The Presbyterian concert in the Town Hall, on Friday evening, was a big success financially and otherwise.

The celebrated Irish Loyalists, Rev. Dr. Kane, of Belfast, and Mr. G. Hill Smith, of Armagh, will address a mass meeting at Shelburne on Monday next, Oct. 4th, at 2 o'clock p.m.

Mrs. Anthony Kenny, of this township, lost a purse containing about $9 on Friday last, in Flesherton. A son of Mr. James Stewart, Artemesia, found it and returned it to the owner.

We understand that Mr. John Beecroft, of Eden Vale, Eugenia, and Mr. James Woodburn, of Glenfield, Eugenia, have got two apple trees each in blossom. This speaks well for the fertility of the soil of Eugenia.

There will be a concert in Markdale to-morrow evening (Friday) under the auspices of the Presbyterian church, when the Agricultural Editor of this paper will make his first bow—as a public reciter—to a Markdale audience.

Mr. Jas. Brodie exhibited a beautiful and very large assortment of beans at East Grey show, which carried off first prize. He was quite successful in all his exhibits as will be seen by the prize list.

Baldness may be prevented, and a thick growth of hair stimulated, by the use of Ayer's Hair vigor. This preparation also restores the natural color to gray hair, and renders it soft, pliant, and glossy.

Mr. Irwin Fawcett, of Euphrasia, took a number of first prizes at the show here, for apples, potatoes, &c. The apples, which were left at our sanctum, were the largest ever seen there, whilst the potatoes were great.

A sample of two varieties of plums from the orchard of Mr. J. R. Fawcett, Kimberley, beats anything in the plum line we have ever seen. One of the plums measured 6 inches around one way, and 6¼ inches the other. Who can beat it?

A large stock of Hats, Caps, and Fur goods now opened at Richardson & Co's.

Life becomes almost a burden when the body is racked with the suffering which arises from scrofula. If any taint of this disease lurks in your blood, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will expel it. The end by taking this medicine.

Mr. J. G. Russell's exhibit of silverware, gold watches, &c., at our exhibition, formed the centre of attraction in the Agricultural Hall. It was really grand. During the last day Mr. Russell took in twelve watches for repairs, and on Saturday had no less than forty-seven.

Where bills are printed in connection with socials, entetainments, etc., a free notice will be given in these columns as usual. When there is no printing done, all notices are charged at the rate of 10 cents per line first insertion, and 5 cents per line each subsequent insertion when matter is not changed.

Miss Lizzie Richardson exhibited her first attempt at water color painting at East Grey show last week. It was a most creditable effort. The paintings by Miss Damude were good, and the crayon sketches by Miss Edith and Miss Maud Richardson showed good artistic ability. Sketches by the Moffatt Bros., of Markdale, were very much admired, as well as some beautiful specimens in scroll saw work by the same gentlemen.

Underwear all kinds, very cheap, at M. Richardson & Co's.

We like those pleasant socials, where one can chat, sing, play all sorts of innocent games, and make themselves at home. Such a social was that held in the Sons of Temperance hall on Monday evening last, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. There was, besides, a rich feast of music. Dr. Christoe, in his most genial and happy manner, filled the chair. Limited space obliges us to curtail our report.

"Momus" writes quite a unique epistle in last week's Markdale Standard. Something in the Presbyterian Review, to the effect that it sometimes happened that a child was untruthful even when the home atmosphere was truthful, aroused the cacoethes scribendi of "Momus," and he accordingly "emphatically denied the truth of that statement." Nevertheless the Presbyterian Review is correct. The logic used by "Momus," in an article covering over a column, is not only weak, but many of the statements are directly opposed to common sense.

Mr. Neil McColman, M.P.P.

To the Editor of The Advance.

Sir,—I notice in your issue of the 23rd inst., that you refer to the Mirror's remarks, re East Grey political horizon, and request me to speak out and say whether I am a candidate for the convention, to be held in Markdale on 11th prox. In reply, I would most respectfully announce through your columns, that I am again seeking re-election, and will be a candidate at the convention; and if dropped, as predicted—laid aside on some shelf—I will do my best to secure the election of any good man that the convention may select. However, my eyes are not dim nor my strength abated to the extent some would make you believe.

I have never instructed any person to say that I would not run for the next term of the local parliament.

Yours truly,

NEIL McCOLMAN.

Fatal Accident at Flesherton Station.

