

FLT. LIEUT. GORDON FREDERICK OF LINDSAY, FIGURES IN STILL ANOTHER THRILLING ADVENTURE

Few young airmen have had as many thrills and exciting adventures in the present war as Flight Lieut. Gordon Frederick, of Lindsay, son of Mrs. Jean Frederick.

A large picture, which appeared in a recent issue of the Toronto Star, bears the following caption, "Canadians Spend 18 Hours in Dinghies in the Channel," and the following short, descriptive article:

"Back at base after spending 18 hours on the waters of the English Channel, Flt. Lt. Gordon Frederick, of Lindsay, navigator for Wing Cmdr. A. Barker, of the R.C.A.F. City of Edmonton Intruder Squadron, is assisted by F.Q. W. Stewart, Toronto. When their Mosquito crash-landed on the channel the two intruders lashed their dinghies together and spent a day and a night float. Frederick sustained a fractured leg."
