankful for his narrow escape.

The little winged god, Cupid, has been paying us a visit and effectually discharging darts at Mr. Samuel Gilbert, and Miss Ann White succeeding in capturing them both. Rumor has it that he is making an onslaught on certain other parties here, with what result time alone will tell.

Indignant Tyrone.

To the Editor of the Advance.

Dear Sir,—I notice in your last week's ADVANCE an item concerning the row between the Watsons and George DeShong Himelspach, which you said was in the Tyrone neighborhood. Now, I beg to inform you that they do not live within 2½ and 3 miles from Tyrone. Hoping that you may correct this in your next issue, and that you will be careful about making wrong statements anent Tyrone in future,

I am, Sir, Scornfully yours,

TYRONIAN.

Euphrasia Jottings.

From our own Correspondent.

An Epping youth sucked 27 uncooked hen eggs on the 30th ult., and still lives. Egg peddlers needn't visit Epping so often in future—unless they want to make a big deal in shells.

Mr. James Myles and Mr. Auvigne Drinkall sowed fall wheat on the 31st ult.

Messrs. McKenzie and Trueman Burritt, citizens of Kimberley, had a red hot altercation on Tuesday evening. They nearly came to blows. However, it is understood that both gentlemen will make their next public debut before the Lord Chief Justice of Kimberley, Squire Stewart, on Saturday next.

W. C. T. U.

We are anxious to have a full attendance at our next meeting, Saturday, Sep. 11th. We are not a secret society, but gladly welcome all who have the cause of Temperance at heart.

"I have four good reasons for being an abstainer," said Dr Guthrie, "my head is clearer, my health is better, my heart is lighter, and my purse is heavier."

"As to the general use of alcohol in disease, every form of disease would be better treated without alcohol than with it."—Dr. Richardson, F.R.S.

The National Brewers Congress said in 1881, they would resist always the coming suffrage for women, because when she gets the ballot she will overthrow the trade in liquors. COR. SECRETARY.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent,

Everybody harvesting!

Mr. A. Heron has been in town about a week, fitting up his machine. He expects his new engine up about Tuesday, and then he will be prepared to thresh all the grain in Osprey.

There is quite an attraction at the S. A. barracks now, in the person of the Hallelujah Tinker from Collingwood.

There is a good deal of sickness here.

Mitch bought a War Cry on Sunday night and another individual offered to barter a small piece of tobacco for one. The "Sal's" here think that it is impossible for any weed user to go to heaven, so there is small hopes for you or I, Mr. Editor. I do not know where they get their authority for the belief: not in the bible at all events. They also put a guard on the door and will not allow any one to pass out after the meeting opens, until it closes.

R. T. McGirr exchanged horses again last Monday.

Quite a number of our citizens anticipate a visit to the Industrial fair. We wish them a pleasant journey.

The Public School Teachers

Of South Grey will meet in solemn conclave in the public school house, Durham, on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Sept. 29th and 30th, and Oct. 1st, the occasion being their annual meeting. The programme is lengthy but interesting. We notice that the Principal of Flesherton Public Schools, Mr. Wm. Irwin, is down for two subjects, viz., "History, with class," and "Teacher's Unions." We also observe that the principal of S. S. No. 4, Artemesia, Mr. C. J. Sproule, is down for one subject, viz., "Music in schools." Dr. McLellan, the distinguished literati, of Toronto, is on the programme for no less than four topics or subjects, viz., "Training of the Language Faculty," Public lecture, "Educational Progress in Ont.," (evening) "Art of questioning," and "English literature in Schools"

Notice.

We, the undersigned, will give a prize of $5.00 for the best "Garfield" colt of 1886; and $10.00 for best five colts sired by any draught horse in this section of country. Prizes to be awarded by Judges at East Grey fall show. Ten dollar prize to be divided equally between successful competitors.

Above notice should have been in prize List, but was neglected.
