BLAKEY — OTTEWELL

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Maxwell on Saturday, Oct. 16th, when Nellie Gertrude, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Ottewell, Feversham, became the bride of Francis Elwood Blakey, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Blakey, Victoria Corners, Rev. Holmes of the United Church officiating.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white sheer chiffon with all-over lace bodice and shoulder-length veil, held in place by a halo headdress and carried a fan bouquet of Talisman roses, lilies and maiden hair fern, a gold bracelet and locket to match. The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Nettie Bolton, of Toronto, attired in heavenly blue crepe and shoulder veil to match, with corsage of Talisman roses and fern. The groom was attended by his cousin, Maurice Blakey, of Toronto. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold locket and bracelet to match, and the groomsman a morocco leather bill fold.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with about forty guests in attendance. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers and flowers. A three-story wedding cake centred the table. The bride's mother received, wearing a dress of black crepe and a corsage of pink roses and fern.

Amid showers of confetti the happy couple later left for Niagara and other points. The bride chose for travelling a wool suit of Yukon blue with hat to match and navy accessories. On their return they will reside in Toronto. Guests from a distance included Mrs. Bolton and children of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Petrie of Mimico and other relatives from Flesherton and Collingwood.

There must be times when the errant boy feels like a badminton bird.