On Thursday afternoon last, about four o'clock, Mr. Wm. Radley—son of Mr. John Radley, near Maxwell—met with a fatal accident while crossing the C. P. R. track at Flesherton Station. He was crossing the R. R. track, as before mentioned, but, unfortunately, did not not notice a shunting engine which was rapidly moving along the line towards him. In less time than it takes us to write it, poor Radley was jammed in between the engine and another car, which was standing, on the track, and so terribly crushed that he died from the injuries sustained a short time afterwards. As soon as the accident happened Dr. Carter of this town was summoned in hot haste, but the patient was beyond the hope of medical aid, and soon passed quietly away into the other life.

Deceased was quite a young man and leaves a wife and two children—as well as his aged parents and his brothers and sisters—to mourn his loss. It is one of the saddest bereavements we have ever chronicled, and has elicited the deepest and most heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral took place on Saturday, and was very largely attended. The remains were interred in the Maxwell cemetery with military honors—the Flesherton volunteer company, under command of Lieut. Field—of which deceased was a member—and the Flesherton Band, attending in a body.

Mr. John Radley, sr.—father of deceased—desires us to convey through the columns of THE ADVANCE his heartfelt thanks to Mr. Alex. Hannah and other Flesherton Station friends for their great kindness to his son at the time of the accident, and also to the Flesherton volunteer company and Band for their presence at the performance of the last sad rites.

Unreasonable.

A number of gentlemen at Flesherton Station, it seems, are quite indignant with us in connection with the School question, which has tried the patience and sanity of many. If "Valentine Muggins" writes a sharper letter than usual, the Editor of this paper is sure to come in for a very large share of abuse—behind his back. Last week "Muggins" gave ADVANCE readers the benefit of a lot of plain talk, re the school question, which was not relished. But of course all the blame fell upon us, and many most unreasonable and ungentlemanly threats were indulged in by a number of gentlemen who should know better. Surely if they feel aggrieved by the remarks of our correspondent, they can avail themselves of the same medium for rectifying the same that "Valentine Muggins" did in condemnation of the new school section. Why we should be blamed for allowing we can not understand. One man said he would "throw up his paper" because we allowed or countenanced "such carryings on." Once for all let us say to such men: your "throwing up the paper" will neither benefit yourself nor yet injure in the least the paper losing your patronage. You might just as well try to stop the flow of a spring creek by taking a pail of water therefrom, as to imagine your "throwing up a paper" will be a death blow to that publication.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The sudden and unexpected death of Wm Radley at Flesherton Station, last week, has cast a gloom over this entire neighborhood, as he was known by all, far and near, as a quiet, industrious young man, and highly respected by all. He has left a wife and one child, besides his aged parents, to mourn his loss. His remains were followed to the grave by the largest funeral cortege ever seen in this place—it was about three-fourths of a mile in length and the number of people present was estimated at from five to six hundred The Flesherton company of volunteers, and the Flesherton Band as well, attended to pay their last respects to their dead comrade, and the manner in which they performed the last sad rites was truly commendable. The funeral sermon by Mr. Ferrier, in the Methodist church here on Sunday evening, was listened to with much attention. The friends of the deceased have the deepest sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

A few farmers yet have patches of grain out, and we notice one in particular, who has considerable grain yet uncut, and is noted for being behind every year. Farmers who have threshed report a good yield of grain.

John McQuay was summoned before T. Gamey, Esq., on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Milne, and fined $4.00 and costs. John will likely be more careful in future.

Notes Prom Osprey.

From our own Correspondent.

(The following was received too late for last week's paper.)

There seems to be a good deal of trouble about the article in a recent issue of the ADVANCE, re marriage. The person whose name is subscribed to the article, positively declares it a forgery, and your humble servant thinks he is sincere about it.

On Saturday night an old gent of the tramp species, the worse for liquor, visited this burg, and two nobby gents of the town led him around, sending him to private houses, and amongst the houses visited was Camp's, who happened to be in bed. He soon got up, and the very atmosphere smelled of brimstone and fire with the invectives hurled at tramp and his guides.

Both Perigo and Camp say that they know those two cows and that they have been going a little too far with their jokes of late on their neighbors, and if they don't stop they will wish they had. Camp swears if he catches them prowling around after night he will open up the Winchester on them. So, boys, beware—he is a good shot.

Mrs. Eliza Wright is very ill with inflammation....I. H. Perigo has an addition....Miss Julia Perigo is very ill with inflammation of the lungs.

Russell,

The Noted Jewelry Man,

Still leads the Jewelry Trade in this district, in fine Goods and LOW PRICES.

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY FROM RUSSELL:

1. He keeps no auction sale goods, advertising them as reliable!

2. He does not sell Second Hand Watches and represent them as new.

3. He keeps the finest line of Jewelry and Spectacles in this county, and sells them 25 per cent. lower than any other dealer.

