Editor Advance:—It is very nice to have a school near home, but when the ratepayer, who is assessed at $1,000, finds that he has to pay $20 school tax besides his other taxes, and for a school consisting of 15 to 20 children, presided over by a third class school mam, just out of her teens, with a bran new permit to teach for a year. Ratepayer will probably scratch his head and think John Thomas, and Mary Ann, and Catherine Jane, might have gone a little further to a better school, at a great saving to himself in school taxes. A number of youths from the environs of this town held a bacchanalin revel on our streets on Friday night last. As they are well known, they will exercise wisdom by confining their revels to some more uncivilized portion of the community in future.

Mr. Samuel Rogers, Reeve of Proton Township, and Mr. Thomas Gilray, Reeve of Euphrasia Township, gave us a call on Saturday last. The first named gentleman lives at Cedarville, but originally came from wealthy and fertile Toronto Township, in the County of Peel.

Cardigans, Jerseys and Underwear in great variety at M. Richardson and Co's.

Mr. T. D. Smith, the elegant tonsorial artist, of Markdale, will illuminate this town by his presence on both days of East Grey fall exhibition, viz., Next Thursday and Friday, Sept. 23rd and 24th, when he will be very happy to attend to any one requiring a hair cut, shave, or anything else in his business.

SHAWLS:—Novelties in German and Scotch goods, cheap
at M. Richardson & Co's.

Mr. S. Quinn gives a prize of $1 to the heaviest baby, not over 6 months of age, exhibited at Artemesia fall show, to be held in Priceville on Tuesday Oct. 5th. If a prize were given for the best squalling baby, and their was a fair turn out, there would be no need for a brass band to come fooling around, or a fife and drum band either.

COATINGS—In Twill, Corkscrew, and Wide Wale Worsteds; a complete range at M. Richardson & Co's.

The Agricultural Editor of THE ADVANCE set 5,500 ems of bourgeois type (solid measure) on Wednesday forenoon of last week, in five hours. And he wasn't in good practice either. All the work in connection with this office—job work, business management, correspondence, editing, newspaper type setting, &c.—is done, and done promptly and well, too, by the Agricultural Editor and an assistant, who has not yet been two years at the business!

Silk Velvets, Velveteens, and Plushes in all the best makes at M. Richardson & Co's.

A number of our esteemed contemporaries have fallen into the bad habit of sending out any dim and unreadable sheets of their various issues to their "exchanges." Half sheets cannot be avoided sometimes, but those sheets, which give evidence of the devil's neglect of duty in running the roller across the type, should be turned over to the butcher or baker, instead of being marked with a big X—as they are in many offices—and sent to "exchanges," to be thrown aside in disgust by the justly indignant editor.

Dress Department:—This department is still to the front in all the latest designs and colorings at M. Richardson & Co's.

The brick work on Mr. Whitten's new house will be finished this week by that energetic contractor, Mr. Fred. Ryder. The structure is a neat one.

On Tuesday night, while the firemen were out at practice, near the Globe, the tug Hiawatha, which was tied up for the night in the Slip, caught fire. The fire started somewhere near the fire-box, and the flames burst fiercely into the wheelhouse, burning and charring the timbers terribly. Jim Scott was on the tug and gave the alarm, and a bucket brigade had all the work of extinguishing about accomplished, before the firemen got to work. The damage will not interfere with the tug's running. —Collingwood Enterprise.

Heavy Weight Fish.

About ten days ago Messrs. Geo. Tryon and W. Watson, of Priceville, caught some very fine speckled trout in the mill pond at that place. Mr. W. caught one weighing 2 lbs. 6 oz., while Mr. Tryon caught one weighing 1 lb. 9 oz., and was the largest fish (surface measure) of the two. There are those incredulous unbelievers who won't credit anything beyond what passes before their own vision, and believe that—

The man who is handy at casting trout flies,
Is likewise as handy at casting trout lies;
As snow-balls develop the more they are rolled,
So fish stories lengthen the oftener told.

