

*In Memory of Pte. Clifford Haight
Who Was Killed on Active Service In Italy*

During the morning service at Queen Street Church yesterday, a memorial prayer was offered up in memory of Pte. Clifford Haight, who was killed in action in Italy on May 23rd, 1944 and on behalf of the bereaved. This prayer was followed by the singing of the hymn of commemoration, "O Valiant Hearts". A mixed quartette also sang a memorial number, "Some Day He'll Make It Plain". The Minister preached from the text, Phillipians 2:30, pointing out that the Christian Life is a spiritual Crusade in which we are challenged to live daringly, sacrificially and dangerously.
