THE TRAITORS!

Neil McColman's Double Shuffle.

There is a big traitor in the Conservative camp. The fact can no longer be disguised. Neil McColman is a traitor to his party and in full harmony with the Reform party. Now for the proofs:—We have it on undoubted authority, that a petition is being secretly circulated among Reformers and disloyal Conservatives asking Mr. Brown to withdraw from the field and allow McColman and Rorke to "fight it out between them!" What does this mean but that a distinct understanding exists between Mr. McColman and the Reform party—in short that the former is prepared to sell his constituency body and bones for the sake of getting votes. There is a deep laid plot on foot, but we much mistake the temper of the honest and intelligent Conservative electors of Centre Grey if they do not consign Neil McColman and his blind followers to the cold shades of eternal oblivion. Away with the traitors!

Another large Stock of those famous Dundas axes now to hand at M. Richardson & Co's. Flesherton.

Left Over for Next Week.

Feversham correspondence; report of annual meeting of R. B. P. No. 282; "Education and Politics," a special contribution from Maxwell; Lettter from Mr. W. L. Dixon, Priceville, re school matters; letter from Mr. R. McGowan, anent same matter; two letters from Mr. Wm. Purdy, Winnipeg. Again we ask correspondents to be brief or we may be obliged to condense lengthy articles at our own discretion.

Anti-Clique's Letter.

To the Editor of The Advance.

Mr. Editor,—We cannot refrain from congratulating you on the fortunate event that adorns your columns with such a model of ambiguity, equivocation and corruption of brogue as Mr. Reiley's letter. Paragraph first states, that his colleagues wanted him to contradict them; that a change is wanted. What change? Is it a change of climate, or government, or religion, or what else, that at an annual meeting he will prove, &c.? What annual meeting? Is it the annual meeting of the 17th of March, or the 30th Nov., at which an Irishman renounces his nationality, joins in a bowl of brose and the havoc of a haggis and declares himself a Scotchman? To follow the nonsense of this rigmarole is too tedious, but the cap of the climax is where the lion takes his own head into his own mouth to retain it, for if he took any other member into it he would lose it. This beats Barnum and shews Mr. Riely to be a student of the conjuror, hocus-pocus, and legerdemain. We would advise him to change his text books for Robinson Crusoe and assume the study of orthography and rhetoric under the appropriate tuition of Crusoe's goat, for Crusoe's goat is Irish and was educated in "ould Trinity," and knows that she has as good a right to her own opinion as any goat of any other nationality; and an Irishman receiving her congenial instruction for six months would be in no danger at all of failing at the entrance examination.

We are at a loss to know whether the language of the whole production is not that of a Gibraltar monkey rejoicing over the recent receipt of its annual instalment of Elliott's bounty, or the frantic rage of the offspring of Balaam's ass at being bungled in the shoeing by Mr. Rieley! For among other high machiavelian qualifications, he prides himself in the opinion that he can shoe an ass. The intellectual abilities displayed in this letter could not stand comparison with the intellectual abilities of a gozling hatched last night under an old goose far gone in consumption. And what else could be expected from the man who read the recantation (in a public speech) of his nationality on the 30th Nov. last, swallowed half a gallon of brose, devoured a haggis, and declared himself a Scotchman of the O Reiley clan.

Now, in conclusion, Mr. Editor, if you think that appointing this man trustee of a haggis is not appointing the fox to guard the goose, just say so in the ADVANCE.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Elections and politics have engaged the minds of the people here for some days, and on Wednesday evening of last week a public meeting was held in the Orange hall, when the most prominent questions of the day were discussed by Messrs. Rorke, McColman, and Sproule, the Conservative candidates, and by Messrs. Brown and Gilray, Reform. The hall was well filled by a most intelligent audience eager to hear both sides of the discussion. Mr. D. K. Preston being chairman made every endeavor to show fair play, but as there is a black sheep in nearly every flock, one also appeared at this meeting, who seemed determined to let every one know his rowdy qualities, by making a disturbance and annoying both speakers and hearers; and all agreed in saying that he should have been put out.

Three of the young men of our village, viz.' Sanford Tuck, Wm. Long and T. Maxwell, left here last week to work in the Michigan lumber woods, as they think that National Policy gives better times there than here.

The infant child of Mrs. John Clark, who left here to join her husband in Michigan two weeks ago, took sick on the journey and died on their araival at Otter Lake. They have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

Mr. Robert Heron has been lying very ill with inflamation but is now in a fair way to recover.

Mr. J. S. Russell, a very wealthy farmer living on the third line, has become deranged in mind, but from what cause it appears none can tell. His mother, a very aged women, is the only one to attend him.

Notes From Kimberley.

The residence of Mr. Jas. Knott was destroyed by fire on the 1st inst. All the contents lost except a few beds. Mr. and Mrs. Knott were away from home when the fire occurred. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have arisen from a defective stove pipe.

A highly appreciated and instructive lecture was delivered here by Rev. Mr Watson, of Flesherton, last Tuesday, the subject being "Mr. Spurgeon."

After the District meeting of R. T. of T. on the 7th inst., a very successful social was held under the auspices of the Kimberley Council. There were many friends of the temperance cause from Flesherton, who rendered valuable assistance at the evening entertainment. Addresses were delivered by the following gentlemen: Messrs. Corcoran, Ayers, Ellis, Hicks. Hammond and others. On with the temperance cause!

A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits. When the body is langued, and the mind works sluggishly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills will assist in the recovery of physical buoyancy and mental vigor.

Royal Templars' Concert.

A good audience assembled in the Town Hall, Flesherton, last Friday evening, to enjoy the Royal Templars second annual concert. The programme was fairly sustained throughout. In the first part Misses Christoe and Ayers creditably maintained their excellant reputation as vocalists in the rendering of a difficult piece—although it is but right to remark that a slight discord was noticeable; owing no doubt, to insufficient practice. Miss Damude and Miss VanDusen were very happy in their selections, and almost equally as happy in their respective renderings. Miss Aggie Leitch sang a piece well suited to her voice. Messrs, Vanzant and N. & W. Campbell furnished instrumental selections which were very acceptable to the audience. Messrs Barnhouse & Russell were greatly applauded and received an encore. Prof. Patterson, no doubt, missed the train or was suddenly stricken by a severe cold, or a touch of the rheumatism, for he failed to put in an appearance. "The Fruits of the Wine Cup, from a purely literary and dramatic point of view, will never rank high. There is an incompleteness and lack of force about it which will prevent it ever becoming popular. With such indifferent material to work on, we must say that the ladies and gentleman who took part acquitted themselves remarkably well—especially Mr. Jas G. Russell and Miss Alice Bellamy, both of whom performed their parts more like professionals than amateurs. Mr. Barnhouse made a capital "Mr. Hamilton," especially in the first and last scenes. Mr. Gordon was natural and easy in his representation of prosperous Mr. Baily; as was Mr. W. Campbell in the character of Andrews. Mr. F. Sullivan will make a good actor in time, but puffing of cheeks and other facial contortions was not in harmony with the proper representation of the Yankee, Jeremiah. Mr. D. Blaw did well throughout and evidently possesses a well trained memory. The sketch "Dutch Justice," in which Messrs. J. G. Russell, W. Barnhouse and J. Gordon were central figures, created much merriment, being well performed. Russell makes a rare Dutchman. "God save the Queen" closed the entertainment.

We call the attention of our readers this week to the mammoth advertisement of the North of Scotland Canadian Mort. Co. in another page. ## Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

By Taking

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.