4. He buys direct from his brother, R. Russell, of Hamilton, thereby saving his customers the wholesale profit which other dealers charge them.

Take all your Repairs to Russell, as he knows how to do the work properly and at reasonable prices.

JAMES G. RUSSELL, - FLESHERTON.

Typhoid Fever in Euphrasia.

Typhoid fever claimed two residents of Euphrasia as its victims recently. On Friday Mr. Manning, of Rocklyn, died of the fever, and on Thursday, Mr. Wm. Cook, son of James Cook, Esq., Rocklyn, died from the same cause. Both were buried on Saturday last—the first was buried in Storey's cemetery, St. Vincent, and the latter was buried in the 11th line (Euphrasia) cemetery. The same hearse conveyed the remains of both to their last resting place.

Markdale Fall Show, Friday, Oct. 1.

All are invited to call and see my fine stock of Watches, Clocks, Silverware, Jewelry, Spex, Musical Instruments, &c. Will be pleased to show goods and give prices whether you buy or not. W. A. Brown, Jeweller, Markdale.

Artemesia Fall Show, Tuesday, Oct. 5.

Don't fail to go and bring that fat baby of yours—even if it does cry and squall like a Brass Band or an earthquake—it will be all right and always.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent,

Mrs. William Hutchinson has returned home again from King where she has been visiting her friends for some time past.

Mr. T. A. Blakely the Flesherton painter has secured the contract of painting and calcomming the Wesley Church.

Several of our citizens were down to Toronto taking in the sights of the city and the great exhibition. And so say the knowing one that some of them had some other important business to which they attended during their visit.

How is this for quick work: Messrs. Sparling & Ross with their steam thresher, finished threshing at S. Warlings, moved one mile and a half to E. Brodies, and were at work again inside of forty-five minutes. If there are any others can beat this, let us hear from them.

W. C. T. U.

The first semi-annual meeting of the W. C. T. U., was held on Saturday, Sept. 25th. The election and installation of officers for the ensuing year, took place as follows:

Mrs. Moore, President;
Mrs. Gordon, Vice-President;
Mrs. Keefer, " "
Mrs. Watson " "
Mrs. Gjerdrum, Rec. Sec.;
Mrs. D. E. Wright, Treasurer;
Mrs. Bunt, Auditor;
Miss Hopkins, Cor. Sec.;

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Gjerdrum were chosen delegates to attend The Ninth Annual Provincial Convention of W. C. T. U. to be held in the Methodist Church, Owen Sound, Oct. 12th, 13th, and 14th. It is intended that this gathering shall be the most practical and helpful convention ever held. Mrs. Lucas, sister of the Hon. John Bright, and President of the World's W. C. T. U., is expected to be present.

COR. SEC.

The A. E's Annual Report.

The Horse Reporter being on duty elsewhere, and the Fashions Editor having just been detailed off to write up a hen roost robbery on fifth avenue, it devolved upon the Agricultural Editor to call on Miss Maud Richardson, who has just returned with the latest novelties in millinery, and let the public know something about the same through these columns. The A. E. was very graciously received, and was soon inextricably entangled in a grand conglomeration of milliner's "technicalities." However, he managed to find out that the "Gainsborough" is the popular, or rather, the fashionable shape in the hat line this season. Turbans and Plush Bonnets are much worn and Miss Richardson makes a fine display in everything in the business. In woolen goods, the "Fascinators" have given place to a more fascinating class of goods—very serviceable and very pretty. But in order to have a proper conception of all the pretty things to be seen in Miss Richardson's millinery rooms, you will have to make a personal inspection yourself. Every customer is treated courteously, and orders for trimming, etc., are attended to promptly. The prices are reasonable and just, quality of material and everything else taken into consideration.

East Grey Exhibition.

In some respects our fall exhibition this year was superior to any yet held here—especially was this the more noticeable in the class of horses and colts exhibited, which were away ahead of anything ever exhibited in this district. The fruits were well represented, too, and of course roots showed up well. Our dairy interests were well represented, and the quality of butter exhibited equal to former years; the general array of Ladies' Work was also well up to the mark. The number of visitors was about the same as last year. Want of space prevents us giving a more extended notice.

AYER'S Sugar-Coated Cathartic PILLS.

If the Liver becomes torpid, if the bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indigestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health.—W. T. Brightney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than any thing else, to Ayer's Pills cured me of Stomach and Liver troubles, from which I had suffered for years. I consider them the best pills made, and would not be without them.—Morris Gates, Downsville, N. Y.

I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor.—John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it increased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with Indigestion, and distressing pains in

The Bowels.

By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured.—Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made.—S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss.

My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse.