Not so in this case: seeing is believing; and to be still nearer the fact, the writer made a hearty meal off a portion of the one-pound-nine fish.

W. C. T. U.

A meeting of the above Society was held last Saturday at Mrs. D. E. Wright's and was well represented. The growth of the Union since its origin is one very encouraging feature, and we hope that its numbers may still be augmented. To many, the existence of such a society may seem superfluous but should it do nothing more than educate the wives and mothers in the Temperance sentiment, it will, indeed, have accomplished something and this something means a great deal to posterity, whose moral lineaments will be, to a large extent, a reflection upon the teaching and influence of woman.

The heart-felt wish of the W.C.T.U. is that God may abundantly bless the Temperance cause throughout our land.

Church Opening.

As will be seen by large posters just issued, the opening services in connection with the comfortable and neat Baptist chapel, erected in Flesherton this summer, take place therein on Sunday next, 19th inst. Three services will be held during the day. The eloquent and learned Rev. A. Grant, of London, is to preach in the morning at 11 o'clock, and in the evening at 6:30 o'clock. Monday evening following there will be a platform meeting, with our talented townsman, M. Richardson, Esq., in the chair. (We had almost forgotten to add, that tea will be served at 5 p. m., admission 25 cents) Addresses will be delivered by Rev. W. Ayers, Rev. E. T. Carter, Mt. Forest, Rev. J. Dunlop, Durham, Rev. A. Grant, London, Rev. W. Strongman, D. D., Dundalk, and Rev. A. Wilson, Markdale. Chair to be taken at 7:30.

The afternoon service on Sunday will be held at 2:30, when a sermon will be preached by Rev. W. Ayers. Collection at each service for building fund.

Lecture.

Rev. W. Ayers delivered his lecture on the "Supremacy of the Human Mind" in the Methodist church here on Monday evening. Inclement weather prevented a goodly number from putting in an appearance, but quite a few of our citizens were there, and enjoyed the intellectual treat very much. Mr. R. J. Sproule occupied the chair in the absence of his brother, Dr. Sproule, M. P., very ably indeed. From the close attention secured during the hour occupied in the delivery of the lecture, we think Rev. W. Ayers can safely congratulate himself upon his success in this well beaten path of platform oratory. At the close of the lecture, Rev. Thos. Watson moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer in a brief but eloquent manner, which was seconded in equally graceful and eloquent language by M. Richardson, Esq., and carried by a unanimous standing vote. Mr. R. J. Sproule, the chairman, spoke in a practical and edifying manner upon the subject of supremacy of the mind over matter. Mr. Wm. Irwin, Principal of our Public Schools, made his debut here as a public speaker in a very creditable manner. The Agricultural Editor also said something. And Mr. M. Richardson spoke for about five minutes in a strain which showed him to be equipped for the lecture field at a moment's warning. A liberal silver collection and the singing of the national anthem brought a pleasant evening to a close.

Next month Rev Mr. Ayers will deliver his interesting lecture, "My Trip to England."

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent,

The Directors of Osprey Tp. Ag. Society met on Saturday evening for the purpose of revising the prize list and appointing judges for the annual fall fair, which they did in a most satisfactory manner.

There was a very exciting time opposite the post-office on Saturday night. It happened thus:—Mr. W, of the 10th con., and his good dame were good members of the S. A., previous to the advent of the person who now has charge of the barracks here. He wouldn't allow any one to join that used the weed. And good old Elijah has used it since a boy—consequently found it very hard to quit. But the old lady was quite taken up with the peculiar ways of the captain, and still stuck to the army. So it followed on Saturday night, that the old lady marched with the army and 'Lijah seed summat that he didn't like, and caught the old lady to bring her out of the march; but she would not go, and she appealed to the bystanders, and said:—"O Lo'd, neowbody kneows 'ow 'ee 'as a' been a' crushin' doon on me this w'ile back. It's an aaful theng, men an' wimming—my h'eyes h'ar dum—ha! ha!"

