TOWARD A BETTER WORLD

Funeral of Mrs. R. Park Was Largely Attended

(By Eugenia Reporter)

A sad gloom was cast over this community when the news spread of the passing of Mrs. Richard Park in her 74th year, at her home in Eugenia. She passed away five weeks from the day of the death of her son, Charles, and about the same hour in the morning. She had been ill the past few weeks, but it was not thought the end was so near.

The late Mrs. Park was a good neighbor and friend to all who knew her and will be greatly missed, especially in the post office and store. During her illness she was tenderly cared for by her younger daughter, Margie. She is survived by two sons, Russell of Flesherton and Jack with a Tank Corps overseas, and two daughters. May in Toronto and Margie at home, one granddaughter, Gwennie, and a grandson, Roy. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. Beaton, who was with her at the time of her death, and Mrs. Bruce of Santa Monica, Calif, also four brothers left to mourn her loss.

The funeral was held from Eugenia United Church on Friday afternoon, where a large gathering of friends was present to show their last respects. Owing to the illness of Rev. Westcott, Mr. F. B. Keys of the Baptist Church, Flesherton, conducted the funeral service and delivered a very comforting message. The choir rendered the anthem "Forever With The Lord." and "Son of My Soul" were the hymns used. The floral tokens were many and beautiful.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Fred Jamieson, Fred Pedlar, Ernest Proctor, Ray Genoe, Roy MacMillan and Calvin Boyce.

The flower bearers were: Alice and Annie Tudor, Gayle and Yvonne Genoe, Jean Boyce and Irene Phillips.

Relentless death, how swift it comes
And bitter grief imparts,
It takes our loved ones from our homes
But never from our hearts;
But as the years roll swiftly by
Whatever be our lot,
As long as lfe and memory last
They'll never be forgot.

Mrs. Hector McDonald Passes at Priceville

(By Priceville Reporter)

It is our sad duty to report the passing of Mrs. Kate MacDonald, which occurred peacefully in Durham hospital. She had been in failing health for some time, but was only in the hosptial for ten days. She was in her 76th year.

Her husband, Hector MacDonald, predeceased her by thirty-two years. The family left to mourn are one son and three daughters, namely: Alex. of Weston, Jessie (Mrs. Craig) of Toronto, Katie (Mrs. Wilfred Parslow) of New York City; Annie (Mrs. Mountain) of Philadelphia. Mrs. MacDonald was the third eldest of a family of eleven. Surviving members are: Sarah (Mrs. MacMillan) of Winnipeg, Emma (Mrs. Dowley) of Lethbridge, Alta., Neil and Hector of Edmonton, Alta., Allan of Seattle, Wash., Donald of Winnipeg and Colin of Priceville. Other members who passed on were: Annie McLachlan, Chrstina (Mrs. Bernard) and Lachlan.

Deceased was of a cheerful disposition and had sterling Christian qualities. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her and many will enjoy the memories of happy visits in her home Her manner and smile will never be forgotten.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 3rd, in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and was very largely attended. Her pastor, Mr. Paul Rumball, gave a very comforting message. She wa an active lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church and always attended when able to do so. Interment was made in the old cemetery, Priceville.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Allan, Alex. and Innis McLean, John McFarlane, John McDonald Jr. and Colin D. McMillan.

Beautiful floral tributes bore silent messages of love.

Though absent for the present, she has only gone before,
A life made beautiful by kindly deeds,
A helping hand for others' needs;
To her beautiful life there came an end,
She died as she lived, everyon's friend.

PRICEVILLE UNITED CHURCH

World wide Communion Sunday was observed last Sunday morning. A good sized congregation participated, and also Communicants' class of 12 was received by profession of faith into the church membership. The Sacraments were also observed at the Salem church and a class of 13 was received into the church by profession of faith and one by certificate.

A box social and crokinole party was held in the Old Durham Road school on Monday evening, under the auspices of the Y.P.U. of St. Columba. A happy time was spent. Mr. F. R. Oliver auctioned the boxes.
