CREAM

There is a big demand for butter and prospects for higher cream prices are in sight, so special care should be given to your milch cows this time of the year. We suggest:

Stabling during cool nights.
More grain feeding.

This will undoubtedly pay you well.

POULTRY

We are in the market to buy large quantities of both live and ressed poultry. Get in touch with us when you are ready to market your poultry.

Please avoid selling moulty birds, because they dress as "C" grade.

The Creamery will be closed from now on Wednesday evenings and Thursday afternoons.

Open Saturday nights.

Mrs. Kate McArthur

(By Priceville Reporter)

A host of friends mourn the loss of a highly esteemed and worthy citizen in the person of Mrs. Kate McArthur, who passed away on Saturday evening in Priceville. She was born in Priceville and spent her entire life here.

She was the daughter of the late John and Catherine Simpson and was 83 years of age. Mrs. McArthur was of a kind and loving disposition. Her diligence, kindness and uprightness won the deepest respect from all who knew her. She was a member of St. Andrew's Church, Priceville. She took a keen interest and active part in Red Cross work and made nearly sevently quilts, along with many other articles.

A year ago on November 7th, she underwent an operation in Owen Sound and about five weeks ago again took ill and although under the doctor's care and receiving all possible attention from her sisters and daughters and Nurse Smith of Feversham, she passed beyond the aid of all human care into the hands of a loving Father.

She leaves to mourn, two sisters, Miss Margaret Simpson and Mrs. E. Wright of Priceville, and two daughters, Jennie (Mrs. Donald Campbell) and Myrtle (Mrs. Geo. McLellan) of Niagara Falls, who is at present ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Campbell.

The funeral is being held this Tuesday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Campbell, to McNeill's cemetery. Mr. Paul Rumball will have charge of the service. Deepest sympathy is extended to all the sorrowing ones.

Wartime restrictions beset us on every side. First no cuffs on the pants, and now no pants "on the cuff."

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, interment being made in Meaford cemetery. A number of friends from Flesherton attended the funeral. British Army Clerk Turns Fighting Soldier

Army clerks and other men doing non-combatant duties in the British Army go through a course of realistic battle training, emerging as tough, bronzed, fighting men, ready to lay down pen and take up gun or grenade at a moment's notice. They make assaults through water, over barbed wire and high walls, under fire from live ammunition and in full fighting kit. All troops will be fit to be shock troops when "the day" comes.