There is another addition to the male population of the hotel.

I. H. Perigo and R. T. and W. J. McGirr have gone to the Industrial fair—some big yarns next week.

There is a very tricky cow in town that the owner takes the bell off at night and puts it on the morning. Now, I would say for the benefit of the owner, that she had better leave the bell on at night as well as day time, otherwise keep the cow shut up—failing either, she will find her in pound some morning, if she crosses the river as often as she has of late.

The Exhibition.

Toronto World of Yesterday.

It only required a passing glance at the streets of Toronto last night to convince our thousands of visitors that the Toronto Industrial Exhibition is indeed "Canada's Great Fair." The hotels were jammed full and beds were at a big premium. The total receipts of the fair up to last night were $23,705, or $6162 more than for the corresponding days of last year.

People from all over the Province do like to visit Toronto, and they find no more convenient time of the year than the pleasant month of September.

A good deal of fun has been poked at the Board of Directors by rival associations because of the "amusement features" introduced into the horse-ring. The directors, if they are wise, will give these "objections" the go by. Fat bullocks, Berkshire pigs without necks, broad-backed Southdowns, sleek-coated thoroughbreds and wonderful inventions in mechanism and agricultural implements are all very well in their way, but the festive farmer and his sons and daughters like to see all they can for the price of admission. Good, clean amusements, properly conducted, will always prove drawing cards. These attractions in the ring are now looked upon as the keystone of the Exhibition, and the directors should encourage Manager Hill in these features of the fair.

Another prominent feature of fair days in Toronto is the large number of conventions and meetings that are being held at present. Yesterday the Methodist General Conference sat as usual in the Metropolitan, a trades congress was held in Dufferin Hall, the bee farmers talked about honey at the City Hall, the Division Court clerks of the Province were assembled at the Court House, a big temperance convention was in progress, fifty municipal officials of Ontario formed the nucleus of what may prove a powerful organization, and several minor meetings, all of a national or provincial nature, were held.

The people of Ontario heartily join with the citizens of Toronto in making our Exhibition the biggest, the best and the most cosmopolitan in the land. Hurrah for the Toronto Industrial!

Wanted.

Well, we'll tell yon what is wanted:—All subscribers in arrears to square accounts with us as soon as they read this intimation, and begin the incoming year with a clean sheet. No better time than the present to do this. Putting off such small accounts from time to time is not advisable.

We have a word to say to certain persons who have utterly disregarded our demands for prompt payment of job work and advertising accounts: if you do not settle within the next ten days you will be sued.

John Baldwin Hands.

To the Editor of The Advance.

Dear Sir,—I was glad to see by your last paper that Mr. Hands is going to be a candidate at the next election for this County. I have known Mr. Hands ever since he was a boy. He is the son of a farmer, and was born and raised in the County of Dufferin, and worked on the farm and knows what farming is. He then studied law, and though he is only a young man, he has by hard and industrious work raised himself to the position of the head of the prosperous young law firm, whose card appears in your paper. He was, as you stated, a partner of the late Mr. Lauder, M. P. P. for this county and no doubt derived some advantage from that fact. He is a good speaker and is in every way well adapted to represent the county. I admire a young man like Mr. Hands, who can raise himself up as he has done, and I will use every effort to have him chosen as our next candidate for the local house. I think we should all join in doing so. Excuse me for taking up so much of your valuable space.

Yours truly,
A FARMER.

Osprey, 13th Sept., 1886.

Notice.

We, the undersigned, will give a prize of $5.00 for the best "Garfield" colt of 1886; and $10.00 for best five colts sired by any draught horse in this section of country. Prizes tobe awarded by Judges at East Grey fall show. Ten dollar prize to be divided equally between successful competitors.

Above notice should have been in prize List, but was neglected.
